A Cry of "They're Fighting," Misinken For Cry of "Fire" Caused the Terrible Catastrophe.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 19.-In an awful crush of humanity caused by a stampede in the Shiloh negro Baptist church at avenue G and Eighteenth street tonight, between 65 and 80 persons were killed and as many more seriously injured. The catastrophe occurred at 9 o'clock, just as Booker T. Washington had concluded his address to the national convention of Baptists, and for three hours the scenes around the church were indescribable. Dead bodies were strewn in every direction, and the ambulance ser-vice of the city was utterly unable to remove them until after 1 o'clock. Dozers of dead bodies were arranged in rows on the ground outside of the se of worship, awaiting removal to the various undertaking establish-ments, while more than a score were laid out on the benches inside.

The church is the largest one for ne-roes in Birmingham, and the pastor groes in Birmingham, and the pastor says there were at least 2,000 persons in the edifice when the stampede began. in the confice when the startpede began. Instructions had been issued to allow no more to enter, but the negroes forced their way inside the building and were standing in every aisle. Even the entrance to the church was literal-

y packed. Just as Booker T. Washington con-cluded his address, Judge Billou, a ne-gro leader from Baltimore, engaged in an altercation with the choir leader concerning an unoccupied seat, and it concerning an unoccupied seat, and it is said a blow was struck. Someone in the choir cried: "They're fighting!" Mistaking the word "fighting" for "fre," the congregation rose en masse end started for the door. One of the ministers quickly mounted the rostrum and admonished the people to keep with the second the word "cuict". quiet. He repeated the word "quiet," several times, and motioned to his hearers to be seated. Again the exdted congregation mistook the word "quiet" for "fire," and renewed the struggle to reach the door. Men and women crawled over the benches and fought their way into the aisles, and those who had fallen were trampled upon like cattle. The ministers tried again and again to stop the stampede, but no power on earth could stay the straggling, fighting mass of humanity. The screams of women and children The screams of women and children added to the horror of the scene, and through mere fright many persons fainted and as they fell to the floor were crushed to death.

WASHINGTON'S STATEMENT.

Principal Booker T. Washington, after the accident, said: "I had just finished delivering my lecture on 'In-dustry' and the singing had com-menced, when some woman back of me was heard to scream. Some members of the choir yelled 'Quiet!' which the gallery understood to be 'Fire.' This was repeated and started the stampede. I found on investigation that a Birmingham man had stepped on the toes of a delegate from Baltimore named Ballou, Ballou resented it and made a motion as if to draw a gun, This caused the woman to scream.

"There was little excitement in the center and front of the church. The rear of the church was congested and some of the men tried to walk out on the heads of the crowd. At the time of the alarm there were probably 3.00 people in the church and fully that number without. The crowd on the sidewalk surged in, and this, in a measure, accounted for the large loss of life. "The majority of those killed were smothered to death, very few having bones broken. When I saw that a stampede was imminent I started the choir singing, and part of the audience joined them. I remained until the excitement had subsided, for fully 30 minutes. One good sister, whose name don't know, caught me firmly by the wrist and held me throughout the ex-citement, saying, 'Keep still.'

"I am unable to say positively, but there is a probability that the convention will adjourn out of respect to the dead. The session would have closed next Monday night.

"So far as is known about ten delegates were among the killed, two from Texas and two from New Orleans be-ing among the number."

ON ISTHMUS OF PANAMA.

Both Parties Told that Trains Must Not be Molested.

Washington, Sept. 19 .- Secy. of the Navy Moody today made public the following cablegram received from Com mander McLean of the Cincinnati, the officer in command of the United States naval forces on the isthmus;

"Colon, Sept. 19 .- Secretary of the Navy, Washington: Have sent follow ing communication to both parties: "I have to inform you that United States naval forces are guarding the trains and line of transit across the Isthmus of Panama from sea to sea; that no person whatever will be allowed to obstruct, embarrass or interfere in any manner with the trains or the route of transit. This is without prejudice or any desire to interfere in domestic contentions of the Colombians.'"

It was admitted by a high official of the navy department today that this government is seriously considering a further reinforcement of the United States naval force on the isthmus. It is understood that there is no present intention to order more warships to temporary history, and is one of the most remarkable political acts of the present day, for it is the first time that the diplomacy of the United States draws into its sphere of activity occurrences within a European commonwealth. America's controversy with Turkey was a totally dissimilar case, since the United States there exercised its natural right of defending the interests of its citizens; but in the unjust treatment of Roumanian Jews America is not directly damaged. The United States is moved to this step by considerations of humanity, and is not willing to keep silent in the presence of international wrong. As the United States did not participate in the Berlin states did not participate in the Berlin treaty, it points to principles of inter-national law and to eternal justice Under any circumstances, the United States has the sympathies of the civ-ilized world, and it would be highly shameful to the governments of Eu-rope that the wrongs should be re-moved by the action of America." The Tageblatt says: "Secy Hay's note is one of loud appeal to humanity, which Roumania has outraged in the most disgraceful manner. The young American power inaugurates its world policy by making itself the spokesman of humanity and liberty and religion. It shakes the old civil-ized states of Europe by reminding them of their duties toward civiliza-tion." tion.

The Lokal Anzeiger says: "The note is quite characteristic of the American style of thinking. It is peculiar that the United States, so jealous of the Mon-roe doctrine, should concern itself with a matter which is strictly European and, more particularly, the business of an independent kingdom."

of an independent kingdom. The anti-Semitic journals dispose of the note with scornful paragraphs. The Neuste Nachrichten asks: "Why does not the United States tackle Russia, which treats the Jews much worse?"

The Tages Zeitung says: "The prattle about humanity and eternal justice, especially in an American mouth, is an empty phrase, and there is no justifica-tion for using it against Roumania."

MAX NORDAU'S OPINION.

Paris, Sept. 19.-A representative of the Associated Press today interviewed Max Nordau, vice president of the congress of Zionists, on Secy. Hay's Roumanian note.

"It is magnificent," said Dr. Nordau. "After a period of darkness, during which America seemed to be immersed in Monroeism and the furtherance of her own material interests, she has steppel forward and taken a glorious step in behalf of suffering humanity She has torn the mask from Europe's face. Seey. Hay's circular compels the European powers who signed the treaty of Berlin, to do their duty or stand convicted of conniving at the ex-termination of a quarter of a million of my prethren by the barbarians of Roumania. "The Roumanian government has heard the permisions theory enunciated by the anti-Semites that the Jews con stitute a danger to a young nation, and on the false pretext that Roumania is a young nation it has determined to rid the country of them. The Roumanian government denied the Jew civil ights; it closed every channel whereby they could gain their livelihood, and i condemns them to extermination by starvation and flight. "Secy. Hay's note must bear fruit Europe must now recall to Roumania the fulfilment of her duties and obli-gations, or bear the open shame."

GENUINE DEATH-TRAP.

The jevel of the floor is about 15 feet from the ground and long steps lead to the sidewalk from the lobby just out-side the main auditorium. Brick walls extend on each side of the steps for six or seven feet, and these proved a vertable death-trap. Negroes who had reached the top of the steps were pashed violently forward, and many tell. Before they could move others fell upon them, and in 15 minutes persons were piled upon each other to a height of 10 feet. This wall of struggling ef 10 feet. This wall of struggling humanity blocked the entrance, and the weight of 1,500 persons was pushed against it. More than 20 persons lying on the steps underneath the heap of bodies died from suffocation.

Two white men who were in the rear of the church when the rush began es-caped, and realizing the seriousness of the situation rushed to a corner near by and turned in a fire alarm. The depart-ment came quickly, and the arrival of the wagons served to scatter the crowd which had gathered around the front of the church. A squad of police was also hastened to the church and, with the fremen, finally succeeded in releasing the negroes from their positions in the estrance. The dead bodies were quick-b removed and the crowd instde, findis an outlet, came pouring out. Scores of them lost their footing and rolled down the long steps to the pavement, sustaining broken limbs and internal

In an hour the church had been practically cleared, and the sights which greated the eyes of those who had come to all the injured was sickening. Down the aisles and along the outside of the pews the dead bodies of men and women were strewn, and the cries of the almed and crippled were heart-rending. In a few minutes the work of removing the bodies was begun.

The Shiloh church is located just on be edge of the South Highlands, the fashionable ationable residence section of this by, and all the physicians living in that part of town went to the assist-ace of the injured. As many of the siffering negroes as could be moved by ambulances were taken to the hosthis, and the rest were laid out on the ground, and there the physicians ausded them. At least 15 died before they could be moved from the ground. During the stampede Booker T. Washington and several other promiheat negroes were on the stage and the unwilling witnesses to the frightful catastrophe. None of those in the the struggling crowd had advanced far enough to the pulpit were injured in the least. For a few minutes they at-tempted to restore order, but seeing their efforts were futlle, waited until the struggling crowd had advanced far enough for them to nick up the dead igh for them to pick up the dead and injured.

Most of the dead are women, and the Most of the dead are women, and the physicians say in many cases they fainted and died of suffocation. A re-markable feature of the calamity is that no blood use of the calamity is that no blood was seen on any of the victims. They were either crushed or died from sufficiention.

BLUE JACKETS LANDED. Colon, Colombia, Sept. 19.-Several undred government troops were hundred brought out this morning and it was the intention of the authorities to have them take a train for Panama. Th railroad company declined to entrain the soldiers on their passenger train but subsequently placed a special train at their disposal. Shortly after 8 o'clock 80 bluejackets from the United States cruiser Cincir natl, together with two quick-firing Colt guns, were landed in Colon. Brussels, Sept. 19.-The news of the death of the queen of the Belgians today came as a great surprise, especially in view of the reassuring reports which were circulated this morning, and which made the announcement of this evening still more of a shock.

At the royal opera house, where "Hamlet" was being played, the ghost was just about to make his entrance when the manager of the theater read to the audience a telegram announcing the death of her majesty. The performance was discontinued.

People crowded the city streets, where extra editions of the newspapers containing obituary notices of the queen were bought eagerly. La Reforme sums up the sorrowful life of her majetsy as follows:

The queen and mother, Marie Henriette, had been cruelly tried. In 1869 the death of her son, the Duke of Braher grief beyond measure. Later, fresh alarms and keen sorrows wrung the mother's heart when tragic events shattered the happiness of the Princess Stephanie, her daughter. The death of Prince Baldwin (son of the Count of Flanders, brother of King Leopold) was another cruel blow to her majesty. and the fire at Laeken castle, in which a number of treasured relics were des troyed, brought her a further sorrow, The queen sought, if not to forget, at least to lessen her sorrow, by devot-ing all her energies to works of charity Her attitude in the face of misfortune was always calm and resolute. The demonstrations which had been arranged in honor of the visit to this ity tomorrow of the Boer generals Botha, Dewet and Delarey, have been postponed, and all the festivities planned for the occasion have been abandoned because of the death of the queen.

Philadelphia, Sept. 19 .- Daniel H. Mc-Carthy, a lawyer of Hazelton, Pa., vis-ted Senator Quay at Republican headquarters today and submitted to the senator the draft of a bill making provision for the appointment of a receiver to assume control of the anthracite coal tines under certain contingencies. Mr. McCarthy recently submitted the same bill to President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers. The measure authorizes the legislaure to appoint a receiver for the coal companies on the ground that the cor-porations have violated the state constitution, which provides in article 16, section 3, that charters and franchises of incorporated companies may be re-voked if the business of the corporations is so conducted as to infringe the rights of individuals or the public wel-

HAY'S NOTE IN AMERICA.

Vienna, Sept. 20 .- The protest of the United States on behalf of the Jews in Roumania was received in official cirles here with mingled feelings. It is admitted that the position of th

United States is a just one, but the con-ditions in the Balkan states new and at the time of the signing of the treaty ar two different matters. It is expected that the powers will instruct their representatives at Bucharest to furnish information as to the present condition of the Roumanian Jews. The authori ties here also are anxious to ascertain definitely what methods the Ruomanian government proposes to adopt to secur the enforcement of industrial law, enactment of which has been responsi-

are skeptical of any good resulting from the intervention of the United States.

Celebrating Kossuth's Birthday.

Budapest, Hungary, Sept. 19 .- The centenary of the birth of Louis Kos-suth is being celebrated throughout Hungary. Here flags are flying and houses are decorated. A commemorative service in the Protestant church was attended by two sons of the Hun-garian patriot, the principal local au-thorities, deputations from all parts of the country, and the Hanover veterans of 1848

At the conclusion of the service immense crowds proceeded to the ceme-tery to attend the laying of the foundation stone of a mausoleum to be ed to the memory of the national hero. Gen. Teurr, a companion of the Hungarlan exile, was present at the laying of the foundation stone. The fund for the national memorial to Kossuth now amounts to over $250,000.

A TRUE SAYING.

Most Men Dig Their Graves With Their Teeth."

The wrong kind of food fills more graves than any other cause. It is easy to retain good health by the use of proper food and it is pleasant too. The Rev. G. M. Lodge of Iowa City, Iowa, made a successful experiment. "I am 65 years of age and a preacher.

Last winter I went to Kansas and had charge of two churches. A little use of Grape-Nuts food made me believe it to true brain and nerve builder; wanted to experiment further with so I used Grape-Nuts for breakfast and upper for more than three months with the hest results. I not only never had better health in my life but the effect on my brain was wonderful. I had beand things, was often unable to recall even the names of old friends. After using Grape-Nuts for two vecks forgotten names came to me and as the days and weeks passed my memory was wonderfully quickened as to names and dates, and mental ability in general. I could preach without man-uscript or notes as never before and in a month or less I said to myself, 'Grape Nuts is a brain food,' and as such I now recommend it. It also gives health and blood, nerve and muscle. Cheerfully and earnestly I advise students, clergymen, teachers and all mental workers to use Grape-Nuts steadily and systematically if your wish to excel in mental and literary work, renew your age and feel well. It is the best nerve and brain food I have ever known."

TREATMENT OF CRIMINALS.

Sir Robt. Anderson Says They Should Be Treated Differently.

New York, Sept. 20 .- Sir Robert Anderson, who was at the head of the criminal investigation department of the metropolitan police force for a long period, has written an article, says a London dispatch to the Tribune, reaffirming his conclusion that a radical change in dealing with professional criminals is necessary. He favors a registration of this dangerous class, and would render it compulsory for judges to commit them to hard labor whenever proof is shown by the police that they are professional criminals, preying upon the community. He believes constant conviction and sentencing o habitual criminals for short terms imprisonment to be a waste of punitiv energy when they could be brande for what they are and kept under re straint, like lunatics, at the pleasur and discretion of the crown.

"I look forward to retirement from official service with as much delight as a schoolboy looks forward to a vacation. I have many ties of friendship which bind me closely to this country, but I have concluded that I have now earned the right to be a free man. I shall accept no office or appointment of any kind, but shall finish some liter. ary work which I have been pursuing for some time." After his formal retirement Mr. White will return either to Switzerland, where his daughter is at present so journing, or spend some months on the Riveira. He then intends to return to his home in New York for good. I shall be able to leave my post,' concluded Mr. White, "with the reflec ion that there has rarely been a tim when diplomatic and political relations have been so friendly between Germany and the United States.'
