"DAD" HINCHCLIFFE HONORED

Presented With Handsome Came by Former Associates—Young Gratters In the Hands of the Police.

Ogden, Feb. 21.—That the verdict of the jury that tried the case of R. B. Eckles against the Union Pacific, if made public, might influence the jury that will try the two concordant cases yet pending, Judge Howell instructed the jury not to divulge the same until the other cases are completed. The verdict was against the railroad company, but the amount of damages assessed was not given out at present. The verdict was not arrived at until after 9 o'clock last night.

Another of the Arizona wreck cases was argued yesterday, that of A. I. Stone, administrator of the estate of Thomas Lowman against the Union Pacific. This suit is identical with the one brought for damages for the life of Eckles. A jury was secured yesterday and the taking of testimony was commenced this morning.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

Not only is a medicine valuable for its ability to cure disease, but the way in which it affects the system is a very important factor. When the system is infected with the germs of disease as in Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., every particle of its recuperative strength is needed to assist in eliminating the poisons and impurities which are causing the trouble. It should not be dosed and treated with strong mineral mixtures and concoctions that further add to the burden, by disagreeably affecting the bowels, producing indigestion, or eating out the delicate linings and membranes of the stomach. The absolute vegetable purity of S. S. S. has always been one of the strongest points in its favor, and is one of the principal reasons for its being now the most widely known and universally used blood medicine on the market. It made entirely of healing, purifying roots, herbs and barks of the forests and fields. These are selected for their well known curative properties, and are known at the same time to possess the qualities to build up and strengthen every part of the system by their fine tonic effect. Not only is S. S. S. the king of blood purifiers, but it is the one medicine that may be taken with absolute safety by young or old. We guarantee it non-injurious and offer a reward of $1,000 for proof that it contains a particle of mineral in any form. S. S. S. is a safe and reliable treatment for Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, and any and all diseases arising from a poisoned or impure state of the blood. It goes to the very bottom of these troubles, removes every trace of disease, cures and builds up the blood and permanently cures where mineral medicines fail. If you are suffering with any form of blood disease write for our book "On the Blood" and ask for any medical advice you may desire; no charge for either. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

"DAD" HINCHCLIFFE CANED.

Veteran Depot Policeman Honored By Former Associates.

Mathias Hinchcliffe, who was retired a week ago by the railroad officials from his many years of faithful service, as depot policeman was honored last evening by an unexpected visit from about 25 of his associates in the railroad service, at his home on Twenty-seventh street. The visit was to show the appreciation felt by each one for "Dad" Hinchcliffe as they had learned to call him, as a depot officer, and his high esteem for him, Depot Master George Cunningham, in behalf of the gentlemen, presented him with an elegant gold-headed cane, with the inscription on the top of the head "Dad, 1875-1907," and on the side "M. Hinchcliffe, by friends and employees U. R. and D. C. 2, 13, 1907." In making the presentation Mr. Cunningham took occasion to express the kindly feeling of all towards Mr. Hinchcliffe and their regrets because of his advanced years, that he had to be pensioned off, and wished for him that his last days might be his best days. Mr. Hinchcliffe feelingly responded and expressed his gratitude for the evidences of esteem shown him. A pleasant hour was spent together.

Mathias Hinchcliffe entered the railroad service in 1875, and worked continuously until a week ago. He was kind to all in his capacity as depot officer, and his pleasant countenance will be missed by hundreds of travelers, who had learned to look upon him as a permanent fixture at the union depot. He was given a pension of $24 per month.

NEW BRIDGE OVER RIVER.

Plans are being prepared by the city engineer to be submitted to the city council at its next session for a new bridge to span Ogden river near the mouth of Ogden canyon where the steel bridge was practically destroyed by the recent storm. A concrete bridge is being favored by some, as it is believed to be just as substantial as a steel bridge and more practical. It is also probable that the river will be permitted to run down the channel it now occupies instead of diverting it back into the old channel, as the stream appears to be flowing all right as it does now. If this is done the new bridge will be put across the stream at what is known as "Windy Point," just west of the Sanitarium. These matters will be decided upon by the council.

IN THE HANDS OF THE POLICE.

While Sergeant Toot was walking along one of the principal streets of Salt Lake City yesterday afternoon he accidentally located Harry Simmons and C. A. Hilman, two young men wanted in this city, the former for skipping out with money belonging to a local photographer, and the latter for jumping a board bill. They were taken to the police station, and the local officers notified. Later Hilman was released, the woman who had complained against him having reported that when he jumped the board bill, he left sufficient personal property with which to pay the bill, so he was released. Toot brought back Hilman to Ogden with him. He confessed his guilt. Hilman had immediately come to Ogden after his release and was one of the first to greet the officer here. He was closely questioned as to where he got the money from to pay his railroad fare, and it developed he had sold an elegant pair of gloves, which he had stolen out of an automobile. The watch was found in his pocket. Complaints have been sworn to against the two young men, who will be prosecuted for their offenses.

GARLAND.

COLLAPSIBLE DAM.

Installed in Bear River—Great Improvement Over Old Structure.

Special Correspondence. Garland, Boxelder Co., Feb. 20.—The Utah Sugar company has just completed and tested the new steel collapsible dam which forms the upper portion of its main dam in Bear River canyon, just below Cannonville, and which controls the head works of the Bear River canals and power plant. This work consisted of cutting down the old dam and reducing its height five feet and up, this is erected a steel collapsible dam which rises to the original height of the dam. The purpose of this improvement is to protect the works in time of spring floods by folding the steel dam into a long, narrow pocket in the main structure, thus reducing the height of the dam about four feet in a very short time, and facilitating the discharge of flood waters with an immense decrease. It will eliminate entirely the danger of flood waters cutting around the ends of the dam and washing out the canals and head gates, and also reduces the pressure against the main dam itself. Mr. J. C. Vinton, the chief engineer for the Utah Sugar Co.'s canals and power plant, planned the work and the dam was built under his direction.

This is the first collapsible dam ever built in this western country, and is a great improvement over the old form of dam, especially where much debris is carried down by the flood waters. This debris is caught by the framework of the ordinary dam and causes disaster. In the collapsible dam, when folded out of the way there is nothing to prevent the free passage of all floating debris and all form of damage from this cause is eliminated.

GREENWICH.

Death of Promising Child—Plenty of Precipitation But Winter is Mild.

Special Correspondence. Greenwich, Plute Co., Feb. 18.—Kiziah Blanch, daughter of George A. and Rachel Brown, died on the 30th of January last, of tonsillitis and the grip, after 14 days' sickness. She was born Aug. 29, 1897, the youngest of a family of 11 children, and the first of a friend I began to call to the other side. She was a very bright girl, and while she was in the school she had already attained the fourth grade in the district school. Her six brothers acted as pallbearers.

Many of the people of this little burg have been affected with the grip, but the disease is abating.

The district school is doing good work. Mary Page of Marysville is the teacher. This has been the mildest winter in the history of this settlement; the ground is already in good condition for spring work, and a good deposit of snow has been insured plenty of water for irrigation next summer.

Parties who have been in the canyons and mountains east of Peco, report that the snow is from three to seven feet deep on the level. The snow is well drifted in the gulches and is solid, and will hold out well into the spring season, and an abundant supply of water for irrigation purposes is now assured.
