

FOREIGN NEWS

ENGLAND.

A solemn high mass was celebrated lately in Moosfields Chapel, in London, for the repose of the souls of the Papal soldiers who had fallen in Italy. A large number of the Roman Catholic clergy of the metropolis officiated. Archbishop Manning assisted in the ceremony, and afterwards preached a sermon on Rome and the Papacy. He maintained that Rome was the capital of Christendom and not of Italy, and said that any attempt to disturb the temporal sovereignty of the Pope should be denounced by the entire Catholic Church. Non-intervention on the part of the Catholic nation when the Pope's position was attacked, would be nothing less than absolute apostasy.

The Prince of Wales, to the great indignation of the bulk of English Protestants, is now a constant worshipper at All Saints Church, Margaret street, one of the most ritualistic churches in London.

Prince Minbontaiyoh, brother of the Tycoon of Japan, having been invited by her Majesty's government, to visit England, arrived at Dover, December 2, and was received with the usual military honors paid to a royal personage.

FRANCE.

With a view to preventing popular dissatisfaction, an order has been issued by the Prefect of the Seine, under date of the 8th inst., establishing measures which will enable the Paris bakers to sell bread of the first quality at 50 centimes (the maximum price) per kilogramme; second quality at 42 centimes. An indemnity will be paid to the bakers as compensation from the Government Bakers' Fund.

ITALY.

A Florence dispatch, of November 11, says that the Minister of Foreign Affairs has addressed a circular to the diplomatic agents of Italy abroad, explaining the development and present state of the Roman question. This memorandum enlightens the Powers on the Roman question, and enables them to decide whether it will suit them to accept or not the proposal of France to meet in Conference. The King has signed a decree allotting 50,000 to be distributed in aid of the wounded in the Roman expedition, and of the families of the killed.

The Florence Official Gazette, of Nov. 12, publishes an article protesting against the suppression of the Apostolic Legation in Sicily, as being an attack upon the inviolable prerogatives of the Italian Crown. The Government has taken steps to prosecute before the tribunals any one who may attempt to carry out this act.

A despatch from Florence, dated on the 2d of December, reports: The late arrest of twelve Mazzinian conspirators has led to the discovery of a plot for a general insurrection, having for its object the destruction of the monarchy. Committees had been formed in all Italian cities, and an active propaganda was being carried on in the army and among workmen.

The Italia says that preliminaries for Garibaldi's trial are still in progress. The General has undertaken to appear when called upon, and in the meantime not to leave Caprera.

The Italian government has declined to renew the treaty with Austria for the mutual extradition of deserters. The Austrian Government has consequently given instructions to the proper authorities to allow Italian deserters to sojourn in the Austrian territories as long as they obey the law.

RUSSIA.

Up to the present time the Bank of Russia has bought gold to the value of 30,000,000 roubles. The import of gold continues.

SWITZERLAND.

A dispatch from Berne, says that the Federal Council has approved the Postal Convention with the United States.

CRETE.

Cretan affairs remain in the same unsatisfactory state. The real revolutionary government of Crete is established in Syria, and they will not accept any concessions or compromises offered by the Ottoman government. The removal of the families and the assistance they receive through blockade runners will undoubtedly enable them to continue the revolution so long as they are permitted to entertain hopes of foreign intervention.

Intelligence from Athens to the 3d ult., announces the return of the two Greek volunteer leaders Coronios and Petropoulaky from Candia, the Cretans no longer requiring their services. The insurrection was being carried on with great activity. The Greek steamer Union was still making voyages to the island with provisions and munitions for the islanders, and the Russian, French, Prussian, and Italian vessels continue to transport families to Greece.

A CARD.

To the Inhabitants and purchasing Community of this Territory:—

Owing to the great decline in the prices of goods in the Eastern Markets (being determined to keep IN RATIO with them,) I have made a further reduction in the prices of goods, which upon examination will speak for themselves. I have also on hand a great many articles that have laid over for one and two years—which I will sell, REGARDLESS OF COST, even lower than the present rates in the Eastern Markets will permit of; viz: Table and Pocket Cutlery, Spoons, Shovels, Scythes and Snaths, Bake Skillets, Ladders and Latches, Tea and Table Spoons, Carriage Bolts, Cast, Blister and Plough Steel, Soap, Lye, Tobacco, and an immense variety of other goods, which are necessities for every day use. Farmers and Country Merchants would do well to call and examine the stock and prices, and as Greenbacks are scarce in the country, I will take for pay, Cattle, Wheat, Flour, Barley, Oats, Pork, &c., for which I will give a price that will guarantee satisfaction.
