

Original Poetry

A TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF THE ANTI-SLAVER...

DEAR MOTHER—My Mother, I find myself...

A wish for thee, my Mother, I have...

Where all is bright sunshine, sweet and warm...

A life without object, care, or design...

Be assured, my dear Mother, for better or ill...

It is needful to taste of the good and the ill...

In proportion to labor, rewards will be given...

May you earn in earth's workshop a fitting life...

May you do all the earnest good you require...

Then, whatever may come, neither shun nor...

Unstated by cloth and uncolored by dye...

May your faculties strengthen by practical use...

Increase year by year in responsible weight...

Do from in truth's conflict for righteousness sake...

Which requires deep reflection and vigilance...

The relief of the poor claims the heart and the hand...

While reformation reforms great structural...

Arouse every effort those ill to remove...

Which may the foundation of union and love...

And tender to vain ostentation and show...

Set your face as a flint, and ambition and pride...

May the rich consolation the gospel bestows...

For your noble example—for the good you have done...

This your peace, as a river, shall constantly flow...

Is the wish of your sister and friend...

THE SONGSTRESS WITH THE GOLDEN GIRDLE

A True Episode in the Career of Hilson

THE SWEET SINGER OF ENGLAND

"Be calm, Christian, but shall never leave me till you wish to do so..."

Courage! We have no courage wanting to the women of England—who had the right to wear the Golden Girdle...

Again, six years had passed, when in the market-place of a little Swedish town, a crowd gathered around a young girl, whose head shone with the light and true in the thrilling melodies of her nation...

Her dress was that of a peasant's, and even coarse, but there were natural grace and abandon in her movements, which marked her to be innately higher than the peasant girl...

"Little girl," he said, "come with me, and you shall have twenty riksdaler [about $25] yearly."

"Dashed by the splendid ricksha, the child listened, when a man of higher rank, who had stood quietly among the throng, came forward and touched her on the arm."

"My child," he said kindly, "you are not thus gifted in order to be one of a strolling, peddling, merry-making band. Come with me, and I will place you with a kind lady who adores music, and who will make you the wonder of Europe."

"The girl raised her blue eyes trustfully to his face."

"My mother has always said that God meant me to help my family by my voice. Will you teach me, sir, to do so?"

"I will, my child, and you shall find a happy home wherever you go."

"She threw her arms around her brother's neck."

"Good-bye," she said, "take the peace home to our mother, and tell her I shall soon be able to help her better and do not forget to kiss her for me."

"But we must ask your mother's leave before you go," said her new-found friend.

"My mother told me, when the time was come for me to go, I should not ask her leave," replied the girl, "but I will let her see, with her own eyes, that I am not a beggar, when my voice will earn home."

"Then come, my child, so be it!"

"And you are going, Christian?" said the boy in awe.

"I am going because the time is come," she answered, "with a good reward, and a school for my voice."

"I am going because the time is come," she answered, "with a good reward, and a school for my voice."

"I am going because the time is come," she answered, "with a good reward, and a school for my voice."

"I am going because the time is come," she answered, "with a good reward, and a school for my voice."

SINGER'S

New Improved Silent

FAMILY SEWING MACHINES

ARE

The Best in the World.

Because all of them are in constant use while a very large proportion of other makes are not used, owing to their being partially or utterly impracticable.

THE SINGER

NEW FAMILY MACHINE

Has been brought to perfection, regardless of time, labor or expense, and is now incomparably the best Sewing Machine in existence.

It is simple, compact, durable, beautiful, quiet, light-running, and capable of performing a large and varied work never before attempted upon a single machine; using either Sil, Twist, Linen or Cotton Thread, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, or anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

The New Improved Attachments for Hemming, (and with) Braiding, Embroidering, Machine Sewing, Gathering and sewing on (at the same time) Self-Sewing, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Piping, Binding, etc., are novel and practicable, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases.

New designs of the unique, useful and popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Singer Machine, are in every variety of Wood, such as Black Walnut, Mahogany, Rosewood, Hardwood, and from the plain to the most elaborate pattern and finish. The Machines themselves are plain or highly ornamented with pearl and gold to correspond with their tables or cabinets.

In the Singer the work is fed or passed through the Machine in the natural direction, and the operator, perceiving her to sit in a natural and healthy position. In many other Machines the work passes from right to left, or the reverse, compelling the operator to sit in an unnatural and unhealthy position, and thus causing weakness of the back.
