Miss Pollock held a meeting of fourth grade teachers on Wednesday after-

Supervisor Elliott held a meeting for teachers of the fifth grade on Tuesday afternoon, and for teachers of the sixth grade on Thursday afternoon.

A meeting of the principals of the city schools was held on Wednesday afternoon, and by invitation, Supervisors Pollock and Wetzel met with them. Miss Pollock was first announced, and when asked to outline her policy, replied that the time allotted to her at the meeting would not permit her to go in-to details, but would gladly do so at the earliest opportunity. Miss Pollock, however, confined herself to the sub-ject of reading, and contended that as a bisic principle in pedagogics the child should not be deprived of the privilege of a trial by his own efforts without the aid of suggestions on the part of his teacher. As this seemed to be opposed to the theories advanced by a former supervisor, quite a lengthy discussion follower. Supervisor Wetzel then briefly outlined the method which will govern him in teaching music, urging that the subject deserves careful consideration, and that the time usual-ly alletted to it should be scrupulously regarded. He made a most earnest plea that the work should be presecuted vigorously, and by intelligent co-operation excellent results would be achieved.

From the report of Superintendent Christensen for the month closing Nov. 1, the following data is obtained: Total enrollment, 12,337; number of teach-ers, 294; average number of pupils per teacher, 29; cases of tardiness, 2,152; per cent of attendance, 94.7; per cent of punctuality, 99.1; cases of corporal punishment, 16; cases of truancy, 44; visite by patrons, 1,136; visits to patrons, 382; colored pupils enrolled, 36

L. D. S. UNIVERSITY.

Miss Margaret Barry, of New York, will give "The Little Minister" in the college hall next Monday night. Doors will open at 7.45 p.m., the recital to commence at 8. There will be no Book of Mormon lecture on Monday evening, on account Clipper, was an interested visitor at of the entertainment to be given by school on Friday.

A society for the night school class was organized on Wednesday. Jas. Everett was elected president; Quayle Cannon, vice-president and Ada Dudley

Some large new oak desks, each to seat six book-keeping students, have been placed in the book-keeping room. This will relieve the crowded condition of the department and there will now be plenty of room.

Prof. Hinckley has a large and spir-ited class in Church history, compris-ing missionary students and also those of the third year high school and normal departments.

The business college orchestra is growing famous. The boys have recently furnished the music for several parties in the city. The band is composed entirely of students under the leadership of R. L. Sweeten.

Examinations were held in all depart-Examinations were held in all depart-ments this week and parents may look for the reports of all first, second and third year students. Higher students and missionaries are exempt from the regulation. The law class has just begun on Spencer's commercial law. The work is very interesting, Mr. Young's in-formation on the subject being full and exact and his manner as a teacher amicable and entertaining. There is still time to join this class. A number of business men have purchased the text-book for private study, saying that it is the best work of the kind they have yet seen. One forty-gallon barrel of alcohol arrived this week to be used for scientiflec purposes only. The chief use of the liquid will be to preserve in glass jars the various zoological specimens recently collected by Prof. Chamberlin.

COMING HORSE SHOW TO ECLIPSE ALL

The National Horse Show Association of America will hold its annual exhibition at Madison Square Garden. New York, through week beginning November 18. The show is expected to callose all previous years, nearly lifteen hundred entries being now listed—a marked increase over last year. The horse show is always regarded with a great deal of national interest on account of the high social standing of the exhibitors and the hundreds of beautiful, and regally attired women who visit the show.

Frenchman, and Winston who recently colleged all Fournier's speed records.

The above halftone shows the entries in the big automobile road-race to be-held on the Concy Island path, Nov.

The scene is the finish of the course. This is the first road race ever sheld in this country and, therefore, is attracting wide national interest. Among the entries are all the big-"auto" stars including Fournier, the flying thorough work was never accomplished before as is now done in all the courses. The young Ladies' Usona society is now organized, with the Bush as president, and the Ladies' Leacon Light society continue to the its sessions in one of the rooms of the college. Both societies are doing excellent work.

The young men have erganised a gice club, and will perhaps give some sing-ing in College several times during the year. Professor Thatcher is musical di-

Artist Wright will exhibit some of his works at the coming session of the Utah Art Institute.

Attorney Jesse Budge of Paris, Principal Moench of the Weber Stake academy, and Principal Cutler of the Oneida Stake acabemy, were visitors at the college this week.

President Linford returned from Salt Lake city on Tuesday, where he attend-ed a meeting of the college board of trustees.

BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY.

Provo, Utah, Nov. 14, 1901.—Joseph E. Robinson, president of the California mission, visited the school on Monday and addressed the students during theology hour. Prof. Wolfe lectured in Plain City on Friday evening and in Payson on Sun-

The training teachers of the Academy have been given a regular visiting day in common with the county teachers. President Brimhall spoke in Draper last Sunday evening, under the aus-pices of the local school board. His subject was the "Relation of Parents to Teachers. The school is now in a very healthy condition. Out of an enrollment of one thousand and eighteen, only six are absent on account of sickness.

There are one hundred and twenty students enrolled in Mrs. C. D. Young's classes in domestic arts; about one half of the number are taking courses in plain sewing and dressmaking.

Mrs. Ida S. Dusenberry, a member of the Academy faculty, has been called to act as counselor to Mrs. Bathsheba W. Smith, president of the general Relief Societies.

Mrs. L. Brooks Vincent, a noted traveler and author, gave an interesting lecture before the students on Tuesday evening. Her descriptions of the Klondike country and its pleasures and per-ils were graphic and thrilling, and have been the subject of much favorable comment during the week.

The 1907s although young, are making a name for themselves, because of their enthusiasm. President Brimhall lectured in the regular class meeting on Monday afternoon and encouraged them in their determination to work unitedly for the advancement of the class.

The Spanish Fork teachers were visitors at the Academy on Monday and Tuesday. Misses Phebe Campbell, Clara Williams, Lydia Knudsen, Lottie Busch and Messrs. Ed Rowe and Will

YALE'S FULLBACK, WEYMOUTH.

Andrew Weymouth, who plays fullback on the Yale 'Varsity eleven is one of the most remarkable athletes old Eli has ever seen. He was Yale's best freshman oarsman last year, is a tennis champion, track and field athelete and is a phenomenal base ball player, always catching for Christy Mathewson when the later was at Bushnell. He is expected to prove equally phenomenal on the gridiron, and all Yale is earnestly discussing him as an atheletic marvel.

Hughes, all former students, were among the number.

The committee from the faculty, which was appointed to choose colors for the athletic association has reported. They have decided that tennis shoes shall be used for all gymnastic exercises. They have chosen white blouses and dark blue trousers for the track team, grey suits trammed with black for the baseball team, and have suggested dark blue for the basketball teams.

Beaver City, Nov. 11.—The visit of Prof. J. E. Hickman, of Provo was very much appreciated by all. His address on Friday evening, given under the auspices of the polysophical society, on the advancements in science during the nineteenth century was closely followed throughout by a large and appreciative audience.

The contest between classes of the Beaver district school and academy was a very pleasant affair, resulting, however, in favor of the academy. After the contest luncheon was served by the school to the participants in the contest, including the faculty of both schools, after which all assembled in Concert hall where a short program. including music, songs, a short talk by Prof. Hickman, etc., was carried out and the day closed by joining in a dance for a short time.

Quite a number of the students at-tended the special conference held in Beaver on Sunday, returning in the evening to the conjoint meeting of the Mutual Improvement associations, at which Prof. Hickman discoursed upon the history of the Latter-day Saints, and showing the fulfillment of many predictions that have been made concerning the people who settled in the Rocky mountains.

On last Friday evening Elder J. F. Talton gave an interesting talk on the "Rise and Fall of the Morrisites."

The question of erecting a modern school building here on the grounds is being talked of considerably, and we hope in due time to record the realization of our desires in this matter.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

Logan, November 15.—Principal Cutwith several of his teachers, was a vis-iter at the college Tuesday. The enrollment is now 280-only a ew short of the entire enrollment of last year. The defeat of the A. C. football team last Saturday does not daunt that plucky aggregation; they are still "at it." They play again Saturday with the team from All Hallows college on the B. Y campus, the B. 1 campus,

The faculty party for students is to take place on Saturday evening. The committee reports a pleasant program

ommittee reports a pleasant program in preparation.

Professor Wright addressed the students at chapel for the first time, on Thursday morning. He pointed out the agricultural possibilities of Utah, and the advantages to young men of using the splendid facilities of the college to equip themselves for intelligent conducting of farms. He complianted ducting of farms. He complimented the young women on their appreciating these facilities, as indicated by the names in the lists of products.

The chief exercise of the next meeting of the Agricultural College Debating Society is a debate on the proposition: "That state prohibition is a better means of controling the liquor traffe, that is high license." The progression has recitations, a song, and a lecture by Mr. Charles Whipple.

Professor Merrill is preparing a builetin on horse feeding, and Professor Widtsoe one on the best time to harvest cereals.

There is to be a meeting of the col-lege board on Saturday, to look after business connected with the new
