

SOCIETY

THE WEEK REVIEWED

The principal social events of the week have been the functions given in honor of Bishop Leonard and the visiting clergy, and with the exception of these and a few others there has been nothing of a notable nature in the week's social annals, these being remarkably light for the season. Next week promises to furnish a livelier record, and there are in prospect several valentine parties for the week following.

SOCIAL CHAT

The friends of Mr. George D. Matter in this city will be surprised to learn that on Thursday, Jan. 22, he was married to Miss Marguerite R. Simons at Kansas City. They are both residents of this city. Miss Simons having been visiting in Kansas City for the past few months. Mr. and Mrs. Matter will leave on a trip to the east; his bride will return to this city to live. They will be at home to their friends after March 1 at 357 Second East street.

The prosperous and jolly Elite Social club will give one of their big events next Friday evening, Feb. 6, at the Ladies' Literary club house. They will dance until 12 o'clock, after which an elaborate menu will be served under the able direction of Mr. Franklin.

Mrs. Joseph Price gave a delightful evening party on Wednesday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John McQuarrie, who left this week with their family for New York where Mr. McQuarrie goes to take charge of the Eastern States mission. Many of their old friends were there to meet them, and the evening was spent in pleasant social chat and reminiscences, several vocal numbers also being beautifully rendered by Miss Ruth Wilson. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John G. McQuarrie, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. W. Groenbeck, Mrs. L. Groenbeck, Mrs. J. W. Smith, Mr. A. T. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Snow, Mr. D. H. Morris, Mr. J. M. McFarlane, Mrs. Elizabeth Snow, Mr. Arthur Snow, Miss Beth Milne, Miss Myrtle Snow, Miss Gertrude Snow, Miss Lucile Snow, Miss Eva Price, Miss Bertha Jones, Miss Ruth Wilson, Miss Edith Wilson, Miss Belle Carnahan, Mr. Claude Price.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was the large dancing party given on Wednesday night in the Twentieth ward annex. The hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Orson D. Romney, Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. Ovando C. Beebe, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Richardson, and a large number of their friends gathered in the new amusement hall and enjoyed a delightful evening in dancing and social chat. The hall and platform were decorated with palms and daisies, the vestry room was converted into a pretty dining room with rugs, draperies, plants and vines, and here refreshments were served, while punch was served throughout the evening in a corner of the dancing room. Delightful music was rendered by the orchestra and the program of dances was varied enough to suit all. The affair was a most successful one throughout.

One of the most successful character balls given in this city was the one at the Seventeenth ward hall last Thursday evening. There were fully 250 people present, nearly all of whom were dressed in costume. A beautiful framed picture was given to Miss Edith Smith for the best sustained character, her costume being that of an old lady. Other characters that received special mention by the committee were "Weary Willie," "Sunny Jim," a negro couple, two Mexican gentlemen, a Viking lady, "Carrie Nation," "Sing Hon King," and a Society lady. The judges were Dr. E. S. Wright, Franklin S. Tingey, Charles R. Howe, Mrs. Francis and Mrs. George S. McAllister.

Mrs. Clarence T. Brown gave a delightful reception on Wednesday, having on view in her parlors a notable collection of pictures by celebrated artists which her guests were delighted to enjoy. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Tracy and Mrs. Gordon, and a large number were present during the afternoon.
