HOLDS EXERCISES

University Graduates Entertain a Large Audience.

AN INTERESTING PROGRAM,

The Class History and the Prognostis cation are Funny Efforts-Other Entertaining Numbers.

The college graduating class of the University held its class day evercises in the Normal building last evening. A large audience gathered to witness the performances of the brilliant young The area of low pressure noted over the northern portions of Nevada and graduates and the exercises were exceedingly interesting. The hall was decorated gracefully with flags and the college and class colors.

The exercises opened with a selection by the University Ladies's Glee club, which was followed by an address of welcome by John F. Hoffman, the class president. He said that the class of 1901 should be a remarkable one for it was the first to be graduated from the new buildings, and the first in the new cen-

Then followed the class history by E. R. Morgan. Mr. Morgan regretted that the historian could not indulge his fancy like the orator and the poet, but was confined to hard, cold facts. Then he said if anyone discovered any fact that might occur in his history, he would re-quest the finder to return it to "Jani-tor Nordvall or to Dr. Kingsbury, his private secretary." He then proceeded to crack a lot of jokes at the expense of the other members of the class.

Thomas Ashworth followed with the beautiful singing evoked an encore.

B. H. Jacobson then gave the class oration. His theme was "The Ethics of Progress." He said the fundamental principle of progress was the law of na-tural selection. What if the Indian, the Boer and the Castillian is lost to view is there any less of life. The mastodon of primeval ages had to pass, and does anyone regret it? The speaker said that the law of justice was giving away to the higher law of love and benevolence. The day seems to be at hand when the principles of Christ will continue the tions of men. An anecdote was related of a body of Americans who gathered in Paris to hold a banquet right after the close of the Civil war. One of the Americans proposed the following toast: "Here's to the United States, bounded on the north by British America, on the South by the Gulf of Mexico, on the East, by the Atlantic Mexico, on the East by the Atlantic and on the west by the Pacific ocean." Then another American arose and said: 'Here's to the United States, bounded on the north by the North pole, on the The largest circulation of any south, by the south pole, on the east by paper published between Denver and the rising sun, and on the west by the setting sun. And then the third Amer-ican arose and said: "Here's to the nited States, bounded on the north by the Aurora Borealis, on the south by the procession of equinoxes, on the east the primeval chaos and on the west by the day of judgment." The speaker thought the latter had the best conception of the grandeur and greatness of his country. He concluded by express-ing the sentiment that the world was better than it ever was and was grow-ing better, and the golden age of man is not in the past but in the future.

FIFTFENTH COMMENCEMENT. Interesting Program by All Hallows

Ten Graduates This Year. The fifteenth annual commencement of All Hallows college was held last evening in the Theater. A very large and enthusiastic audience of the friends and patrons of the institution was pres-nt and was continually delighted with ne features of the excellent program of the evening. There were ten graduates from All Hallows this year, three of whom received the degree of bachelor of arts; two that of bachelor of science, and five the degree of master of accounts. of accounts. Besides the conferring of the degrees, which was done by the Very Rev. Father Larkin, a number of medals were awarded and an excellent program of musical and literary numbers was rendered.

The college orchestra opened the evening's entertainment with the selection "Maritana." This was followed by a cornet solo, "Inflammatus," by J. A. Gallacher, the orchestra accompanying him. Both musical selections were excellently rendered, as indeed was the entire musical program.

Largey presented the literary selection "Gualbert's Victory" with much suscess, and a violin solo by Arthur Pedersen brought forth a storm of ap-plause. His selection was "Fantasia, Scene de Ballet" (De Beriot). Follow-ing a cleverly executed military drill, Father Larkin announced a list of prootions in the cadet corps. "The Death Benedict Arnold" was then recited by William Shields, who won the elo-cution medal, and the string quartet played "Berceuse," op. 15, No. 5 (Reber) and "Menuet," op. 14, No. 1 (Pade-

The curtain next rose upon the entire class and faculty seated upon the stage. The valedictory was then very creditably presented by Gilbert White of Shoshone, Idaho, and the degrees and medals were conferred by Father Lar-din, as follows: Thomas Canning, B. WILL TAX THE $190,000 NOTE

Held by James A. Cunningham from A Cunningham and P. T. Farnsworth.

The county board of equalization yesterday afternoon cited James A. Cunningham to appear before it and show cause why his assessment on money and solvent credits should not be increased from $2,00 to $200,000.

Mr. Cunningham admitted that he Mr. Cunningnam admitted that he held a note executed by Alonzo E. Hyde and P. T. Farnsworth for $190,000, which was secured by 51,000 shares of Bullion-Beck mining stock, but that payment of the note depended on a decision of the supreme court, and as the note might never become payable he did not consider it was a taxable as-set. County Attorney Christensen, however, thought otherwise. It was only necessary that the holder of such a note should admit it to be a solvent redit. Accordingly Mr. Cunningham's assessment was increased by the amount of the note.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION MEETING.

Large Attendance of Officers and Teachers.

WORK OF THE DEPARTMENTS

Superintendents Discuss Ways and Means to Suppress Vice and Sabbath Breaking.

There was a large attendance of officers and teachers of the Sunday schools of the Salt Lake Stake at the union meeting Monday evening, June 17, 1901, held in the Latter-day Saints' academy building: All the schools of the Stake were well represented by offla mers and teachers except First branch, Twenty-second branch, Center, North Point and Pleasant Green.

Stake Superintendent Thos. C. Griggs presided and Superintendent Arnold G. Glauque of the Sixth ward opened by prayer. The Eighth ward school under the direction of Prof. John M. Cham-berlain rendered beautiful music for the occasion. A pleasing feature was the quartet from little Hazel Hunter, Katie Fordice, Ethel Margetts and Maud Tuckfield. Secretary J. H. Parry called the roll of the schools, the Twelfth, ward school showing the banner representation with seventeen present, the Eighth ward had fifteen and the Lighteenth fourteen representatives. Superintendent Griggs said that as a number of Sunday school workers would be taking summer vacations shortly, it was desired that they make themselves useful wherever they had opportunity to do so in the Sunday solvools.

The ineeting at this time separated into the various departments, where suitable lerrons were discussed and the number of presentation to the classes illustrated.

The higher department, in charge of Elder Thomas A. Clawson had under consideration the baptism of Adam, and the purpose of that ordinance, as given in the Pearl of Great Price. The Second intermediate department discussed class methods and ways of handling refractory pupils. Elders D. M. McAllitter and D. O. Willey were in charge.

In the First Intermediate, under the direction of Joseph A. West, the time was occupied in relating experiences in meeting afficulties. The I indergarten and Primary department, Mrs. Donetta S. Kesler and Miss Katie Morris in charge, practiced a number of songs adapted to these departments and illustrated their use. Plans and lessons were also discussed. The superintendents were convened to discuss Sunday school methods and cottage Sunday schools. Considerable interest was taken in the consideration of ways and means to suppress sin and vice in this city, and create therein a more healthy moral atmost bath breaking. Sunday excursions and amusements, cigarette smoking and selling liquor to minors were among the evils most vigorously decried. A committee was appointed to take the necessary steps to call upon the Mayor and City Council to respectfully orge the enforcement of the ordinances against the sale of liquors on Sunday, gambling, sale of liquors to minors, of cigarettes to children, against the use of vile and obscene language and the playing of baseball and other bolsterous games on Sunday.

Upon reassembling little Frank and Althea Peterson delighted the audience with a duct. Superintendent A. L. Clark of the Davis Stake Sunday schools, who had visited the departments, made a few appropriate remarks. After the usual closing exercises music and benediction by Elder H. B. Clawson, Jr., the meeting adjourned for one month. The Ninth ward school will furnish the music at the next meet-Diminished Vitality.

Some people talk very flippantly about diminished vitality.

They don't stop to think that vitality is the principle of life—that it is that little understood something on which every function of their bodies depends. Diminished vitality is early indicated by loss of appetite, strength and en-durance, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest vitalizer.
