AT HOME.

JANUARY 9, 1904.

"The world is a looking-glass, and gives back to every man the reflection of his own face. Frown at it and it will turn and look sourly upon you. Laugh at it and with it, and it is a jolly, kind companion."—Thackery.

LEAP YEAR.

A Sermonette.

It's here again—and the Bachelor Maids throughout the land will have to stand in line with hunched shoulders and braced back-bones for the quadsennial mots that will hurled at them in multfarious ways, upon the supposed occasion of the gates of privilege being opened to them in matters of courtship and matrimony. There will be the car-toon, with it thin-haired spinster float-disconsolately in her little of disappointment, amidst a debris of pickled hopes, and red pepper-pods of chagrin, clutching desperately at this spar thrown to her in the shape of the leap-year, and splashing frantically towards a remote shore of matrimony, represented with perpetually waving palm-fronds of peace, and perrenially blooming flowers of pink bliss and cream-colored contentment; there will e poetry, parody and paragraph, all depicting jocosely the morose frame of mind of the Bachelor Maid concerning her forlorn condition, and her side-splitgree of latitude to personal effort ad libitum.

dity in pouncing upon any de-

when

He-Was." And there is a vast army of him-raw, and incredibly incapable volunteers, who, guaged by the Bachelor Maid's rules of measurement, per-haps, would be flouted from the ranks of her true Company of Eligibles at a single glance. But you could never convince his kind of this truth withcut a real gun-play; heavy Howitzers and stinging Mausers of experience alone might pierce the tough epidermis of his conceit. You will know him by the smug little smirk that shows itself fitfully and unconsciously on his highly reflective cheek, at any chance or un-conscious act of frank comradeship on the part of the luckless "B. M." Such, to his distorted vision, is but the insidious advance against his bachelor-widower-or any other hood he may be wearing. Illusory to him as a whiff of gossamer, the thought that remote as the last star in space might be his chances, were his own mightlest effort to bring to her feet delectable slices of the world's kingdoms to lay as baits to matrimonial ties. Tut! Fables for babes! The Bachelor Maid inhabit her realm of comparative freedom and care-freesomness, from personal choice! Hoot! Amusing as a Munchausen tale this-and quite as fabulous! There is the legend of the acid grapes, you know-and so on, ad libitum.

So he nurses his smug convictions, and smile, and passes with his head poised in self-generated clouds of conceit, while the Bachelor Maid goes on her way, with an appreciative eye for the smirk-you may be sure-and an amused and wondering one for the sparks from the dark little glim of out-worn tradi-tion buzzing along her way.

And as she giances at the colors of sunset or dawn tinting in ravishing hues the sky and mountain rising above and beyond the heads of the Thinks-He-Was, might there not be an unconscious thrill of joy at herheart that there is in their tints no underlying suggestion of the cloud, shad. derlying suggestion of the cloud- shadows haunting her homeward steps that might have awaited them, had the dream of the Thinks-He-Was been true, and he had been masterfully "in-yeigled" into those meshes which it is his seemingly fatuous conviction contain no traps save for his own feet.

Leap year? Is it really, then, considering the number of question marks that might apply to the eligibility, of the Thinks-He-Was-Or-Could-Be, and the imaginative lines thrown into the drawing of the matrimonial land as to its perpetual peace—palms, pink bliss, etc.,—quite up to the Bachelor Maid to matrimonial directions, Then, when orous hyperbole is over, the world will settle down again to nursing its archaic quips for the next time, and will chuckle in its big sleeve at the deluge it has let loose on the host of unfortun-The most notable event in social cireles of the week was the assembly ball on Friday night, the affair being the first of a series of four to be given be-fore Lent. Christensen's hall was beauates coming under the high water mark For, boast as it may, of its increastifully lit and decorated for the occa-tion, the electric globes being snad d in ing trend of respect and admira-tion for the Bachelor Maid, walking pink and the platform and entrance to serenely her independent paths of perthe reception rooms being banked with palms, while palms separated a space sonal ideal, working out her own practical salvation along lines voluntarily in front of the musicians' stand into a chosen—and cherished upon self-suf-ficing principles—yet, deep in the heart of the multitude is snuggled a little parior made cosy with rugs, divans and drapes. In the northwest corner was dark lantern of prejudice, burning a steady flame of suspicion at her indeanother attractive nook, and a puach table stood on the opposite side. Yelfeysm and ridicule along her way, in an incendiary effort to make what little foothold she possesses as warm as possible, to her tread. mums, and from the chandelier were hung loops of yellow ribbon entwined with plumosa. Extending from the chandelier were streamers of yel w And bless you! it's not the sterner sex alone that keeps alive this malevoribbon caught at the corners with large lent little glim! Women themselves seldom forego a vixenish little flirt of fuel to feed the flame. Is there not bows. Candlesticks with yellow shades completed the effective adornment. completed the effective adornment. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fifield, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dale, Mr. and Mrs. George Nye, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Whittemore, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Filer, R. J. Decker, C. P. Overfield and mother, E. B. Wicks, George Topliffe, Lewis Jeffs, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Howard, James W. Nell, Hugh Satteree, Will Hall, the Misses Hall, Mr. and Mrs. H. Griswold, Frank Judge, Miss Cevilla Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. oftentimes a subtle something lurking in the attitude of the average matron, and even the engaged girl, which seems to say:

Someone please say!

"Poor thing! Of course she's envying me horribly! Would have angled for George, if he'd encouraged her-gobbled him up like hot bread if he'd looked at her—lucky George to have escaped her and got me—and so on— Cecilia Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Knight, Mrs. W. W. Flagg, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. And the men! Mercy on us-the men! None of them so darkly weighted with ineligible traits, habits or circum-stances, who does not, in the understances, who does not, in the underground cells of his heart, cherish a smug conviction that he is the secret hero, and perforce longed—for victim of the Bachelor Maid's aspirations and of the Bachelor Maid's aspirations and of the Bachelor Maid's aspirations and of the Bachelor Maid's aspirations and long the Miss Coulder th

A WREATH OF BIRDS.

machinations-a never quenched or R. L. Tracy, Miss Geddes, the Misses J.

This is one of the "smart" new French sailor hats, in white felt, edged with a shirred band of white taffeta. The crown is of medium halott and edged with a wreath of little white birds, set in a nest of tulle,

DUCHESS IS RECONCILED.

The Duchess of Westminster, formerly Shelan Cornwallis West, who has just been reconciled to her husband, the duke. He recently returned from Africa and his long absence has been attributed to their estrangement. The duke's mother, the Countess Grosvenor, acted as peacemaker.

and B. McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Pearsall, J. H. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Odell, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McVichie, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Reber, George Ames, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rood, Miss Park, C. M. Garrison, Miss Dorothy Kinney, Fred Dern, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Keith, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Webber, R. Aley, J. W. Rooklidge, Ellis Freed, J. Walcott Thompson, J. Tod Goodwin, R. M. Breeden, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Mc-

W. Rooklidge, Ellis Freed, J. Walcott Thompson, J. Tod Goodwin, R. M. Breeden, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Mc-Donald, Benner X. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Maas, Wallace Bransford, Grant Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bogue, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Packard, D. H. Peery, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Shelp, Mr. and Mrs. John Weir, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. C.

Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Murray, Frank Roberts, Charles S. Morris, Miss Helen Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. George

Rust, Miss Sadler, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Caine, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Babcock, Miss Catherine Culmer, H. B. Win sor

Col. and Mrs. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Levis Evans, W. O. Leonard, Edward

Copley, J. T. Moyer, John S. Crichlow, James Hogle, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Gen-dening, F. C. Schramm, Mrs. D. C. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bamber-ger, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Officer, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. D.

B. Hempstead, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ellerbeck, G. H. Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs.

L. C. Miller, Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Franken, J. E. Cosgriff, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Channing, L. B. McCornick, H. A. McCornick, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Henderson, E. L. Thomand Mrs. H. P. Henderson, E. L. Thomand, Mrs. H. P. C. Smith, Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mrs. J.

Eloise Sherman, Miss Salisbury, Mrs. Salisbury, Miss Miller, Miss Margie Miller, Dr. and Mrs. Ewing, Fred Ja-cobs, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Fisher, R. A. McBroom, Mrs. J. S. Alexander,

Miss Catherine Judge entertained at pretty luncheon on Wednesday in oner of Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Mrs. B. Davis. The table was elaborately decorated, the centerpiece being can delabra with green shades, surrounded with poinsetta, and bunches of violets being at each place. Covers were laid

. . .

Mr. Ellis Freed was host at an infor-

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Greenwood entertained the East Side Card club at their home on Thursday night.

. . . Mrs. Agnes Osbourne will give a

A delightful reception was given at Unity hall on Thursday night in honor of Mrs. J. F. Cowan. The hall was prettily decorated, refreshments were served and a most enjoyable time spent.

Mrs. Ledyard M. Bailey and Mrs. De Camp received their friends infor-mally on Wednesday, and will continue to do so on Wednesdays during the

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edmunds entertained informally at cards on Tuesday

red. American Beauty roses and carnations being used with red-shaded can-delabra, while ferns aided in the pretty effect. At each place was a corsige boquet of flowers, and the chandeller and portieres were tied with broad red

Next Tuesday night at the Congrega-tional church, Mrs. L. C. M'ller and Miss Olive Jennings will give an organ and song recital, assisted by Miss Isa-bel Monahan and Miss Leta McMillan.

Mrs. Ferdinand Dickert entertained informally at tea on Wednesday for her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sawyer. The rooms were prettily decorated with evergreens, and the diningroom was in yellow and green, the table having for a centerpiece a low bank of yellow roses, while yellow shaded candelabra stood at each corner, and the cloth was strewn with sprays of plumosa. The guests were: Mrs. George G. Hunting, Mrs. Fred Earls, Mrs. A. B. Witcher, Mrs. Percival O. Perkins, Miss Agatha Berkhoel, Miss Beatrice O'Connor, Miss Lena Welby, Miss Elsie Dickert.

nusicale next Saturday.

FUTURE QUEEN'S FRIEND.

and Mrs. H. P. Henderson, E. L. Themas, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Woodward, Miss Judge, Miss Laura Sherman, Mrs. E. H. Dunbar, W. B. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wherry, Miss Zane, A. F. Holden, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Terry, Miss E. M. Cosgriff, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knox, Miss Violet Neil, Ashby Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Traver, Miss Floise Sherman, Miss Salishury, Mrs. Lady Eva Dugdale now occupies the same position towards the Princess of Wales as does Miss Knollys to Quee n Alexandra. Lady Eva represents the best type of the gracious, simple Engli sh gentlewoman.

Katz entertained at a Twelfth night party this week.

Mrs. Ellsworth entertained the mem bers of the card club at her home last

Mrs. George Y, Wallace gave an in-formal afternoon function on Wednes-day in honor of Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Mrs. T. B. Davis, about 20 guests enjoying the pleasant affair. A guessing game was a feature of the afternoon, and dainty souvenirs were given each

Mrs. Hoppaugh entertained the mem-bers of her card club on Wednesday.

Miss Blanche Burke entertained number of her friends informally on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Ellis Freed was host at an informal dinner on Tuesday night, the affair taking place at the Commercial club, and the party afterward attending the assembly. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Flier, Mrs. Harvey, Miss Helen Gillespie. Miss Beatrice Cheeseman, Lieutenant Madison and Jack Royle. Mrs. M. A. Sears entertained at a delightful afternoon party on Monday in honor of Miss Marie Jonasson, whose marriage to Mr. B. S. Young took place Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis entertained informally at cards on Tuesday evethis week.

The next assembly ball will be given on Tuesday, Jan. 19, at Christensen's.

A most enjoyable affair was the danc-A most enjoyable aftair was the dancing party given at Christensen's last night by the Athletic association of the High school. The chaperones were Mrs. T. R. Black, Mrs. W. F. Bintz, Mrs. W. C. Higgins and Mrs. M. F. Woolf.

Mrs. A. B. Wallace, who has been the guest of Mrs Ferdinand Dickert for several days past, has taken apartments at Third East and Brigham streets, where she will be at home to her friends.

Miss Emma Ramsay was guest of bonor at an informal dancing party on Wednesday night, given by Miss Agnes Dahlquist, about 125 guests being pres-ent. The decorations were in the national colors, and among the pleasant incidental features of the evening was a musicale program rendered by Arthur Mrs. Windsor V. Rice gave the sec-ond in her series of luncheons on Tues. day, and the function was followed by cards, the amusement being "63." The luncheon tables were decorated in deep Pedersen, accompanied by his father, Prof. Anton Pedersen; Millie Williams, and Mr. Margetts. Punch was served during the evening from a prettily arranged corner and supper was served.
The affair was a delightful one and thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Tonight at the Clayton Music store he next in the series of informal musicales will be given, the program to be rendered by Miss Mary Olive Gray and Miss Esther Allen. The following numbers will be given:

Suite from Ries," "Adagio mon trette," "Gondellere," "Perpetuam no dile," Miss Esther Allen: "Andante from Bethoven's Sonata Opus 2/ No. 1 Etincelles," Mosykowski, "Cradl Song," Barilli, Miss Mary Olive Gray, "Romance," Szendsen; Miss Esther Allen. "Arietti di Dallatto," Joseffy; "Liedstraume," Liszt; Miss Mary Olive Gray, "Mazurka," Borowski; Miss Al-

. . . Miss Jane Mackintosh was guest of honor yesterday at a tea given by Mrs. William Reld.

Judge and Mrs. Howat and Miss Jane Howat entertained a number of their friends informally at their home on friends into the Thursday night.

pleasant informal reception at her home on Thursday night, in honor of Miss Maud Reese Davis, her sister, who left yesterday for Los Angeles. A delight-ful musical program was rendered by Mrs. Agnes Osbourne, Miss Davis and Mr. Scott.

Mrs. J. S. Richards entertained at a delightful luncheon yesterday.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Caledonian club will give a Burns' party on the evening of Jan. 25 at Harmonie hall.

Miss Eva Snow will entertain the members of the J. J. club at her home on Friday evening, Jan. 15.

The Bachelor Maids club of the University gave a leap-year party in the Museum building last night, and thor-Museum building last night, and thoroughly enjoyed themselves in their reversed roles of escorts and partners. The leap year idea was carried out in all respects, and the girls, at least, were highly satisfied with the affair. The chaperones were Mfs. J. T. Kingsbury, Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. Harvey Holmes, Mrs. Byron Cummings and Mrs. G. M. Marshall.

Mrs. W. W. Flagg will entertain next week in honor of Mrs. W. M. Harvey of Seattle, who is visiting Mrs. Walter G.

Mrs. W. L. McCloud gave an infor-mal reception on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Donald Rose of Chicago, about 50 guests being present. The rooms were tastefully decorated, and the hos-tess was assisted by Mrs. McQualg.

Harry Roberts entertained a few friends informally on Thursday night. Mrs. S. B. Tuttle entertained informally at her home yesterday.

the Card club at her home last night. Mrs. John W. Pike and Miss Pike will be at home Mondays during the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett entertained

Mrs. Berlin of San Francisco is spending the winter with Mrs. J. R. Walker. Mrs. J. R. Walker entertained the Luncheon club at her home on Thurs-

Next Thursday the Alta club reception will take place, and it is expected that the affair will be a notable one in all respects.

The musical recital given by Miss Gratia Flanders on Thursday night was a delightful affair, four of her advanc-ed pupils, Mrs. Christy, Miss Geneive Ellerbeck, Miss Pearl Rothschild and her sister, Mrs. W. W. Flagg, and Mrs. David S. Murray. Mrs. Henry La Motte and son Exton have gone to Philadelphia to join Dr. La Motte.

by Prof. Robinson of American Fork. Four little flower girls came first, Jose-phine Thomas, Kate Nelson, Annic Walsh and Wilma Nelson. They were dressed in yellow chiffon and held long streamers of yellow satin ribbon which formed an aisle for the rest. Bishop chine. Mrs. Sloan was also in white, and like the bride and maids, carried a bouquet of roses. Assisting in re-ceiving the guests were Mrs. Ann H. Brown, Mrs. William Johnson of Denson and Mrs. Robertson, while Mrs. Fred Kirby and Mrs. H. A. Nelson presided in the dining-room. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will be at home to their friends after a brief trip, at 411 south West Temple street.

A quiet wedding was that of Miss Ethel Taylor and Mr. F. C. Reeves on Wednesday, the ceremony being performed in the afternoon, and a reception being held in the evening at the groom's home. They have many friends who will extend good wishes.

Another quiet wedding of the week was that of Miss Marie Jonasson and Mr. B. S. Young, which also took place

OMING TO S

Mrs. Martha Groo of Montpelier has been spending the past week with her sister Mrs. E. S. Wright. She will leave for her home tomorrow.

Mrs. Walter Miles Harvey of Tacoma will spend some time with Mrs. Walter

G. Filer, Mrs. Harvey was formerly Miss Edna Remington.

Miss Edythe Hale and Miss Bessie Officer left this week for Stanford where they will continue their studies.

for an extended visit with friends in

Mrs. Jack Jevne of Los Angeles is here to spend the next few months with the east.

Mrs. A. J. Hosmer left Wednesday

West Temple street.

Capt. and Mrs. H. D. Styer, who have spent the holiday season with relatives, left this week for Logan.

Miss Cora Snyder is at home with Mrs. and Miss Pike during the absence of her parents in the east. Mr. and Mrs. George Phelps Holman left yesterday for California, where they will spend the remainder of the Mrs. James A. Miner left Wednesday for a visit of some weeks on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry S. Heath have gone to Washington and will be at home at the New Willard hotel indefi-

Mrs. J. F. George of San Francisco, formarly of Salt Lake, has been spending the past few days in the city.

Mrs. William H. Cunningham and baby left for California this week to remain several weeks,

Mrs. H. D. Gue will arrive today from New York to be the guest of her sister, Miss Shearman and Mrs. Al-ma D. Katz, at the home of Miss Shearman. After spending a time here Mrs. Gue will go to Boise with her sister, Mrs. Katz, to be her guest for some time. Mrs. Harris, Miss Theodosia Harris, and Mrs. Adele Reimers leave today for Los Angeles to make their home. Andrew Howat, who spent the holi-

TO RETURN HOME.

Teor H. CLAY EVANOS

Mrs. Henry Clay Evans, since her advent in London, has made her home on Queen's Gate terrace, London, such a scene of hospitalities to Americans that her health has given way and she is returning to America to recuperate.

Miss Watson taking part in the piano program and Mrs. Martha Royle King Andrew Howat, has returned to Goldassisting with vocal numbers.

Andrew Howat, has returned to Golden, to resume his studies at the State School of Mines of Colorado.

School of Mines of Colorado. The Christensen soiree of last Wed-Harold Fabian has gone back to Yale to resume his studies, after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and nesday evening was well attended and was very enjoyable. Now that the hol-idays are over a good attendance of those who enjoy an informal affair is An exceedingly pretty affair of the week was the wedding of Miss Lou Thomas and Mr. Herbert Robinson on Thursday night. The rooms were handsomely decorated the parlor having a canopy of ferns and flowers under which the bridal party stood, palms forming an effective background. Yellow and white were used in the dining room, the table having a centerpiece of crysanthemums, while ribbon streamers extended from the chandelter to the corners of the table flanked by candelabra with yellow and white shades. The hall was entirely in green, and an orchetra was stationed behind a screen of evergreens. The ceremony was per-

Mrs. C. Ira Tuttle has returned from an eastern trip.

Mrs. Ferdinand Fabian.

Walter Evans left Tuesday for Palo Alto, to resume his studies at Stanford university.

Miss Burns of Bingham was a Salt Lake visitor this week.

Mrs. William Gibson Sharp and Mrs. Thomas B. Davis leave today for their home in New York.

Mrs. George Y. Wallace left this week for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Tuttle, of St. Louis.

Will Davis leaves Sunday morning for Berkeley, to resume his studies at the University of California.

Miss Pearl Van Cott has returned to Wellesley college, after spending the holidays with her parents in this city.

visit with her sister, Mrs. D. C. Rob. erts of this city.

Mrs. Ada Luli Gray is spending a few weeks at Palo Alto, the guest of Miss Mabel Baum.

Emery and the best man, Waiter Rob-inson came next, followed by Mrs. C. Miss Ida Jaensch left for Frement Neb., during the past week to spend the remainder of the winter visiting C. Sloan, the matron of honor, and af-terward the two bridesmaids, Edna with relatives. Thomas and Myrtle Robinson followed by the bride on the arm of her uncle, C. C. Sloan. The bride was gowned in a handsome costume of white voile, with trimmings of Irish point lace, and wore a long veil of tulle. Miss Thomas and Miss Robinson were gowned respectively in white and yellow crepe de white. Mrs. Sloan was also it white

Gov. and Mrs. Wells will leave to-day for Portland. Ore., where they will spend the next week. Mark McChrystal left this week to resume his studies at Stanford uni-

Emmett Moore left on Tuesday to resume his studies at Stanford univer-

The Misses Nell and Drusilla Fenne-more have gone to San Diego, where they will spend the remainder of the

. . . . Miss Louise Grace Emery has reached home after an absence of a year and a half in Europe. She was accompanied by Mr. J. S. Bransford, who met her in New York.

Miss Beulah Bachman of Provo has been spending a few days in the city with friends.

Miss Beatrice Cheeseman has returned to St. Louis, where she will resume her studies.

Miss Ramsey returned today from Provo, where she has been spending a few days, and tomorrow will leave for Bolse to resume her musical tour,

Mrs. A. J. McMullen and sister, Miss Yates, have returned from Dodgeville,

Mrs. A. C. Busath returned last Sunday from an extended visit in Provo.

OGDEN.

Prof. Joseph Ballantyne, Ogden's popular professor of music, was the guest of honor at a delightful surprise party given Monday evening at the home of Dr. F. W. Baker of Jefferson avenue, by br. F. W. Baker of Jenerson avenue, by his pupils. There were present about 60 of the professor's pupils besides a-number of other friends. Mr. Bailan-tyne had been invited to spend the evening at the Baker home, but was roll aware of what was in store for him. not aware of what was in store for him, and was greatly surprised as he en-tered the sittingroom, where his pupils greeted him in beautiful song. A choice program of songs, recitations and speechmaking made up the eve-ning's pleasures. Mrs. Lily Pye Brad-ford in behalf of the pupils presented Mr. Ballantyne with a handsome music cabinet. Mr. Ballantyne responded very feelingly, expressing his appreciation of the honor bestowed upon him. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Herrick returned home this week from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Logan.

Tuesday evening in the Fourth Ward hall a weil attended ball was given in honor of Herman Westbroek, who departs on a mission to the Netherlands right away.

Henry Bell and Miss Annie von Lunburg, two popular young people of the city, were married at Salt Lake this week.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will give a social on the evening of Jan. 20 to their wives and sweethearts. Cards, music and refreshments will be the evening's pleasure,

The Child Culture club met yester afternoon with Mrs. Charles Wright very interesting program was renu-

Next Friday evening the Ogden High school alumni will give a social at the school building, an excellent program o music, toasts, etc., will be rendered. The young ladies will serve refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Lamoreaux and daughter Grace have gone to Minneapo. is, where the parents will celebrate their golden wedding.

Miss Nettie Raleigh returned to her home in Salt Lake Monday, after a pleasant visit with friends in Ogden.

Nathaniel R. Montgomery and Miss Isabell Etherington, two popular young people of Weber county, were married this week.

PROVO.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Spafford enter-tained at dinner on Sunday.

Misses Sara Rhoda and Miriam Dougless were in Provo this past week.

Mrs. Will Woodhead is visiting in Heber, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Alma Smoot. . . .

Misses Kate and Effie Harvey of Pleasant Grove will spend the winter in A very enjoyable surprise party was given in honor of Miss Annie Oliver this week, The Sixth ward gave a pleasant ball at the Mozart hall on Wednesday evening. The marriage of Miss Amelia Knud-sen and Mr. H. P. Hanson took place last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Goddard celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary on Friday in a very enjoyable manner, about 100 guests were present and the evening was replete with joy, mirth and merriment.

Mr. and Mrs. George Moore gave a reception on Wednesday, on the occa-sion of the marriage of their daughter Susie to Mr. Herman Baum.

A reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stagg at the marriage of their son Charles H. Stagg to Miss Hanna Kirton of Lehi. Miss Elsie Moore gave a very enjoy-able card party at her home on Tuesday evening.

BRIGHAM CITY.

Holidays are over and izens have all settled do our citizens have all settled do the everyday affairs of life aga smallpox situation rather put a on our Christmas festivities, an pleasant gatherings were posterior pleasant gatherings were posts that account. Among the fethat account. Among the feventertainments given during it two weeks, the Nichol's minst the grand leap year ball were the most notable. The minst peared four times. Twice on mas day, the evening of the then gave a final performance day afternoon following for folks. This entertainment cosolos, quartets, fancy dancing and wing dancing, and some virills by 33 girls. There were ple in all taking part. The was conducted by Pro. E. W. who certainly deserves the praise for his untiring efforts. praise for his untiring efforts, and also

Lena Welby, Miss Eisie Dickert.

Thursday night.

Mrs. E. J. Dockery, has returned to party entering at 8 o'clock, to the strains of the Lohengrin march played her home in Boise, after a pleasant

The leap year ball was given in the