

SOCIAL CHAT

One of the most elaborate affairs of the week was the reception tendered Mrs. A. D. Melvin and Mrs. C. H. Drink at the home of Mrs. and Miss Hobbs on Wednesday prior to the departure of the ladies to make their homes elsewhere. The rooms were artistically decorated with different colors in each room, with flowers carrying out the scheme in each. Mrs. Melvin added to the pleasure of the afternoon with several vocal selections, and assisting in entertaining were Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. Beatty, Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Hosmer and Mrs. Andrew, Miss Eleanor Stewart, Marie Derge, Fannie Bredson, Maudie Sappington, Miss Edythe Hale and Miss Mae Crane.

Mrs. T. W. Jennings gave a pretty children's party on Thursday for the little daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Bryant Wells.

Miss Nellie Cullen was guest of honor at a linen shower party on Thursday given by Mrs. George Sutherland. During the afternoon stereoscopic views were shown of a number of interesting scenes photographed by Mr. Charles Johnson during his travels in Europe, and the Holy Land. The prospective bride received many dainty gifts.

The Jewish Woman's Relief society gave a charity card party this week at the B. B. rooms, and prizes in the game were won by Mrs. Benjamin Davis, Mrs. William Wolff and Mrs. E. Kahn.

On Wednesday Mrs. H. S. Cutler and Mrs. E. A. Lamborne entertained at a pleasant afternoon function, about 50 guests being present. The decorations were in white and violet, these colors being effectively used throughout. Music and guessing games were among the enjoyable features, the prizes in the latter being won by Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., Mrs. W. D. Ritter, Mrs. O. C. Beebe and Miss Ida Savage. Beautiful musical selections were rendered by Miss Berkhoel.

Mrs. Percy O. Perkins entertained this afternoon in honor of Mrs. J. G. Sawyer.

On Wednesday Mrs. S. V. Ham was hostess at an enjoyable euchre party given in honor of her mother, Mrs. Hinchman. The rooms were decorated with spring flowers and in the card contest prizes were won by Mrs. Lane and Mrs. Barnes of the Fort. The guests were Mrs. Miller, Miss Dunster, Mrs. Buckingham, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. T. W. Jennings, Mrs. Shepherd, Mrs. H. D. Niles, of the city, and from the Garrison were Mrs. Sloan, Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Corey, Mrs. Easton, Mrs. Haskell, Mrs. Rowland, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Brockman, Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Lane.

Mrs. C. Ira Tuttle entertained a few friends at bridge Wednesday afternoon.

The first ball of the Concordia club will be given at Unity hall on April 6.

Mrs. Vanland, Mrs. Alma Katz and Mrs. Wells of Idaho were the recipients of pleasant social attentions during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Judson entertained informally at whist on Thursday night, eight tables being played.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Officer entertained at a pleasant evening party on Monday.

Mrs. C. S. Burton entertained the Sewing club at her home yesterday.

Miss Ruth Slade was hostess at an informal evening party at her home on Thursday night.

On Monday the musical for the benefit of the University gymnasium fund will be given at the home of Mrs. W. W. Juler, and the affair promises to be a successful one in every way.

Miss Louise Lambson entertained the Sewing club at her home yesterday.

Miss Edith Hale will entertain next Tuesday in honor of Miss Cullen.

Mrs. Gertrude Mayer was hostess at a linen shower party on Wednesday afternoon.

noon given in honor of Miss Darlene Buckingham, whose marriage takes place in the near future. The rooms were prettily decorated, and the afternoon was spent with music and sewing.

Mrs. M. H. Kriebel entertained informally at bridge on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. A. B. Thompson of Portland.

On Tuesday evening a number of the friends of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Melvin called unexpectedly at the Melvin home and spent a delightful evening with music and other social cheer.

Last night the Freshmen of the University gave a most enjoyable dancing party in the Museum building, the affair being in every way successful.

On Tuesday Miss Rena Redman celebrated her birthday anniversary in a pretty dinner party at her home, the decorations being in red, with American Beauty roses as a centerpiece. The place cards were hand-painted in water colors, and covers were laid for 18.

Miss June Blinz entertained at a pleasant affair on Tuesday, in honor of Miss Nellie Cullen, the nature of a plate shower, the prospective bride receiving from each guest a dainty piece of china. The rooms were effectively decorated, and there was a guessing game of hearts, in which prizes were won by Miss Cullen and Miss Jean Odell, while a special prize was also awarded the guest of honor. The tallies and refreshments carried out the heart idea, and 30 guests enjoyed the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blyth, Jr., gave a box party at the theater on Monday night, and afterward entertained their party at supper at the Emery-Holmes cafe their guests being Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Keith, Miss Laura Clark and C. B. Blyth.

On Monday Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux entertained informally at cards.

Mrs. William Bartling and Mrs. C. O. Whitmore entertained the 500 Card club at the home of the former yesterday afternoon.

Miss Mary Louise Anderson entertained at tea yesterday in honor of Mrs. W. W. Juler. The rooms were bright with vines and flowers, and a number of the intimate friends of the hostess and guest of honor assisted in entertaining. The affair was a delightful one.

The You and I Crystal club and a number of their friends effected a surprise on Mr. E. G. Holding at his home on Wednesday evening, arriving unexpectedly and spending a pleasant time at games, vocal and instrumental music, and other social pastimes. Partners were chosen by drawing silk bows to correspond with those worn by the ladies. The following carried off the honors of the evening: Mrs. Goldie Oliver, Mrs. Thomas Timms, Mr. Leonard Taylor and Mr. I. Harvey. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Timms, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Branch, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gutter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Timms, Mr. and Mrs. George Morris, Mr. and Mrs. G. Gutter, Miss Clara Poulter of Ogden, Miss Ruth Holding and Mr. Leonard Taylor.

COMING AND GOING

Miss Mary Olive Gray, who has been spending the winter in Berlin, sailed recently for home and will arrive in New York within a short time.

Miss Edna Donahoe left yesterday on an extended eastern and southern trip.

Prof. J. P. Meakin and family have moved to 234 L street.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Schuler left Monday for a short stay in New York.

Miss Jean Melvin, of Boxman, Mont., will return to her home early next week, after spending some time with Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Melvin.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthon Lund of Provo are spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. W. H. Dickson left Tuesday for San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shannon have moved into their new home at 522 Second street.

Miss Mary Adams of Ogden is in the city spending a week with Miss Gertrude Mayer.

J. M. Wilson of McClain's Bar, Ill., is visiting his brother, W. B. Wilson, of 445 West Second South street.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Folsom, Miss Edith Shearman and Miss Blanche Kimball will sail for home April 1, after a stay of several months in Europe.

Mrs. Louis Cohn and the Misses Edna and Sylvia Cohn have returned from a stay of several weeks in New York.

Senator C. D. Clark of Wyoming has arrived in the city and will remain for a short time.

Among the Ogden people who came down for the opera Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Gilson and William Allison.

Gen. and Mrs. Greenleaf A. Goodale, who have been guests for a few days of Col. and Mrs. B. C. Lockwood at Fort Douglas, left Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Alma D. Katz returned to Boise Thursday evening.

Mrs. C. E. Wantland will return to Denver today.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weir will pass the next two months in New Orleans.

Mrs. James Shields of Park City is

Mrs. Ella Rawls Reader.

WOMAN DIPLOMAT.

From all the excitement of the San Domingo affair there has risen the figure of a woman whose story, if true, reads like a romance. She can and does claim to be a diplomat of most wonderful accomplishments, and she says the only defeat she has ever incurred was in the Dominican affair and she blames the Washington government for this. Her name is Ella Rawls Reader.

in town visiting her mother, Mrs. C. W. Watson.

Mrs. Milton L. Allen will pass the summer on the beach near Los Angeles.

Miss Hazel Taylor of Provo is visiting friends in the city for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Reed have returned from Florida.

Mrs. W. L. Pickard, Jr., has gone east for a short visit.

Mrs. I. C. Gloss has returned from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newell, who have been in California have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew H. Walker have returned from a pleasant trip through the more interesting parts of California.

Miss Helen Boyer of Springfield is in the city for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dunn entertained at a dinner party on Monday evening. The table decorations were violet and Easter lilies. A center piece, effectively arranged in beautiful clusters, drooping over the edge of a large flower bowl, after dinner enjoyed games and music.

The class of 1905 entertained on Wednesday evening in gymnasium hall. Music, games, dancing and luncheon were the evening's pleasures. About fifty guests were present.

Words recently received from Mr. and Mrs. Bursch states that they are touring Italy, and were delighted with their visit in Rome.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Harries of Park City are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dunn.

The members of the Odd Fellows' lodge arranged a successful surprise party on Monday evening. With well filled luncheon baskets they silently stole in the home, and with the assistance of Mrs. Farrer managed to make the affair a pleasant and complete surprise. Cards, games, dancing and music were among the many pleasures of the evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Homer, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Newell Knight, Mrs. Breton, Mrs. McBride, Mrs. Kitty Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Bott, Mr. and Mrs. Peay, and Mr. and Mrs. Evans.

The Sorosis club met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Slater. Current literature was given by Mrs. Evans, and Mrs. Slater gave a report of the opera. They returned home expressing much pleasure in the renditions.

Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald and children returned home this week from an eastern pleasure trip.

The officers and members of company B of the National Guard were entertained Tuesday evening at the home of their captain, W. E. Kness. There were present about thirty gentlemen and ladies, who spent a very enjoyable evening at cards, music and games, after which dainty refreshments were served. The company was only recently organized, but it is a jovial crowd of young men.

The Knights of Pythias gave a social Monday evening at their hall for the ladies, which was attended by about 300 guests. Progressive high five was the number of the game. Handsome prizes were won by Mrs. M. B. Gilbourn and George C. Reberg, first prizes; Mrs. W. H. Hanson and Nels Christensen, the consolation. Those who did not desire to play cards tripped the light fantastic until long past midnight, to sweet strains of music furnished by Short's enlarged orchestra. The halls were prettily decorated for the evening with evergreen drapings and the national colors.

The Woodmen of the World have arranged to give a grand reception and ball next Friday evening at Tule's Dancing academy. The funds raised will be used to help defray the expenses of the Degree team and members who Miss Agatha Berkhoel, who was the vocalist at the A. C. military band concert last Monday evening, was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. G. W. Thatcher.

A very interesting meeting of the A. C. Woman's club was held at the home of Mrs. W. S. Langton last Monday afternoon.

The presidency and all the presiding Bishops and their counselors of Cache stake, together with their wives, were entertained at dinner at the B. Y. college last Tuesday afternoon. It was a very enjoyable affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Hayball have returned home after having spent several months in California.

Bishop and Mrs. W. B. Preston, who spent several days in Logan visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Preston, Jr., returned to Salt Lake last Sunday morning.

Mr. Lyman Marinneau returned to Salt Lake the first of the week, after a business trip to Logan.

Mr. E. R. Needham, a former Loganite, is in town this week on business.

Miss Lillie Kent has gone to Ogden Hot Springs to remain some time for the benefit of her health.

It is rumored that Dr. Denike will go to Salt Lake to reside. His Logan friends will regret this very much.

President Kerr was in Salt Lake this week on college business.

PROVO.

President and Mrs. George H. Brimhall have returned from a four weeks' pleasure trip through California.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farrer entertained on Sunday evening at a dinner party. Covers were laid for eight. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Barney, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Howe.

The commercial department of the B. Y. university entertained on Thursday evening at a dancing party, in gymnasium hall. The decorations were the class colors in white, blue and gold tissue paper, with sufficient commercial currency to supply the demand of all present. Refreshments were served. A prettily draped canopy was arranged in one corner of the dancing hall, under which stood Miss Hattie Keeler serving punch to the many merry dancers.

Mrs. Jessie Knight and daughter Jennie returned last Monday, from California, where they have been resting for the past two months.

Miss Agnes Goates and Miss Rose Peterson of Lehi were the guests on Monday of Misses Dulcie Webb and Lulu Darton.

Mrs. Winters, mother of Mr. Winters of the Plant, is visiting in Provo. Mrs. Winters is from Mississippi, and expects to spend the spring and summer in Utah.

Miss Grace Groves of Grand Junction is visiting Provo friends, the guest of Miss Zella Farrer.

The Happy Hour club were the guests on Tuesday evening of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Twelvetaple. Cards furnished the evening's pleasure, "let" being the game chosen, the first prizes going to Mr. Openshaw and Mrs. Celestia Strong. Mrs. Billie Wilson and Mr. Will Twelvetaple, the consolation. Refreshments and music were pleasant features of the evening's entertainment. Beside the club members the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. John R. Twelvetaple, Miss Lena and Beniah Bachman, Mr. and Mrs. Will Twelvetaple, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore, Mrs. Hague and Mr. Hague of Nephi, Mr. and Mrs. Markman, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Farrer, Miss Celestia Strong and Miss Teenie Jones.

Mr. Shadrack Jones, assisted by the Fifth ward amusement committee, gave an excellent entertainment in the Fifth ward meetinghouse Friday evening. After a well prepared program, a banquet was served, during which time toasts and music were enjoyed.

Mrs. Jessie Knight and children will leave next week for California, where they expect to remain until summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam King spent Wednesday and Thursday in Salt Lake City.

Mr. John Russon of Lehi was in Provo on Wednesday. He spent a few hours with his many friends here and left on the evening train for Chicago, where he expects to fulfill a two years' mission.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holliday were the recipients of a surprise party, given at their home by a number of friends on Wednesday evening. Luncheon, games and music made the evening's pleasures merry ones.

A successful entertainment was given in the Second ward amusement hall on Thursday evening for the benefit of the Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dunn entertained at a dinner party on Monday evening. The table decorations were violet and Easter lilies. A center piece, effectively arranged in beautiful clusters, drooping over the edge of a large flower bowl, after dinner enjoyed games and music.

The Card club was entertained on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Searle. The decorations were the spring flowers. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. Will Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Speckart, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam King.

Mr. and Mrs. James Clyde of Heber spent Sunday in Provo, visiting their daughter Nellie.

The class of 1905 entertained on Wednesday evening in gymnasium hall. Music, games, dancing and luncheon were the evening's pleasures. About fifty guests were present.

Words recently received from Mr. and Mrs. Bursch states that they are touring Italy, and were delighted with their visit in Rome.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Harries of Park City are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dunn.

The members of the Odd Fellows' lodge arranged a successful surprise party on Monday evening. With well filled luncheon baskets they silently stole in the home, and with the assistance of Mrs. Farrer managed to make the affair a pleasant and complete surprise. Cards, games, dancing and music were among the many pleasures of the evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Homer, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Newell Knight, Mrs. Breton, Mrs. McBride, Mrs. Kitty Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Bott, Mr. and Mrs. Peay, and Mr. and Mrs. Evans.

The Sorosis club met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Slater. Current literature was given by Mrs. Evans, and Mrs. Slater gave a report of the past week's news. Mr. Goodwin will meet with the club next week, and lecture on "The Birds of Utah."

NOTHING MORE USEFUL OR BEAUTIFUL THAN THE LITTLE SILK WRAP.

Mrs. D. T. Clark and daughter, Mrs. Sutton, are spending a few days in Salt Lake City.

The members of the Relief society of the Sixth ward arranged a successful surprise party on Mrs. Electa Bullock at the home of Mrs. Beesley, on Monday evening. During the evening there were many expressions of love and appreciation for the energetic work done in the organization by the guest of honor. Games and music made the evening a happy one.

On Wednesday evening the gentlemen members of the Maccabee lodge invited their lady friends and a number of guests to a banquet and social given in the lodge rooms. The hall and table decorations were red, white and blue. Following the banquet games, cards, music, and dancing were arranged for the pleasure of the large party of guests.

The Nineteenth Century club met with Mrs. O. C. Newell yesterday afternoon. The time was devoted to the elections of officers.

Mrs. Donovan was hostess at a dinner party on Friday afternoon. The table was prettily decorated with carnations. Covers were laid for six.

Mrs. Erchenbruck gave a children's party Thursday afternoon in honor of her little daughter Arvilla. Many presents were arranged to make the afternoon a happy one.

An April fool social was given in the Fourth ward amusement hall on Friday evening that furnished no end of merriment for those present. A short program was given the fore part of the evening, which presented several surprises to the audience. Luncheon and a social hand shake completed the evening's pleasures.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roberts, Prof. and Mrs. Lund, Miss Hazel Taylor and Mrs. Ida Smoot Dusenberry were Salt Lake City visitors during the past week.

Monday evening a large number of Mrs. Electa Bullock's many friends gave a Kensington in her honor at the home of her niece, Mrs. W. O. Beesley. The gathering was a perfect surprise on the guest of honor, and highly appreciated. Delicious refreshments were served and a delightful social evening was passed.

The 75th anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Mary J. Harding was appropriately celebrated Monday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph S. Park. A large number of Mrs. Harding's children and other relatives and friends were present, vying with one another in congratulations and good wishes for the future health and happiness of the venerable lady. A fine supper was enjoyed by the guests.

BRIGHTON CITY.

The M. I. associations of Brighton close their season's work this week. Monday evening the First and Second wards gave a splendid program at the opera house. It was enjoyed by all present.

Tuesday evening the Third and Fourth wards joined hands in a closing program that was very original and entertaining.

The Mutuals are to be congratulated on the success of their work. Also the deep interest manifest in their gathering.

About one hundred from our city were in attendance at the S. S. convention at Ogden last Saturday.

Mr. Jack and Will Evans were Ogden visitors last week.

Miss Eliza Hansen was spending a few days in Ogden last week.

At the academy of music and dancing last Saturday a great crowd of spectators were delightfully entertained at a dancing matinee, under the auspices of Prof. Chris Christensen's dancing class. The affair was very pleasing. The little girls looking very charming and sweet especially. Besides dancing two special features were introduced, a little girl's skirt dance, and a mixed dance for boys and girls, called a Sailor's Hornpipe. All who enjoyed the matinee pronounced it a decided success.

Miss Estelle Jensen spent a day in Ogden last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lysle Eddy were Ogden visitors Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Clem Horsley took a business trip to Salt Lake Friday.

EUREKA.

The Eureka Home Dramatic club is rehearsing a play to be produced about the 15th of next month.

Mrs. William C. Andrews returned to her home at Nephi Sunday, after a month's sojourn in Eureka.

Mr. and Mrs. George Moore, old residents of Eureka have purchased a home at Salt Lake City and will leave for that city next week.

Mrs. Pat Bonner is visiting Salt Lake friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Goody returned to Salt Lake Wednesday after a few weeks' stay in Eureka.

Miss Annie Clark left this week for Park City on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Daniel McPolin.

Mrs. John Hurd is visiting friends at the capital city.

Mrs. T. A. Thurmood, who has been visiting relatives at this place, returned to her home at Provo this week.

Mrs. J. H. Chinn of Silver City was the guest of Mrs. Ernest Roys this week.

Mrs. John T. Sullivan of Robinson visited Eureka friends Tuesday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Russell, who has been visiting her son, D. J. Russell and family, returned to Salt Lake Wednesday.

The Eureka band will run an excursion to American-Fork on April 17 and give a dance at the Apollo pavilion at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stevenson will leave for Provo on Monday next to make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Berryman are spending their honeymoon at Spring Lake.

The Misses Annie and Mary Larsen of Provo, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Larsen, returned to their home Wednesday.

David Mills and Miss Edna Dennis, two popular young people of this city, the announcement of whose wedding appeared in the Desert News last Saturday, were married at Salt Lake

Constipation and many other infantile disorders are the results of improper feeding. Give your baby Mellin's Food and see how quickly infantile troubles disappear. Send for our book "The Care and Feeding of Infants" and we will send it with a sample of Mellin's Food free of charge.

Mellin's Food is the ONLY Infant Food which received the Grand Prize, the highest award of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, St. Louis, 1904. Higher than a gold medal.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

MARGARET CARNEGIE

LITTLE CARNEGIE HEIRESS.

More than usual interest attaches to the little heiress to the vast fortune of Andrew Carnegie for the reason that Mr. Carnegie has made it known that he intends to die poor, though he has not so far given away much more than his income, admitting that his gifts have been princely. Margaret Carnegie is a very ordinary little girl, who has yet no conception of what it means to be the only child of one of the world's richest men.

The performance given this week in Salt Lake City by the Savage Grand Opera company attracted a large number of Ogden's music lovers to the