FAMILY
RECORDS.

WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for FAMILY RECORDS of an approved form.

Each book is divided into five forms.

The first form is that of a "FAM-ILY RECORD," with ruled and printed spaces for births, marriages, and deaths, in each family, also for names, dates, and places, one page accommodating one family.

The second form is a "CHURCH RECORD," with spaces for bles-ings, baptisms, confirmations, ordinations, endowments, and patriarchal blessings and various particulars of the same.

The third form is a "SEALING AND ADOPTION RECORD," with spaces for name of person sealed, birth, death, time, place, etc.

The fourth form is a "MISSION AND APPOINTMENT RECORD," with spaces for names, date of birth, field of labor, date of appointment, departure, release, etc.

The fifth form is a "RECORD for BAPTISMS, ENDOWMENTS, ORDINATIONS, and SEALINGS for the DEAD."

Each book is furnished with a title page, on which the person owning the record can enter his or her name. An explanation of the forms, or instructions how to keep the record is also printed in each book.

These Records are well printed and ruled on good ledger paper, substantially bound. We can furnish them of any size, from one to five quires, or larger, but probably five quires is as large as will be desired. We can also furnish the various forms in a record, por-tioned to each other in order.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, June 24, 1878.

BY TELEGRAPH.

NEWARK, N. J., 23.—The appointed works of the plow company on the Passaic River, were totally destroyed by fire this morning.

WASHINGTON, 23.—The surprising testimony given by Mrs. Jenks before the Potter investigating commission, has been the subject of much comment in the political circles, and its conclusion is awaited with much interest.

NEW YORK, 23.—The Herald's special says: Mrs. Jenks, is Scotch-Irish by descent, and was born in the north of Ireland. Her father's name was McDock, and he was drowned while in the Confederate army. Her mother was a Quaker.

THE TRIBUNE'S Washington special says, on Mrs. Jenks, some of Butler's friends say he has documents to convict Mrs. Jenks of perjury. She is in high spirits, and expects to enjoy her notoriety very much.

THE POST, to-morrow, will publish an interview with John F. Coyle, formerly publisher of the National Advertiser, regarding the published report that at a dinner party in this city, the night of Lincoln's assassination, Coyle burned an un-read package which Booth handed him.

COYLE says no such dinner party ever took place. "I never heard of that statement until after the execution, although rumors were prevalent that such a statement had been prepared. On my examination as a witness before the commission that tried the conspirators, I stated that no such document document ever reached me. Months after the execution, John Matthews, the gentleman to whom the statement had been given to be delivered, was brought before me. He admitted that he had destroyed it.

EX-GOV. Brown, before leaving Washington, responded to the letters of Secretary Sherman, returning the draft for forwarded to the department in the payment of his (Brown's) share of the Louisiana commission, again enclosing the draft, saying he feels constrained to do so from a sense of duty to himself and the parties involved in the amount expended.
Belief is expressed that the Secretary will retain the check and await future action concerning the payment of the expenses of the commission.

NEW YORK, 23.—An Eagle Pass special says: General Mackenzie and his staff arrived here last night.
Their commands will arrive tomorrow. They penetrated Mexico about 45 miles from the border.
Place of crossing, and about 15 miles east of Gargueta, where they were met by a detachment of the Mexican army, under Col. Valdes.
The Mexican commander inquired the purpose of his invasion, informing Mackenzie that he had orders to repel the American invasion, and that he (Mackenzie) should not proceed further. The Mexican position obstructing Mackenzie's progress, he wanted them to get out of his way, saying if they did not do so by 4 o'clock that day he would shoot at the same time putting his men in order for battle. At the appointed time the Americans advanced; their numbers appeared to overwhelm the Mexicans, who hastily withdrew to a safe distance, keeping in sight of the American troops.
Mackenzie asked Valdes if he intended to obstruct the route of the Americans again, to which Valdes replied that it was his (Mackenzie's) business to guard against that.
He would come again, saying he was to take care of himself, however, the Mexicans saw Mackenzie safely cross the river. The Mexican force was inferior to the Americans, hence no battle should be attacked to the Mexicans officers for not attacking. No captures were made during the expedition. This is the American version.

NEW YORK, 23.—Moses Wheelwright committed suicide this morning, by shooting himself through the head. He was a member of the Stock Exchange from its organization, and for 25 years held the position of vice president. Financial troubles, loss of position in the Exchange, and intemperance is said to be the cause of the desperate deed.

ST. LOUIS, 23.—Advisers from southwestern Kansas say: A terrible rain storm prevailed in that region last night, and great damage is done to crops, bridges and fences carried away, and cattle, hogs, and poultry drowned. The chickens, which were in the water, living of Beaver Creek, were drowned, and Mr. Bell, living on Badger Creek, was also drowned.
Considerable damage was also done by lightning.

NEW YORK, 23.—Nine members of a gang of counterfeiters, having their headquarters near Baxter Springs, Kansas, have been arrested.

THE WILL of the late Wm. Cullen Bryant was offered for probate yesterday, to the surrogate of Queens County, at Jamaica. It is dated Dec. 6th, 1872, in his own handwriting, remarkably legible.
It leaves to three of his daughters, and the other unmarried, only two persons get any portion of the estate, which was valued at $500,000. Had Mr. Bryant survived his children the estate was to have been equally divided between his nephews and nieces, and those of his wife. The bequests, otherwise than to his daughter, are four acres of land and $5,000 in money to the overseer of his estate, G. B. Cline, and $200 to the latter's son. All the rest of the property, including Bryant's interest in the Evening Post, is equally divided between the daughters. If either daughter dies childless, her share shall go to the surviving sister; and it is especially directed that the property given to the daughters, shall be settled in such a manner as to be free from the intermeddling or control of the husband of either. The executors of the will are John O.

Graham, Jno. Bigelow, Jas. H.
Platt, Geo. B. Cline, and the testator's daughter, Julia B. Bryant.

FOREIGN.

BERLIN, 23.—The congress, at Monday's sitting, will discuss the details of the arrangement made on Saturday permitting the Turks to evacuate the Balkan provinces.
A later dispatch declares that this concession on the part of Russia is unquestionably connected with the evacuation of the autonomy of Roumelia and the evacuation of the interior by the Turkish troops. The interior organization of the province will be next discussed. The conditions laid down by Russia are absolute. It is understood the negotiations relative to the evacuation of the autonomy of the province will give rise to an animated debate.

THE question of the evacuation of the fortresses will also arise in connection with the organization of Roumelia.

LONDON, 23.—The Daily News special says that Great Britain and Austria resolutely insist on the Rumanian speedily evacuating Bulgaria, where, until a new government is established, there shall be a mixed Rumanian occupation.

Russia demands that the number of troops Turkey be entitled to station near the Balkans be limited to a comparatively small contingent, and that Russia be allowed to continue her military occupation some time longer.

TURKEY.
Troops Moving—Threatening to Tear Down the British Flag.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 23.—The whole Turkish right wing has made a forward movement. It is understood that England advocates the formation of a gendarmerie to replace the Russian army of occupation.

The Russian recently requested the British consul at Doudgias to billet some of the soldiers, and in consequence of his refusal, threatened to tear down the British flag.
Minister Layard instructed the consul to confine himself to a protest.

RUSSIA.
Excitement about the Convention.

ST. PETERSBURG, 23.—There is much excitement here concerning the arrangements by which Turkey is allowed to occupy the Balkan provinces. It is thought that Count Schouvaloff is accountable for making this concession.
