We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN KAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road bed has een put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel ralls.

The Depot in Chicago is central ly located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers an always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore d Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Boutes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, o East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets the Old the Old Pioneer Route-
