

MINING, BUSINESS AND STOCKS.

STAR MILL GETTING SOME FAIR RESULTS

Some Active Work is Beginning in the Old District of Cherry Creek, Nevada.

Although little has been heard of the mining operations at Cherry Creek, Nevada, there is considerable activity in the district and some excellent results are being obtained.

The mill at the Star property is declared to be now able to handle 120 tons of ore a day, but as yet the expanding process has not made the return expected.

At the Star property the company has about 60 men at work and a large quantity of ore is being taken out. The high grade ore which is being shipped runs from $75 to $80 a ton.

The Colorado property was recently examined in the interests of capitalists and the report is said to have been favorable.

A good sized force of men is at work on the Nevada Mother Lode property. A contract has just been let for the extension of the tunnel for another 100 feet.

Manager Hyde of the Blacut Mining company was recently in the district and has started work on the crosscut tunnel. A contract has been awarded for the driving of the tunnel 100 feet.

But one lease is at work at the old North Mountain property. This mine was worked more than 20 years ago and since then the lower workings have been allowed to cave.

J. W. Walker has recently purchased the Bad Ax and the Pick and Gled claim near the North Mountain property.

BROKERS FOUND IRON BLOSSOM

Prices Are Low After Busy Session of Exchange.

The local market was more active today than in several days. Iron blossom was the lowest. Nearly every stock on the board came in for a prodding by the bear raiders.

The stock regained some of its lost ground and was up to $1 1/4 at the close. During the morning session 15,000 shares were sold.

The total number of shares disposed of on the exchange was 59,824, with the amount represented was $29,385.58.

On the curb market Utah Trust Hill sold for 5 cents.

WINZE STILL IN ORE

Iron Blossom Property Opening Plenty of Ore.

Provo Sept. 14.—The south shaft of the Iron Blossom is being pushed below the 1,200 foot level.

The shaft is now in a change of rock, which is looked upon as very favorable to ore.

From the 500 level there have been haulages of copper ore of all which is considered encouraging for the opening of ore bodies of greater extent.

In the north shaft a winze is being sunk, and has already passed through 50 feet of good ore.
