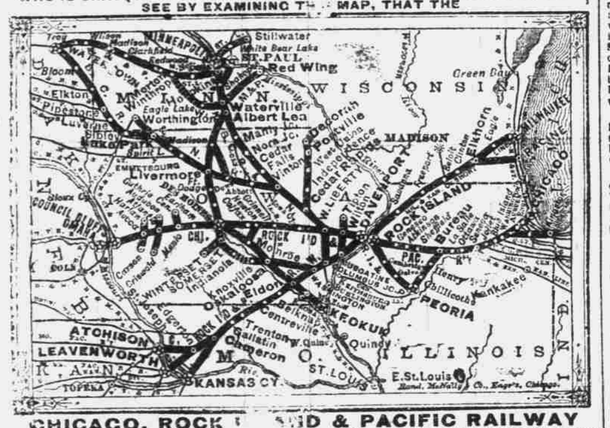
I A MAN

WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE GEOGRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THE MAP, THAT THE



CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC RAILWAY

By reason of its central position in relation to all principal lines East and West, at initial and terminal points, constitutes the most important mid-continental link in that system of through transportation which invites and facilitates travel and traffic between the cities of the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts. It is also the favorite and direct route to and from points East, Northeast and Southeast, and correspondingly favorable to points West, Northwest and Southwest.

The Rock Island system includes in its main line and branches, Chicago, Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Peoria, Geneseo, Moline and Rock Island, in Illinois; Davenport, Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, West Liberty, Iowa City, Des Moines, Indianola, Winterset, Atlantic, Knoxville, Audubon, Harlan, Guthrie Centre and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Trenton, Cameron and Kansas City, in Missouri; Leavenworth and Atchison, Kansas; Albert Lea, Minneapolis and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Watertown in Dakota, and hundreds of intermediate cities, towns, villages and stations.

THE GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

Guarantees its patrons that sense of personal security afforded by a solid, thoroughly ballasted road-bed; smooth tracks of continuous steel rail; substantially built culverts and bridges; rolling stock as near perfection as human skill can make it; the safety appliances of patent buffers, platforms and air-brakes; and that exacting discipline which governs the practical operation of all its trains. Other specialties of this road are Transfers at connecting points in Union Depots, and the unsurpassed comforts and elegance of its Passenger Equipment.

The Fast Express Trains between Chicago and the Missouri River are composed of well ventilated, finely upholstered Day Coaches, Magnificent Pullman Palace Sleepers of the latest design, and sumptuous Dining Cars, in which elaborately cooked meals are leisurely eaten, "Good Digestion waiting on Appetite, and Health on both." Between Chicago and Kansas City and Atchison, are also run the Celebrated Reclining Chair Cars.

THE FAMOUS ALBERT LEA ROUTE

Is the direct and favorite line between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul, where connections are made in Union Depots for all points in the Territories and British Provinces. Over this route, Fast Express Trains are run to the Watering places, summer resorts, picturesque localities, and hunting and fishing grounds of Iowa and Minnesota. It is also the most desirable route to the rich wheat fields and pastoral lands of interior Dakota.

Still another DIRECT ROUTE via Seneca and Kankakee has been opened between Newport News, Richmond, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Lafayette and Council Bluffs, Kansas City, Minneapolis and St. Paul and all intermediate points.

THE CHICAGO AND NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY.

THE BEST ROUTE AND SHORTLINE BETWEEN Omaha, Council Bluffs AND Chicago.

The only line to take for Des Moines, Marshalltown, Cedar Rapids, Clinton, Dixon, Chicago, Milwaukee, and all points East To the people of Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and California it offers superior advantages not possible by any other line.

Among a few of the numerous points of superiority enjoyed by the patrons of this road between Omaha and Chicago, are its two trains a day of DAY COACHES which are the finest that human art and ingenuity can create; its PALACE SLEEPING CARS, which are models of comfort and elegance; its PARLOR DRAWING ROOM CARS, unsurpassed by any; and its widely celebrated PALATIAL DINING CARS, the equal of which can not be found elsewhere.

At Council Bluffs the trains of the Union Pacific Ry. connect in Union Depot with those of the Chicago & Northwestern Ry. In Chicago the trains of this line make close connection with those of all Eastern lines.

For Detroit, Columbus, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Pittsburg Toronto, Montreal, Boston, New York Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, and all points in the East, ask the ticket agent for tickets via the

AMONG THE BEARS.

INTERESTING EXPERIENCE IN THE MOUNTAINS OF UTAH COUNTY.

PROVO, Sept. 5, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

The timbered plateaus and ravines in the tops of the south range of the American Fork Cañon have always been a rendezvous for bears, and it has been but a few years since that twenty-five dollars a head was offered by the citizens below for every bear killed, as they were such a source of annoyance to the stock herded on the summer ranges; consequently most of the grizzlies were killed off, but at present brown bear are quite numerous. Last summer a white bear was seen with a brown and cinnamon eating berries at the same busnes.

Last week we took an "out" in that direction more for recreation than for a hunt, but we made after getting there.

Your correspondent and companion left camp one morning at break of day with a shot-gun and rifle in quest of grouse or any other game that might come in our way. We had separated when about half a mile from camp, and as I was sitting on a high peak observing the beauty of nature, I heard the breaking of brush, and upon looking around at some distance across on almost impassable gulf I saw a big brown bear with her cub coming down the trail. It was the companion that made the noise—he and the bear were approaching each other and neither knew it. Bruin stopped, however, at a bush of berries, stood upon her haunches and gathered them with her front paws. I hastened to intercept the bear and cub, as they were then out of gun shot. They then started for the woods in the direction of my companion, and had just reached a ledge of rock, when rolling down. Two other persons from camp had come upon the scene.

The next day as two young men were out looking for the horses, they were startled by the rolling rocks on the ridge above, and upon looking up, saw another Bruin. The young boy, about sixteen years old, was dispatched to camp for a gun while the older watched his prey; considerable chasing was done to keep her in sight, but most of the time she headed towards camp. The gun came and at the first convenient opportunity was leveled at the bear. Bruin groaned and rolled down, giving a final lunge toward the boys,

WHO WERE NOW SO FRIGHTENED

they could hardly reload their guns. Another one of the party came up just then, and armed with cocked gun while the young man approached to see if brutin was really dead, fearing she was acting possum a little, but it was discovered that the ball had entered her shoulder and come out at her back, and that life was extinct.

The bear was soon taken to camp, and it being young, though nearly full grown, it was excellent meat, and we enjoyed hugely the "jerkings" over the camp fire at night and the delicious fries at meals.

Deer are usually plentiful here, but at this time of the year they keep farther back in the mountains.

GROUSE OR MOUNTAIN CHICKENS are now at their best and not very wild the only difficulty is that you have to look close to find them, as they will not fly till you run onto them.

This is one of the wildest and most beautiful retreats imaginable. It can be approached from American Fork Cañon, or over the mountains or cañons east of Battle Creek. At the mouth of Battle Creek Cañon is pointed out the spot where the soldiers and Indians in the early days, and from which the cañon and town derived their names—an old mountaineer near by told us he had gathered some of the bones that bleached on the plain for years afterwards. Not far above the mouth of the cañon is a beautiful cataract—the water falling hundreds of feet over a rock, and the spray falls like rain over the gorge. After a succession of narrow passes along the stream we come to little open valleys at the base of a high mountain, is hollows filled with glaziers, not yet penetrating its depths. We rambled over mountains, and everywhere the air was delightful. There were forests of lofty trees in their native grandeur, and intermixed with underwood were thimble berries and lovely cherries, refreshed by fountains from the melting snows. The open flats were clothed in aromatic shrubs and flowers more fragrant than those of a forced production in the gardens at home. From these heights the eye revels over an immense landscape—broad green valleys, fertilized by winding streams glistening in the setting sun, and bounded on every side by lines of mountains of less pretentions.

MET IN DEADLY CONFLICT

THE SUMMER SUN

It is impossible to contemplate this, nature's abode, without an

of heart and soul, teeming with life and verdure as a bloom of spring, while the maple and other tender leaves are tinged with the early frosts, making the foliage have those rich and variagated tints and the landscape has that pre vailing golden hue that gives such sober magnificence. We are loath to leave such attractions to again descend to the intricacies of business and monotony of city life.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EGIN, BINGHAM CO., Idaho, August 29, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

Crops here look well; corn is plentiful; potatoes, a good yield; wheat not as good as expected, but fair. We have a good country here, with plenty of water and timber.

Our quiet settlement was disturbed on the 21st of August by the sudden death of Father Samuel Smith, who died of lung disease. He was sick only four days. He was a man loved and respected by all who had the pleasure to know him; kind and fatherly to all, and ever ready and willing to respond to any and every call made upon him by the ward to which he belonged. His wife has lost an affectionate and kind husband, and his children a loving and indulgent father. Deceased was late from Randolph, Rich County, but settled here at Egin four years ago. He was born May 8th, 1815 and died Aug. 21, 1886, aged 71 years, 3 months and 13 days. Peace be to his ashes.

Millennial Star please copy.

JAS. GEO. WOOD.

BEAVER CITY, Sept. 2nd, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

The Great Master, in summing up the general status of the children of men, who would be dwellers on the earth in the generation when the Lord would make His second appearance, gave the Saints in particular some very important counsel, in the following words: "And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares; for as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man."

There has not been a time since the ushering in of this dispensation, when the Saints needed more than now, to watch and pray, having their lamps trimmed and burning, and being clothed upon with the whole armor of God, by having the Holy Spirit for their guide. Earth and hell are stirred against the Lord and his annointed. Every scheme that can be devised, and which emanates from beneath, is brought into requisition to allure the people from the path of duty, into gilded avenues of sin, which will result in many having their garments spotted with the flesh, and not knowing the hour of the night.

The signs foretold by the Lord which would precede His coming are everywhere apparent. It requires, at least, a generation to develop and mature a few of the purposes of God in this dispensation of the fulness of times. The Gospel has to be preached in patience, long-suffering and humility. Those who receive it are few in number; those who reject it are many; and they become the implacable enemies of the few who accept the Gospel for their only guide. On the one hand, on account of the very nature of things, the Saints who are faithful, will be made perfect through sufferings, while on the other hand, the great masses of humanity will justify themselves in oppressing the Saints. By this means the oppressors and all who love oppression, are filling up their cup and ripening for their complete overthrow. These are the results that naturally grow out of a dispensation to man, and it requires a generation for them to be developed.

Now, inasmuch as we are daily confronted with increasing habits of surfeiting (which includes more than eating altogether) and drunkenness and cares of this life, seeking worldly pleasures, mixing up with the gay at fashionable places of resort and that too on days that ought to be kept hallowed by this people, I fear that many will date their ruin through allowing themselves to be engrossed in these excesses. In all our giddiness let us bemindful that this generation is fast coming to a close, and all that has been spoken by the Lord and His servants in relation thereto will be fulfilled, whether we have made the necessary preparations on our part or not.

The redemption of Zion will soon be in order, as well as the Lord coming suddenly to His Temple; "And who will abide the day of His coming, and who will stand when He appeareth?" It will be prudent in us to shun every appearance of evil, and cleave unto all good, living by every word that proceedeth forth from the mouth of God. The hour of trial has come, and will become more apparent as the redemption of Zion approaches, for God will prove this people, whether they will abide in Him even unto death.

Who would have believed, fifty years ago, that on account of our peculiar religion, the nation of whom we form a part, would, through perverted statesmanship deprive us of our vested right, and be in a fair way to reduce us to a condition of serfdom? Our chief men, for their personal safety, are obliged to be concealed from public view, to avoid incarceration in loathsome dungeons, while others are pining in prisons, and many are exiled from their homes; and all this, too, is backed up by the powers of Government, in the full blaze of the 19th century. Nor will these proceedings stop here; for that same power will seek a pretext to force us to renounce the faith that Israel's God has revealed unto us, or be put to the sword. The hand writing on the wall clearly indicates that political parties are already breathing out deadly threats against this people.

Let us cleave unto the Lord our God; and the pit our numerous enemies will dig for us; they will fall into themselves. Now then, is it not about time we should abandon our unitimely excursions and other excesses and thus avoid the expense they incur, as well as eschew the evils which grow out of them? If we do not, as God lives, we will be left in darkness.

MOONSHEE.

ORDERVILLE, Sept. 1, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

Yesterday we dedicated and commenced school in our new school-house, a handsome and substantial structure built of white sandstone, dimensions 26 x 46 feet; walls 10 feet high. The house is well furnished with maps, charts, etc., and pretty well furnished with home-made desks. Our people are justly proud of their efforts, as we now have the best school house in the Stake.

We are now having our annual rainy and consequent flood season, but as yet little damage has been done. Most of the small grain has been secured, the rainy season commencing two weeks later than last year. The crops of grain are lighter this year than last, but the noble sunflower and other weeds are more abundant. This has been an exceptionally good year for bees, and fruit trees are yielding a good crop.

The general health of the people is and has been good this season. A spirit of peace pervades the hearts of the Saints here. This is not a desirable place for the worldly-minded or those eager to obtain this world's riches. Occasionally a stock man comes along to gather up our surplus calves, etc., but with this exception we are left pretty much to ourselves.

THE DESERET HOSPITAL, UNDER most favorable auspices, is now open for reception of patients, having removed to that large and commodious building lately occupied by the Deseret University. The appointments are new and of the first order. The halls and rooms are thoroughly ventilated, and warmed by a furnace and steam heating apparatus extending through the whole building. Good and capable nurses are supplied, and every attention paid to the comfort and welfare of its inmates. The medical department comprises a fine stock of drugs, and a line of some of the most valuable and elegant surgical instruments and appliances ever imported into the Territory. Arrangements have been made to secure the first medical talent the city affords for the benefit of patients. A specialty is made of the diseases of women, and correspondence is solicited from the afflicted.
