Governor Patton, of Alabama, has published a long letter in which he advises the people to cheerfully accept the terms proposed by Congress for reconstruction, and carry out the law faithfully.

In Louisiana efforts are being made to secure negro votes, by politicians who a month ago were defiantly bent on not voting at all, if the negroes did. Now they call upon their leaders to sacrifice themselves, and upon the negroes to vote with their old masters and best friends.

Accounts of lawless outrages in North Carolina are still reported.

London, 25.

In the House of Commons tonight, Gladstone spoke against the Government plan of reform, and opposed the second reading of the reform bill.

St. Louis, 26.

A Republican's special, St. Joseph, gives the following account of the Fort Phil. Kearney massacre, derived by the commissioners from some Crow Indians who received it from the Sioux: The Sioux drew our men out of the Fort and killed all. Our men fought like tigers, and would not have been mastered so easily had they not kept so close together. The combatants were so mixed up that the Indians killed several of their own party with arrows. The bravery of our bugler was much admired; he killed several Indians by beating then on the head with his bugle. Sixteen Sioux and four Cheyennes were killed on the field, but after encamping 94 died of wounds; 300 others were wounded, half of whom expected to die.

They mention one man, on a white horse, who cut off Indians' heads with a single stroke of his sabre; also that, when reinforcements left the Fort for the battle ground, the Indians left, having had enough fighting. Twenty-two hundred Indians were engaged in the fight, and the strength of the consolidated tribes is reported to be 2,800 lodges. They are now moving towards the Yellow Stone and Missouri Rivers.

Washington, 26.

The Senate has passed the amendment to the organic act of Colorado.

New York, 26.

A terrible storm prevailed at Atlantic City during the latter part of last week; a portion of the light house cottage was inundated and about 70 feet of the building carried away; the sea covered the town on Atlantic Avenue as far as the U. S. Hotel and the railroad depot. All the cedar trees opposite the light house were carried away. Such a storm has not raged in that vicinity for 20 or 30 years.

Washington, 30.

Congress adjourned at noon to-day, until the first Wednesday in July, in accordance with the joint resolution adopted yesterday.

The cession of Russian America and the adjacent islands to the United States excites intense interest. Influential parties regard it as significant of the Russian policy of irapending European complications on the eastern question. Russia cedes her American territory for the same reason that induced Napoleon to sell Louisiana, for in the event of war Russia would probably lose this territory, but by parting with it secures the friendship of our Government. The English representative is deeply chagrined, and it is said that Sir Frederick Bruce will telegraph to Earl Derby for instructions to protest against its acceptance by our Government. The price to be paid for the territory is about $7,000,000. The treaty was signed early this morning, and was shortly afterwards sent to the Senate.
