You Will Like It

As the rolling snowball that grows with every increasing volume with each succeeding revolution, has been the history of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate, for over fifty years. Year after year the demand for it has increased by greater and still greater bounds, necessitating frequent increase in factory capacity.

The"'s evidence conclusive that the peculiarly rich flavor, which is preserved by the Ghirardelli process of preparation, pleases, and that's why we say you will like it.

Ask your grocer for it. Be sure that you get it.

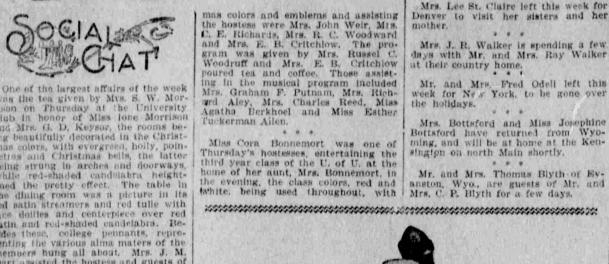

One of the largest affairs of the week was the tea given by Mvs. S. W. Mor-rison on Thursday at the University club in honor of Miss ione Morrison and Mrs. G. D. Keysor, the rooms be-ing beautifully decorated in the Christ-mas colors, with everyreen, holly, poln-settas and Christmas bells, the latter being strung in arches and doorways, while red-shaded candelabra height-ened the pretty effect. The table in the dhing room was a picture in its red satin streamers and red tulle with red satin streatmers and red tulle with lace doilies and centerpiece over red matin and red-shaded candelabra. Be-sides these, college pennants, repre-senting the various alma maters of the memoers hung all about. Mrs. J. M. Dart assisted the hostess and guests of honor in receiving and others assisting ware Mrs. Mary E. Climer and Mrs. were Mrs. Mary E. Gilmer and Mrs. George Phelps Holman, Mrs. W. C. Hall, Mrs. W. H.
