Washington, 6.—The House wen into committee of the whole on th private calendar.

AMERICAN. The Republican Convention.

Chicago, 6.—The total number o votes allowed in convention by dele gates from the various States and Ter ritories was 820. After the third ballot the following ispatch was received: WASHINGTON, June 6th.

To S. M. Cullom. Illinois Delegation: The republicans of the States that must be relied upon to elect the President having so strengly shown a preference for Mr. Blaine, I deem it my duty not to stand in the way of the people's choice, and recommend my triends to assist his nomination.

[Signed] JOHN A. LOGAN.

The gains made on the Blaine vote, and the understanding that the Logan site would be transferred to Blaine, produced another storm of cheering and enthusiasm for Blaine.

Bingham, of Pennsylvania, Wm. W. Phelps, of New Jersey, and one or two colored delegates endeavored to get a hearing, and vociferated and gesticulated without succeeding in being heard. Their voices were drowned in tunultuous yells, cheers and demands tunultuous yells, cheers and demands for a call of the roll. Not deterred by their failure, Roosevelt, of New York, carried away by the excitement, got upon his seat, waved his arms, and appeared as if he was saying something, but not a word was heard from him.

thing, but not a word was heard from him.

Finally at 2.30 the taking of the fourth ballot was called for. Before the vote of Alabama was given, there was another uprorious scene, in which Dutcher, Roosevelt and other New York delegates took prominent part. It arose upon the technicality that a motion to take a recess had been made, and had been decided by the chair in the negative, although calls had been made for a vote by States. At last a Blaine delegate called to his friends to have the vote on recess taken by States and at 2.38 the votes by States began. The Illinois delegation requested a few moments to amnounce its vote. Then it was announced as 28 to 15. The vote was challenged, showing that it was regarded as important, and the result of the polling of the Illinois delegation was for a recess, 31 against 13. The Ponseylvania roll call of delegates was was for a recess, 31 against 13. The Pennsylvania roll call of delegates was demanded. Pennsylvania roll call of delegates was demanded.

The vote of Pennsylvania was then-polled and was ayes 11, nays 48. Tennessee gave 24 yotes in the negative, so that although the vote still went on, a motion for a recess was practically defeated, and the fourth ballot was then proceeded with. When Illinois was called Senator Cullom rose and said he wished to read a dispatch he nau just received from Gen. Logan.

Objections were promptly made and sustained.

Cullon then withdrew the name of Logan and cast the 34 votes of Illinois for Blaine. The change in Illinois from Logan to Binne made Blaine's vote 414. The vote in Illinois was 34. Cul-

Arthur 214, Blaine 543, Logan 8, Edmunds, 55, Hawley 12, Gen. Sherman 2.
The vate of Pennsylvania nominated Blaine at 3.19 p.m. During the poll of Pennsylvania there was an angry controversy between Pennsylvania and and the New York delegates, the charge of lobbying being made on the one side and angrily repelled on the other.
The vote was received with great enthusiasm, the band playing and cannon booming outside. The hall was filled with people.

with people.

A dispatch was received from President Arthur by Curtis of the Inter-Ocean, saying: "If Blaine is nominated on this ballot, have Dutcher ask to make the nomination unanimous, and thank by friends for me."

The dispatch from President Arthur was read by Mr. McPherson of Peunsylvania. sylvania.

Blaine's nomination was made unani-

Blaine's nomination was made unanimous at 4:55 p. m.

The result was announced at 4:40. Instantly, and even before the last figures were pronounced by Mr. McPherson, the vast audisnce arose and broke out into another mad demonstration of enthusiasm. Cheers resounded. The band struck up an inspiring air; hats, handkerchiefs and National flags were waved; a large, square banner from Kansas was carried through the hall, promising large majorities in that State for Blaine, and two uprights capped with new brooms, and a stuffed eagle from Colorado was also carried around in the procession. The roar of artillery outside was heard commingling with the uproar within. The convection adjourned till $ p. m. EVENING SESSION.

The convention reassembled and was called to order at 8.15 p.m. The roll of the States was started for candidates for Vice-President, and when Kansas was reached there was great cheering, and Senator Plumb took the stand and presented the name of John A. Logan. His name was received with great and long continued cheering.

Judge Houck of Tennessee seconded Logan's nomination, as did also Judge Thurston of Nebraska, Lee of Pennsylvania, Hoar of Massachusetts, Bradley of Kentucky, Sam Lee of South Carolina, Pettibone of Tennessee and Morey of Louisina.

It was then generally conceded that Logan would be nominated by acclamation.

A motion to suspend the rules and nominate Logas by acciamation was carried, and a roll call was demanded.

At 9:32 Logan was nominated by acciamation, and the result was received with cheers, whereupon the convention commenced breaking up. The convention was called to order after the chairman had aunounced Logan's nomination by acciamation and a roll called of States, which had been demanded on a motion to make the nomination unanimous, was started. When New York was reached she asked to be passed for a few minutes. All the States voted solidly for him, except New York, which cast one for Foraker and six for Gresham. The nomination was young man carrying an armful of cisculars entered. The circulars contained a reproduction of Puck's "Tattooed Man," which are being distributed every where for political effect by a few ultra anti-Blaine men. It appears that the meeting was heing held to discuss the best means of suppressing the future circulation of these campaign circulars, and when the young man entered their midst and commenced scattering them all over the room there was intense excitement. One man jumped up, and catching the intruder by the coat, pulled him to the door and fung him out in the hall, where he was beset by a dozen other adherents of Blaine. They kicked and pounded him and were rapidly reducing him to jelly when some friends came up. Revolvers were pulled on both sided at once, but bloodshed was prevented by the appearance of the officers, who rescued the bold news agent.
