U. P. STATION AT UINTAH BURNED.

Post Office and Station Consumed By Fire—Narrow Escape of Agent and Family.

OGDEN CANYON RUNAWAY.

Corinne Station Burglarized—Scowcrofts Give Outing to Employes—Ogden Duck Club.

Ogden, June 26.—Shortly after midnight Saturday a fire broke out at the Uintah railroad station on the line of the Union Pacific, and about seven miles southeast of Ogden, entirely destroying the depot building and its contents, with considerable loss. The depot was a frame structure, situated along the railroad tracks, and contained the freight room, baggage room, telegraph office, postoffice, waiting room and four apartments where the operator lived. James Russell, the night operator, was on duty, and discovered the fire in the west end of the building in the freight and baggage room. He rushed to the bedroom of Day Operator D. E. Donaldson, where he and his wife with three children were sleeping soundly. They were awakened and quickly got the children out of the house, just in time to see the flames leap into the bedroom and in a few moments it was ablaze. The two men succeeded in getting out Mr. Donaldson's piano and a small amount of his parlor furniture, but the postoffice, with its contents, all the express and freight, and the railroad records went up in smoke. Mr. Donaldson and his family only secured part of their clothing, the little boy being able to secure but a pair of overalls.

The origin of the fire is unknown. It is supposed sparks from a train that had passed by a few minutes previously had fallen on the dry roof, and set it on fire, and the building being very dry, with no facilities whatever for fighting the fire, was soon a heap of ashes. The wires of the railroad company and Associated Press were down for several hours, delaying the railroad orders, and associated press dispatches.

OGDEN CANYON RUNAWAY.

Four Men Injured and Two Vehicles Broken.

Another quite serious runaway occurred in Ogden canyon about 1 o'clock Sunday morning, in which Charles Blair, Fred Vanass, Tom Foster and James Monaghan were the unfortunate participants.

The men had been up at one of the pleasure resorts in the canyon spending the evening and were returning home. The horses were frightened at something in the road and dashed down the canyon, the vehicle in which the four men was riding collided with another rig throwing all four of them out with considerable force. Monaghan suffered from injuries to his leg and Foster's arm was hurt. The other men received only slight injuries. They were brought to Ogden, where Dr. Baker dressed the wounds. The buggies were both badly broken.

EMBEZZLER REARRESTED.

Fred W. Jones, the bartender, was rearrested Saturday afternoon on the charge of embezzlement preferred against him last February by the Bartenders' union of Ogden. The union gave a ball last January, taking in about $100, which was entrusted to Jones' care. He became intoxicated and went to Salt Lake, where he spent the money, then returned home to his wife and children. He was arrested on the charge and placed in the county jail. While incarcerated in jail his little girl took sick and died. The members of the union had pity on him, and permitted him to be released on his promise to pay back the money and leave Ogden. He kept the latter part of the promise, but did not pay the money back, and on his return to Ogden Saturday he was arrested. His relatives it is understood are going to pay back the money he embezzled.

SERIOUS MOUNTAIN FIRE.

North Ogden Threatened—Much Property Destroyed—Magazine Menaced.

A mountain fire which early this morning was not yet under control, started from an unknown cause five miles north of here yesterday afternoon. With a frontage of over a mile, the fire has traversed five miles of territory, destroying fences, fruit crops and haystacks. Hundreds of men are endeavoring to keep the fire's path cleared from the scattered dwellings in the vicinity. The powder magazine of Browning Brothers' gun factory was directly in the path of the fire and was only saved by strenuous efforts. The wires of the Telluride Power company were burned out, and those supplying power to Ogden and Salt Lake had a narrow escape.

Had the wind been in a slightly different direction the residence portion of North Ogden would have been invaded.

No estimate of the damage has yet been made.

HOLD-UP AND BURGLARY.

Sheriff Investigating Colton and Tucker Crimes—One Arrest.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., June 26.—A report came to the sheriff's office Saturday that a holdup had taken place at Colton, which Sheriff Harmon went up to investigate, and yesterday a burglary of Thomas Lane's saloon at Tucker was reported. Some $30 was taken from a slot machine and two or three bottles of liquor. Deputy Sheriff Buchi went up the canyon in response to this summons. He arrested a transient at Thistle on the burglary charge, and he may also be one of the parties implicated in the holdup as he had two watches on him when arrested. Sheriff Harmon remained at Thistle last night when Sheriff Buchi returned, with the expectation of making additional arrests.

At Thistle one of the citizens gave Sheriff Buchi some inside information which he, however, did not stop to investigate. The citizen had been seen talking to a strange man, and the sheriff went to him and asked who the man was. The Thistle man told him he was Butch Cassidy, who was in the adjoining hills prospecting.

NEPHI.

BOY RUN OVER AND KILLED

Steam Plowing on Arid Farm Not a Success—Painful Accident.

Special Correspondence.

Nephi, Juab Co., June 24.—The people of the state will regret to learn that the Utah Arid Farming company, operating in this county, has found it necessary to discontinue the use of the steam plow and substitute horse power in its stead.

Extensive experiments, sparing no expense, have demonstrated the fact that the soil is too loose, and the surface too rugged to permit the use of steam power for the tilling of the soil in this section. Mr. Jardine, the congenial manager of the company, and the engineer and expert employes of theh Steam Plow company, took the train for the north yesterday morning.

The haying season is in full working order. The crop promises to be exceptionally good.

The 9-year-old son of Alfred and Zelate Salisbury, while riding home on a load of hay Wednesday, June 22, in passing over a ditch the little fellow slid off the front of the load, the wheels run over his knee, and also broke his arm. He also received internal injuries. He died this morning.

BOUNTIFUL.

CHARLES E. PEARSON DEAD.

Respected Attorney Succumbs to Paralysis—Funeral Tuesday.

Woods Cross, Davis Co., June 26.—Charles E. Pearson, one of the oldest residents of Woods Cross, died yesterday after suffering for several months from an attack of paralysis. The fatal attack came on about Thursday last. It found the patient weak, and although Drs. Baldwin and Richards did all they could, it was evident from the beginning that the battle was hopeless.

For the last ten or twelve years Mr. Pearson has been associated with Simon Bamberger as a legal adviser, and at the time of his death held the position of attorney for the Salt Lake & Ogden Railway company. During this time he has also engaged in a general law business in Salt Lake City, confining himself principally to land and probate work.

Mr. Pearson has always enjoyed the complete confidence of his fellowmen, and although never an aspirant for political honors, has filled several political offices. At one time he was county attorney of Davis county and later he filled the position of city attorney of Bountiful.

The deceased is survived by his wife, a daughter and two sons. Funeral services will be held at his late residence at 3 o'clock on Tuesday, June 27. The 2 o'clock Salt Lake & Ogden railway train will make a special stop at Bountiful to accommodate friends who wish to attend the services.

VERNAL.

WARREN JOHNSON DEAD.

Prominent Young Citizen Thrown From Horse and Fatally Injured.

Special Correspondence.

Vernal, Uintah Co., June 22.—A sad fatality occurred in this city this morning that has cast a gloom over the whose community. On Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock Warren Johnson, while attempting to capture a horse that had broken loose on the street was thrown with his horse and received injuries from which he died this morning at 9 o'clock, having lain for 40 hours in an unconscious condition surrounded by sorrowing relatives and friends, and the object of every attention that hope and faith and medical skill could give him. Funeral services will be held in the Vernal ward house on Saturday at 10 o'clock.

James Warren Johnson eldest son of Hon. Lycurgus Johnson was born at Lake Town, Rich county, Utah, Oct. 25, 1879, and was therefore in his thirty-fifth year. From July, 1898, to March, 1899, he served faithfully as a missionary in the southern states, and upon his return was made one of the seven presidents of the Ninety-seventh quorum of Seventy, a position he held at the time of his death. He was also president of the religion classes of the Uintah Stake, and has always been a zealous worker in the Sunday school and Mutual Improvement association. In fact it may be said of him that he has all his life been a faithful, earnest, tireless worker in any and every capacity that he has been called to labor, either civil or ecclesiastical. In 1902 he was the Democratic candidate for the Legislature from this county. Always prompt to respond to the call of duty, he has been a wheel horse and mainstay in many public capacities, while in his own family he has been looked up to as the leader in thought and action, and especially as the source of instruction, consolation, and comfort in the hour of darkness and distress. His taking off in the prime and vigor of early manhood is a distinct and irreparable loss to the community as a whole, but especially so to the devoted wife and four small children who survive him.

BOISE.

CALLS DOWN MEDICAL BOARD

Supreme Court Says it Cannot Deprive Man of His Rights to Practice.

Boise, Idaho, June 24.—The Idaho supreme court, writes the Tribune correspondent, has rendered an opinion that will be of interest to every physician in the state and to many others. It is in the case of the state against J. B. Cooper of Blackfoot, who was fined $50 for practising without a license, as required by the provisions of the act of 1899 known as the medical law.

The defendant was fined in the probate court. He appealed to the district court, where the case was submitted on an agreed statement of facts. Here again judgment was rendered against him and he carried the case to the supreme court. This tribunal has reversed the judgment of the district court, holding that the defendant has a right to practise without a license because he was legally engaged in the practise of medicine and surgery under the act of 1887.

Under the provision of the act of 1899, considered in connection with the agreed statement that the defendant was entitled to practise medicine in the state in 1887, the court holds that the state examining board should have granted him a license without examination. In conclusion the court says with reference to the medical board:

"It could not ignore the plain provisions of the 1899 law and thereby make a criminal of a citizen of the state engaged in a legal and lawful business. If the board of medical examiners could withhold a license from an applicant in this manner until he could appeal to the courts for redress, making him a criminal for every time he prescribed for or visited a patient, they could not only deprive him of valuable property rights, but ruin him in his profession and brand him as criminal. This is neither the spirit nor intent of the law."

STATE LAND BUSINESS.

The state land board has made an order that will interest all who secured contracts from the Twin Falls company. The company is required to execute duplicate contracts, to be filed with the board, and to have the originals, which it is to retain, recorded in Cassia county. This will involve an expense of about $5,000, which the Twin Falls company is required to pay.

The board took this action on account of the difficulty experienced in securing diplicates from those who have taken land in the Twin Falls section. Many refused to sign duplicates unless the originals were turned over to them, even when it was explained to them that they were offered ample protection by filings with the board. Others signed the duplicates in the wrong place, and there were numerous additional complications. The board finally decided to relieve the situation by making the requirement on the company as stated.

The board approved several changes in the rules of the department, among other things entrymen on Carey act lands are granted an extension of six months after the water is available in which to begin their residence.

A new rule was adopted authorizing leaves of absence. Any entryman desiring a leave of absence must apply to the board therefor. If it is granted he may leave his land for the period stated, which in no instance shall exceed six months. He is required, however, to conform with all provisions of the law as to cultivation and reclamation.

State Engineer Stephenson submitted a report, which was approved, stating that all the land in the Twin Falls district, between Rock Creek and Cedar Draw, 34,000 acres, was now under water from the low line canal.

MARYSVALE, IDAHO.

DISASTROUS RUNAWAY.

Visitors to Relief Society Conference Severely Injured.

Special Correspondence.

Marysville, Fremont Co., Idaho, June 23.—Conference of the Relief society was held in this ward yesterday at 10 a. m., there were in attendance of the stake presidency Sisters Matilda Flamm and Ellsworth, Sisters Susan Stevens and Christiansen, stake aids, all of Rexburg. An interesting and instructive session was held. After meeting the sisters got dinner and then went across Fall River to Parsons, accompanied by Sister Emily Lamborn, president of the Relief society of Marysville. After meeting a lunch was served in the meetinghouse. With a view of going direct to Cora ward, the visitors hastened away. They had not proceeded far when they met with a serious accident. When going down a steep hill the neckyoke center piece broke letting the buggy run against the horses, which though a gentle team, became frightened and one began to kick. Sisters Ellsworth and Lamborn seeing the danger, jumped out, the buggy tongue fell to the ground and broke and the vehicle was turned sidewise of the hill and tipped over. The lugs, luckily, came unhitched and the horses ran down the hill into the yard of a ranch at the foot where they were caught. Those who were in the buggy when it tipped over escaped with but slight bruises, and a severe shaking up. Mrs. Ellsworth in jumping was thrown against the wheel or something and terribly bruised over the eye and one leg was badly hurt, the ankle being severely wrenched. She was unconscious for nearly an hour. Mrs. Lamborn's ankle also was severely wrenched. Mrs. Christiansen ran about a mile and a half before she could get assistance. She finally secured the help of Elder James Green, president of the Parnum branch, who gathered up the sisters and brought them to Marysville, where all that could be done for them was done and they are getting along as well as can be expected.
