Big Storm in Ohio.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 21.-A heavy westcleveland, O., Nov. 21.—A heavy west-erly gale, which at times reached a ve-locity of sixty miles an hour, swept over northern Ohlo today, prostrating tele-phone and telegraph wires in all direc-tions. In this city the wind played havoc with chimneys, frees and plate plass windows. The temperature is failing radidly. falling rapidly.

Severe Storm in California.

San Francisco, Nov. 21.-A severe storm prevails over northern California and telegraphic communication with some points has been interrupted. The Southern Pacific company has ordered out its snow plows on the Central Pa-cific line. This is the first time in ten years that a November storm has made such an order necessary. Snow is fall-ing from Colfax, to Reno, and at the summit it is seven feet in depth and still falling heavily. So far traffic has not been interrupted.

"MORMONS' AND INDI/ IL.

Account of a Fight Between Them Greatly Exaggerated.

Phoenix, Ariz, Nov. 21.—A message received here today from the San Car-los reservation says that no Indians have left the reservation, contradicting the belief that the Apache band, which has been on the warpath in Mex., came from San Carlos. There are no indica-tions of uneasiness among the San Car-los Anaches

Considerable damage resulted at Mar-tin's mill in the county of the same name, but particulars are not obtain-able. Several houses were blown down at Indian creek in that county. Twenty house at Dallas, Ala., and Huntsville, were demolished, but no lives were lost. In Williamson county near Franklin, the residence of Able Little was de-storyed and Mr Little and Mrs. M. Hughes were hadly hurt. At Boxley's store the storehouse was destroyed and three negroes killed. los Apaches A dispatch from Casas Grande, Mexico, states that the fight reported there between "Mormons" and a band of In-dians was grossly exaggerated. Near Colonia, Pacheco, whites fired on a few wandering reds who plundered catables fro ma ranch house. One Indian is said to have been killed and pupther woundto have been killed and another wound-

PATH OF THE STORM. Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 21.—Conductor Kibler, of the Granada Accommodation train, on the Illinois Central railroad, which arrived this morning, two and one-half hours late, reports that the path of the storm was first reached at Datesville, Miss., where considerable damage was done to property and sev-eral persons injured, but none fatally There had been a heavy down-pour of rain all day. At 5:30 the storm burst in all its fuy, and for a mile and one quarter on the west side of the railroad track the wind ievelled every standing object in its way. At Guy's station, one mile south of Love station, Tolin Guy's mill and residence were destroyed. The inmates of the dwell-ing miraculously escaped injury. Two New York, Nov. 21.—A dispatch to the Herald from The Hague says: "The Dutch government was recently requested by the Chinese minister to take part in the negotiations with China. Its reply was to the effect that Holland had never been at war with China, but that she intended to demand reparation for anything that demand reparation for anything that might have happened to the minister at Pekin, and also as soon as details of the damage were received for any loss destroyed. The inmates of the dwell-ing miraculously escaped injury. Two negroes in a cabin nearby were killed. The damage done at Love station was not serious. From that point the storm took a northwesterly course and the next place to feel its force was La Grange. Tenn. The storm seems to have started from a point to the south of Tunica, Miss, and within a few miles of that place. Telegaphic communication has

NO CAUSE OF ACTION.

J. W. Farrell Nonsuited in Case Against the City and County.

When the "News" report of the case of J. W. Farrell against Salt Lake of J. W. Farrell against Salt Lake City and county closed yesterday, a motion for non-suit was in course of argument. After hearing arguments pro and con Judge Cherry granted the motion on the ground that C. P. Mason, to whom Mr. Farrell had assigned his claim against the defendants, had ac-cepted the amounts of the original con-tract, $11,500 in all, and that the plain-tiff had consented thereto. The court held that Farrell had no cause of ac-tion. The action was to recover $6,-007,08, alleged to be due for extras on the contract, for putting in the elec-tric wires in the City and County building. building.

out. It is the expectation and hope of the war department that the coming Congress will, early in its session, en-act legistation which will enable the de-partment to replace the present volun-teer force by a permanent force. In that case such of the men in the ranks as care to continue in the service will be re-enlisted as regulars, and any vacan-cles that may exist through the muster out of the volunteers will be supplied by original enlistments in the United States. It is believed these enlistments can be made in time to replace all the retired Phillippine volunteers before the first of the next fiscal year without causing a hiatus.

 The Delagoa railroad award of $3,-b62,800 with interest at 5 per cent from June 25,1889,1 the result of the seligre of the Delagoa Bay railroad by Portu-gal. The facts in the case have been told many times during the last few years. Besides the principal of the award and the interest, totaling about $5,000,000, Portugal paid on account $140,000 in 1890. The Americans interest-ed are the heirs of Col. McMurdo, who, with a number of English capitalists, built the road and ran it until seliged by the Portuguese officials.

Seybell Injunction Dissolved.

London, Nov. 21.-The appeal court has dissolved the injunction of Justice Farwell, of the high court of justice, of August 39, who enjoined General Seybell, of the Amalgamated society of Railway Servants, and Secretary Holmes from "watching and besetting" the Great Western railroad stations and approaches with the view of inducing non-unionists to refrain from tak-ing the places of Taff Vale railroad strikers. The master of the rolls de-clared the Amalgamated society was an entity unknown to the law and therefore incapable of being used. The case will be appealed to the house of lords.
