George Hanesworth's presence of migd yesterday afternoon saved him from a broken head at the expense of a frac-tured ankle. He was unloading lumber from a car for the Morrison-Merrill Lum-ber company, when he lost his balance, and to save himself from falling on his head he turned a sommersault. He struck on his feet with such force as to badly fracture an ankle, and he was taken to the Keegh-Wright hospital for treatment.

State Superintendent of Schools Nelson Biate Superintendent of Schools Nelson has insued a circular addressed to the school trustees throughout the state call-ing attention to the exchange of the old text-books for the new ones which have been adouted for use in the schools for the ensuing five years. The law requires the exchange to be made promptly and the trustees are required to see that it is done. The Deseret News Book store and Z. C. M. Mrs. Miles of Pueblo, Colo., may lose her hand for thoughtlessly taking hold of a cable. She was in bathing at Saltair yesterday, and thought it would add to her enjoyment to catch hold of the cable that moves the raft. As she was drawn is towards the public she folled to note that moves the raft. As she was drawn in towards the pavilion she failed to note that the cable passes around a cog wheel, until her hand was caught. Then she nnth her hand was caught. Then she promptly screamed, and the other bathers caught hold of the line and yelled to the engineer and she was pulled from the wheel in time to save her hand from be-ing torn off, but the member was badly lacerated. She was helped out of the water and sent to the city for attention or some science. as soon as possible.

The recent floods in Kancas and Mis-sourd are still interfering with the free movement of freight, and hence it is that consignments of curs from New York to Salt Lake reach here at about e days and ahead of consignments ove he southern routes. The tracks were badly forn and the thousand or more mrs which were sidetracked in Kan ans City and East St. Louis are still stalled there weeeks behind time. They will be straightened out and reach their destination in a short time. A party of Christian Endeavor peopl numbering 45 persons who have been doing the Yellowstone under the direc-tion of Prof. McClain of St. Louis came n over the Oregon Short Line today. They were enthusiastic in their profise of the wondrous beauty of this famous egion, through which they traveled in wo tally-ho coaches. At Monida on the Shrot Line, which is the point departure for the park, they were treat ed to an exhibition by cowboyz, of rough riding and other evolutions which they suid discounted Buffalo Eill's Will West show. At the close of the per-formance they "chipped in" freely and were cheered by the cowboys. These

"It does seem absurd that a man in his right mind should be slowly polsng himself for three weeks," said Clarke last evening, "You see it Mr.

was this way: For some time past I have been taking beef blood-two teaspoonfuls to a glass of milk. When I left Portland for Denver I got a supply of the beef blood and brought it to Denver. I continued to take it after arriving here, but found it nauseate me and gave me terrible griping pains I continued to take it, however, and only became alarmed when I found only became alarmed when I found I had fallen off 15½ pounds and was get-ting weaker and weaker every day. "The other day I consulted my physi-cian, going to his office for the pur-pose. He hustled me back to the hotel and put me to bed and started imme-diately to treat me for ptomaine posi-oning, which he said was my malady in a very serious form. I have since been taking medicine every two hours. As
