Now I will come to the all-important subject of polygamy, or celestial marriage. I regret to say that the rumor of my taking a second and third wife is not true. I have only the wife of my youth, but as this subject towers far above all others in the estimation of the subject world. I will say a few words upon it. and hely iaw and only to be entered upon with a prayerful heart and a singere desire to glorify God, and if it is done in that manner it will exalt man and women in the eterbal worlds as no other law given by the Supreme Being will. I know the Gentile world hold up their hands in hely herror at the bare thought of having more than one wife at the same time, but let us examine the Bible on that subject: We find that King David had al the wives of Sauf given unto him by Be fands of the prophet of God, and when David causes Uriah God, and when David causes Uriah to be piaced in the front of the battle thereby examing his death in order to get his wife, it brought the suger of God upon him and the loss of his kingdom, and we find in the New Testament that the anger of God still rested upon him, for it says David has not yet ascended to the heavens. Now mark, the prophet says to David. "I gave the all of Enal's wives, and if that had not been enough I would have given you paper." We find adultery severely punished In this case, but not polygamy. Again, we find severely punished in this case, but not polygamy. Again, we find Sarah, Abraham's wife, was barren, but she gate Hagar to Abraham to wife, and the set pleased God and he blessed Sarah and she bear Isaac. Again, Jamob had four wives who bear him twelve sons, and we are told that the names of these twelve sons will be inscribed on the twelve of the New Jarussiem of Eternal City of God, and in the New Testament, that they will come from the east, the west, the north and the south, and sit down with them in the kingdom of God. Surely the despised Mormons will Surely the despised Mermons will be in a goodly company.

We find in many other cases that polygamists had revelations, visions, and talked with God, and in no sase, either in the Old or New Testaments, is the practice of polygamy forbidden, but we do find the severest penalties against adultery, I find the promise made to Abrafind the promise made to Atomic find the part of the p the nations of the earth shall be blassed, and Abraham is held up ar a pattern for all generations. And Jesus declared to the Jews, "If yo

There may be some in Putnam who will believe what I may write and these few lines will be a truthful as it will be possible to make them. Now as to what I know. I testify solemnly and positively that the Church, commonly known as the Mormon church, was instituted and came into existence by the power of God, and not of man, and that in plais fulliment of prophecy which can be found in the King James version of the Bible.
