Denver is Boosting for Salt Lake, Says II. M. Cushing.

H. M. Cushing, traveling passenger agent for the Rio Grande, has returned from a trip to Colorado points in the interest of the annual excursion from San Juan county to Salt Lake, which this year takes place on Aug. 16. Mr. Cushing states that while condi-tions are decidedly bad in the Telluride district, owing to labor troubles, that at other points things are prospering in at other points things are prospering in Colorado, and indications are that the excursion this year will beat all previ-ous records. According to Mr. Cush-ing, Uray, Silverton, Durango, and Montrose, which is enjoying a boom right now, will all send good delega-tions, while a big bunch will come from the Delta and Somerset branch. The country adjacent to Asner. Chapmond country adjacent to Aspen, Glenwood and the San Luis valley also promises and the San Luis valley also promises a number of passengers. Mr. Cushing states that there is great interest in Utah at the present manifested in Colorado, so much so that a feat-ure of a menu card at one of Denver's leading hotels is a number of half tone cuts of the Temple block and other Utah views. When Mr. Cushing asked for an explanation from the preparties. for an explanation from the proprietor, he was informed that it was found that by advertising Utah, Denver was helped out in tourist business: "our interests are so identical," the landlord affirmed, "that every boost for Utah is a help-ing hand for us."
