DODGE-MORSE DIVORCE MUDDLE

Indictments Handed Down Against Ex-Judge and Several Prominent Lawyers.

RICH SENSATIONAL FEATURES.

Morse's Wealth and Prominence Has Given Case Unusual Notoriety.

New York, Jan. 27.-Indictments in connection with the Dodge-Morse divorce complications were handed down today against former Justice of the Supreme Court Edgar L. Fursman, A. F. Hummel and Benjamin F. Steinhardt of the law firm of Howe & Hummel; Edward J. Bracken, a detective, said to have been employed by the firm; Charles F. Dodge, formerly husband of Mrs. Morse, and several other persons whose names have not yet been made

The grand fury was excused from further duty until next Tuesday, when, it is said, more indictments will be found. The indictments against Hummel and Steinhardt are two each for mel and Steinnard are two each for subornation of perjury and one each for conspiracy. Against Fursman, Dodge and Bracken is one indict-ment each for conspiracy.

The alleged subornation of perjury consisted in inducing Dodge to make an affidavit that he had never been served with papers in the divorce case.

The alleged conspiracy consisted in an The alleged conspiracy consisted in an alleged attempt to defeat the ends of justice by having a marriage declared

Former Justice Fursman, accompanied by his counsel, appeared before Justice McMahon, and after pleading not guilty was paroled in the custody of his counsel. Mr. Hummel also appeared before Justice McMahon, who, after fixing the date of his hearing to the indictments for Feb. 7, released him in the susted we of his counsel.

The Dodge-Morse matrimonial tangle has been rich in sensational features. At the time the divorce of Mrs. Clemence Dodge was first questioned by her former husband, who alleged that he had never been properly served with papers in the proceedings, the legality of Mrs. Dodge's marriage to Charles W. Morse was placed in question by the courts, and the tangle that resulted has never—been straightened out.

Morse is a wealthy man, the promoter of a bank consolidation plan on a large scale in this city, and for a long time the controlling stockholder in the American Ice company. At present he is the principal shareholder in several important banks. His prominence brought the case unusual attention.

The creat mystery of the affair has

The great mystery of the affair has been the fact that Dodge, himself a poor man, was pientifully supplied with money while he fought extradition from Texas. He spent thousands of dollars, had the best of lawyers, and apparently wanted for nothing money could progure.

One of the sensational features of the district attorney's investigation of the case came a few weeks ago, when Mr. Jerome made public a letter which he had sent to Mrs. Gelshenen, the wid-ow of a prominent business man who had been associated with Charles W. Morse, requesting her to appear before the Dodge-Morse case. She sail ed for Europe a few days later. On her arrival on the other side she expressed Hereelf as willing to return to New York if necessary, and at the same time declared that she never had any intention of marrying Mr. Morse, as had been publicly reported. She is still

After being in power since the stab-lishment of the ausgleich (an arrange-ment for the division of expenses for purposes common to both Austria and Hungary), in 1867, the Liberals have suffered their first defeat. the Kossuthists are equally surprising to friends and foes, and the result is so astonishing that he one is prepared to discuss the possibilities of the situation. Francis Kossuth, in an interview, merely says he had been confident of the success of his party and would outelly await further developments. County Albert Apponyi was equally noncommittel, and said that, according to traditions, the initiative must come from the government.

It is generally agreed that the elections will have an important bearing upon the dual monarchy. The effect on the question of an independent Hungarian army, and the commercial relations between the two countries is awaited with much concern.

The Kossuthists gained altogether 58 seats. None of their prominent leaders were defeated, while the Liberals lost their foremost champions.

There is uncertainty regarding who the new premier will be if Premier Tisza should resign. Francis Kossuth and Count Apponyi are both impossible, the first-named for historical and the last for personal reasons, and because the party's program means separation of Hungary from Austria, It is probable that County Julius An-Complaint Made to Proprietor That He Was Using Marked Cards-Then Trouble Arose.

Nogales, Ariz., Jan. 27.-Ferdinand Walters, a gambler, early today shot and killed, in the Palace saloon and gambling house, M. M. Conn. proprietor of the place; J. J. Johnson, a gambler; Modesto Olivas, a Mexican card-dealer, self, sending a bullet through his brain.

Walters, who was known in the southwest as the "Catalina Kid," has been engaged by Conn to conduct a poker game in his house. A few days ago complaint was made by the patrons of the resort that Walters had been using marked cards to win their money. George Howard, one of the managers of the Palace saloon, informed Walters that unfair methods were prohibited in his place, and requested Walters to turn the game over another man. Walters did so on Wednesday night, making no partic ular protest at the time, but remark-ing to the man who took his place that there would probably be some dead men around there before long.

Shortly before 4 o'clock this morning Walters strolled casually into the Palace and ordered something to eat. Having finished his meal, he walked leisurely up to the bar, where Johnson, leisurely up to the bar, where Johnson, known as "Cowboy" Johnson, was taking a drink. Without a word of warning Waiters drew a 45-caliber Colt's revolver and fired at Johnson from a distance of four feet. The bullet struck Johnson squarely between the eyes, killing him instantly. So close was the range that the victim's face was badly powder-burned.

The report of the revolver drew Proprietor Conn to the scene. Stepping prietor Conn to the scene. Stepping in the middle of the room Walters fired at Conn as he entered the door, the bullet striking him just back of the left ear. Conn fell dead.

The murderer then turned about and fired at George Spindle, who sat next to Olivas, the monte dealer. The bullet passed through the rim of Spindle's hat and struck Olivas in the left side, producing a wound from which the latter succumbed a few moments lat-

Stepping over the prostrate forms of Conn and Johnson, Walters made his way to the middle of the street. In the meantline there was a panic among the occupants of the place. Dave Black, as soon as the shooting began, ran out of the side door and secured a revolver. He returned just as Walters revoiver. He returned just as Walters was emerging into the street. Black raised his revolver to fire at the murderer, but before he could shoot Walters placed the weapon to his own head and sent a bullet through his brain. Only four shots were fired and so quickly was the tragedy enacted that hardly a minute elapsed between the first shot and the last one. Walters was 28 years old and had traveled extensively. In 1897 he was traveled extensively. In 1897 he was in Skagway, Alaska, and it is said was a member of the "Soapy" Smith gang.

fever will be destroyed within a month, Gov. Davis adds: "That the disease is lurking here is quite evident; eevrything is being done that the sanitarians desire to do or have proposed to do to obliterate the disease. Whenever a case of yellow fever was found at a house the building whence the person was taken and other buildings in the immediate vicin-ity always have been fumigated and no case of yellow fever has been found in any such buildings that have been fumigated as described. But as the cases that do occur are found at random all over the city of Panama, the doctors have asked authority, which I have given to begin a variance fumihave given, to begin a systematic fumi-gation of the whole city of Panama, all of the houses in it, and they are now engaged in this work. Agostino Caldaroni was killed here last night, and today Joseph Bellabesti and Frank Rossi, Italians, were arrested. Frank Rossi, Italians, were arrested. The police are holding them on the theory that they were sent here from Chicago to kill the slayer of Joseph Shereto, a member of the society, who was murdered in this city on Dec. 7 last. It is asserted that Caldaroni was mistaken for Nicholas Basili, another Italian, who was suspected of the murder of Shereto. ier of Shereto.

"We came here from Texas," said Rossi. "We have been in Galveston, Indian Territory, and for a while stayed at Buffalo, N. Y. We do not live in Chicago. We know Shereto and came to Kansas City several days ago to assist in prosecuting the slayer."

The police learned that Nicholas Shereto, father of Joseph Shereto, came to Kansas City about a week ago, but so far they have been unable to locate him. The elder Shersto is said to have lived at 180 Genesse street, Buffalo.

Chief of Police John Hayes expressed the opinion that three murders had been committed in Karssa City, by been committed in Kansas City by the Mafia, that of Caldaroni; Joseph Shereto, whose body was found here on Dec. 13, and another Italian, killed here six years ago.

Several Italians, enemies of the Mafia, visited Chief Hayes today and told him of the alleged plot to kill the slayer of Shereto, excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use. Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication. Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co. - plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.
