EVENING NEWS.

Friday, November 21, 1879.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Read It.—Read the ordinance in relation to election, published in this evening's News.

First Year Gratis.—Isn't it about time for Cityway to announce his terms for the lecture season?—Union.

Great reformers always lecture the first year for nothing.

Leslie's Monthly.—Jas. Dwyer is earliest in the field with the new periodicals. He already has for sale Frank Leslie's popular monthly for December, a finely illustrated number.

The Second Dance.—This evening, the second party of the series to be held in the 17th Ward Assembly Rooms during the winter season, will be given. The place, committee, and everything connected with the affair, predict its entire success.

Information Wanted.—Of George Blood, who emigrated from Nottingham, England, some 20 years ago, and Oliver Roberts, who emigrated from Birmingham, England. Send their addresses to Thomas A. Shreve, Papanui, Canterbury, New Zealand.

"Early Church History."—There was an appreciative audience at the 21st Ward meeting house last evening, to listen to the interesting lecture by Elder W. L. N. Allen, on the "Early History of the Church." The speaker occupied about an hour. The lecture was given under the auspices of the 11th Quorum of Elders. At the close a vote of thanks was tendered to the lecturer.

The Social Hall.—For some time past, several parties have been endeavoring to obtain the lease of the Social Hall for the winter season, two different ones desiring to use it for school purposes, while another wished to fit it up with curtains, scenes, etc., for theatrical and other uses. The building, however, has been let to Dr. John R. Park, for a school grade in connection with the Deseret University, probably the best use to which it could be applied.

The Wanton Velocipede.—The other evening a young lady was about to get into a buggy hitched at one side of Main Street, when a couple of boys came down the sidewalk at a rapid rate, on their velocipedes. The horse, becoming frightened, plunged and reared, and falling down, broke the harness. A couple of bystanders ran to the young lady's assistance, or a serious accident might have resulted. It seems to be the conceded right of velocipedes and goat wagons, to monopolize the sidewalk and scare horses.

Pride Abased.—A well known belle who moves among the highest circles, had a rich and costly wardrobe made, and set up till nine waiting for the young man who had invited her to go with him to a party that evening. He never came, "case" there was no party. Moral—Be careful young ladies not to treat a true friend with haughty contempt in a ballroom, lest your pride should have a sudden fall. This is a true story. —Idaho Banner.

In our opinion, the conduct of the "young man" referred to was as reprehensible, as that of a writer who would justify such an unmanly action.

Sullivan's Reply.—It will be remembered that several months ago, when Mr. B. B. Young, of this city, took his departure for Europe, he was the bearer of a message from the Philharmonic Society of Salt Lake to Arthur Sullivan, Esq., London, accompanied by a pecuniary bonus of $50, in acknowledgment of the right of authorship, held by Mr. Sullivan and his partner, Mr. Gilbert, to the celebrated opera of "Pinafore," which had such a triumphant run in this city. The copyright, not having been secured for this country, the authors have derived no remuneration from their production, except as has been sent from time to time by publishers and societies generous and honorable enough to give them their due. Mr. Young entered the National Training School, in London, of which Mr. Sullivan is President, and the following letter to him, from the noted composer, shows that the courtesy extended by the Philharmonic Society was not unappreciated:

9, ALBERT MANION, S. W., July, 1879. My dear Sir—I beg you will convey to the Salt Lake Philharmonic Society, the thanks of Mr. Gilbert and myself for the cheque which they so courteously sent us, in acknowledgment of our right as authors of "H. M. S. Pinafore." As we have no claim to any remuneration in the America, we appreciate all the more this graceful acknowledgment. I am, my dear Sir, very truly yours, ARTHUR SULLIVAN. Mr. B. B. Young.

An Interesting Circular.—We have received from a gentleman in Paris, France, a copy of a circular issued by the New York Herald Reading Rooms, in that city. It contains the names of all the American newspapers and periodicals, now on file at that establishment. Every State in the Union is represented, and the leading Territories as well. Utah, however, has but one paper on file, the DESERET NEWS. It is desired that other reliable journals, representing the interests of the people of Utah be also placed in the Reading Rooms, the manager, Mr. Ryan, having expressed his willingness to find a place for any Utah paper that may be sent. Our correspondent says:

"These journals are not only read by hundreds, I may say thousands, of travelers, but are read by the French press in general, and long passages translated for the French journals. Anything that gives an idea of 'Mormon' life and literature, would be especially useful. The day is not far distant when missionaries will be able to labor in France, and the field could not be prepared with greater surety and satisfaction, than by having the current literature of the people introduced on neutral footing before the time arrives."

Frightful Accident.—A correspondent at Mendon, Cache County, sends us an account of a fearful accident that occurred there on the 14th inst. A young man named James Hill, son of James F. Hill, of that place, while out hunting, was accidentally shot in the leg. The discharge struck just above the left ankle and tore the leg frightfully. Amputation was found necessary and was skillfully performed by Dr. O. C. Ormsby, of Logan. The patient is doing well.

The Logan Leader, thus describes the manner of the accident: "The young man (Hill), in company with a companion, was out duck hunting, and a flock of ducks rising from behind them, James Hill turned rapidly to fire. His companion turned also, but through his hands being benumbed with cold or the excitement of the moment, the gun was discharged, the whole charge passing through the left leg of young Hill, about four inches above the ankle joint, tearing away about two inches of both bones in the leg, making a frightful wound. The accident happened about one o'clock, and it was four o'clock before they got to town."

The F. V. Extension.—The Engineer says, concerning the building of the narrow gauge railroad from Springville to Provo: "It is evident now that the line of the Pleasant Valley Railroad will have to pass through some valuable farm and meadow lands. This being the case, the company should by all means let the owners of the lands have the grading to do, as they can accomplish the work with the least amount of injury to their farms."

The citizens of Spanish Fork are anxious that the Utah and Pleasant Valley Railway build a switch to their town, a distance of two and a half miles. No doubt liberal inducements will be offered to the company.

Zion's Musical Society.—Rehearsals of the comic opera "The Borester" are progressing satisfactorily, and it is expected the piece will soon be ready for representation. The chorus and solo singers are now desired to attend the meetings regularly and promptly. Tomorrow, Saturday, evening, at 7.30, there will be an extra chorus rehearsal, and every Saturday thereafter, in addition to the Monday evening rehearsals. The directors of Zion's Musical Society are particularly requested to meet at the Social Hall to-morrow night, at 9 o'clock sharp, to attend to some necessary business. D. M. MCALLISTER, Secretary Z. M. S.

The Logan Temple.—Work on the Temple has ceased and the walls have been covered for the winter. This is owing to the early and severe cold weather, which rendered it impossible to do good mason work. The height of the building is, on the south side and east end, nearly 60 feet, and on the side and west end, over 50 feet. The saw mill, wood camp, and three rock quarries will remain in operation, and hauling from them continues as long as the weather will permit. A number of stone cutters will be kept at work cutting sandstone and dressing the black marble for the building, and a few other laborers will stay on the block. —Logan Leader.

Indictments.—Yesterday afternoon, the grand jury came into court, and, by their foreman, presented four indictments, all found under the laws of Utah Territory.

Thanksgiving Theatricals.—The Nellie Boyd Dramatic Company, which has recently performed with great success in Montana, and subsequently in Ogden, will open an engagement at the Salt Lake Theatre, on Thursday evening, the 27th inst., in a new drama. Their stay will be limited to two or three nights.

The Ostrich Case.—It is whispered on the street, that Keyser and others who were charged with cattle stealing and have been before the grand jury since yesterday morning, have been indicted by that body for the offense charged, and that the matter has been entirely disposed of, so far as the grand jury are concerned. We have no authority, however, to state that such are the facts, though the rumor is regarded as having truth for its basis.

District Court.—Proceedings yesterday afternoon, Nov. 20, 1879, Chief Justice Hunter presiding: E. M. Varnes et al. vs. F. W. Billing et al.; referred to E. T. Sprague to ascertain and report damages herein, if any.

Friday morning, Nov. 21. F. R. Brown vs. J. H. McGrath; ordered that Bridget McGrath, executrix of the last will of J. H. McGrath, deceased, defendant herein, be made party defendant herein, and the complaint is accordingly amended. Brigham F. Grant vs. Susan Grant et al.; trial before court in progress.

The Opium Case.—The trial of Ah Coon, for keeping an opium house, where that article is kept for sale, sold and smoked in this city, came up this morning before Alderman Raleigh, who is today representing Justice Fryer in the Police Court. The promised motion by the defense, for a discharge of the suit for lack of the court's jurisdiction, came up and was overruled. A jury, composed of Messrs R. F. Neslen, Wm. Naylor, Henry Reiser, John W. Snell, Fred J. Lyngberg and Stephen Crompton, was then chosen and the trial proceeded. At the conclusion of the arguments the jury were shown the city ordinance in relation to the use of opium. They retired and in about five minutes returned with a verdict of guilty. The Justice then imposed a fine of $50 on Ah Coon. The offense charged against him in this complaint occurred on the 18th inst. He is yet to be tried on a similar charge, the offense named therein having occurred on the 19th inst. Several other Chinamen are accused and the trials will be disposed of in their proper order. They are going on this afternoon.
