A RESTAURANT EPISODE.

A Sort of Straw Vote. An advertising agent, representing a prominent New York magazine, while on a recent western trip, was dining one evening in a Pittsburg restaurant. While waiting for his order he glanced over his newspaper and noticed the advertisement of a well known dys-pepsia preparation, Stuart's Dyspepsia

Price, Carbon Co., Feb. 2 .- This afternoon a stranger giving the name of G.R. Hughes obtained a blank form of check on McCornick & Co.'s bank Salt Lake City, Utah, by stating that he had an account with that bank. He then made the check out payable to the order of O. D. Hardy for $40, and asked a saloon keeper to let him have some money on it, saying that he was hungry and wanted to get something to eat. The check was suspected as being fraudulent, and the town marshal at once arrested him and placed him in jail. afterwards admitted that he did not have a cent in the bank. For some time he refused to admit what his true name was but afterwards said that it was Hughes. He says he was drunk and did not know that he had signed his name to the check. A complaint was sworn to charging Hughes with forgery, and he will be given a hear-ing before Justice Holdaway tomorrow morning at 10 a. m.

The Cache county commissioners met yesterday in regular session. Sixty residents of Coveville, situated three miles northeast of Richmond, presented a petition asking the commissioners to organize a school district at the north end of Coveville. A petition was also presented by residents of Richmond, asking that the southern portion of Coveville be annexed to Richmond. Protests were made against both petitions, on the ground that the move is a scheme for mutual benefit on the part of the signers of the documents. The ommissioners took both requests under advisement.

Mr. J. N. Hanson, on behalf of the residents of Newton, petitioned the commissioners to grant them the privilege of incorporating their town as This petition was also taken village. under advisement.
