a very close and interesting affair from start to finish. Pecker, Bigelow, J. M. Browning and Cal Callison did not come up to their usual high standard, but the race was close enough to make it highly exciting. G. L. Becker of Ogden proved to be the big man of the day and carried off first honors, while Dr. Plummer from Halley. Ida, surprised everybody by his exceptionally good work. He forged ahead of three of the best shots present and finished a close second to Becker. Becker's score was 231 out of a possible 250, and Plummer made 226. Bigelow came third with 221 and Callison fourth with 211. Event No. 6 at 25 birds was decidedly interesting as Callison and Becker tied with scores of 24 out of a possible 25. Bigelow and Plummer also made the same score. The detailed score follows: a very close and interesting affair from
