

LIFE PRESERVERS WERE ROTTEN.

Those on the General Slocum Could be Ripped Open With Finger Nail.

DEAD BEING PHOTOGRAPHED.

This is for Purpose of Identification—District Attorney Making an Investigation.

New York, June 16.—Pastor Haas of St. Mark's Lutheran church is completely prostrated. He has been unconscious most of the time since the disaster and under the constant care of a physician. His condition is critical. His son did not go on the excusion. He lost besides his wife and daughter, his mother-in-law, Mrs. William Tetmore, Mrs. Tetmore's daughter Edith, two years of age, is also lost.

Asst.-Dist. Atty. Garvan has placed under seal a dozen life preservers taken from the General Slocum. Of these only three were intact. The rest had burst compartments from which the cork was pouring. The canvas coverings of the cork were so rotten that an assistant, had no difficulty in ripping them open with his fingernails.

A REPUTATION

How it Was Made and Retained in Salt Lake City.

A good reputation is not easily earned, and it was only by hard, consistent work among our citizens that Doan's Kidney Pills won their way to the proud distinction attained in this locality. The public endorsement of scores of Salt Lake City residents has rendered invaluable service to the community.
Read what this citizen says:

J. P. Ketchum, foreman on the R. G.
R. R., residence 372½ South Main St., says: "Starting with a tired out feeling just across the loins, the symptoms gradually developed until it became a regular thing to have backache.
The constant shaking, jolting and jarring of the train aggravated the complaint and with the passing of time it grew worse and I was compelled to look for something to bring relief. An advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills attracted my attention just then and I went to the F. J. Hill Drug Co.'s store for a box. The treatment gradually lessened the aching until it disappeared. This should be of considerable value to those who suffer in Salt Lake City from backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N.
Y., sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

The bodies are placed in coffins and are stood in an upright position in groups of four and flashlight pictures are then taken. The work of photographing began at North Brother island, and was later taken up at the morgue.

About 1 o'clock this morning Asst.
Dist. Attorney Garvan, who has been detained by Dist. Attorney Jerome to investigate the disaster, visited the tenderson station and was closeted for some time with Capt. Cottrell. After a while the captain called two of his

JAPANESE TROOPS LANDING IN KOREA.

The accompanying illustration, which is drawn from a photograph of the landing of Japanese troops near Fusan, represents a scene that is now quite common at many points along the Korean coast. Most of the landings occur at ports farther north, Chemulpo and Chinnampo being favorites. A great army going over the sea in transports conveyed by battleships and smaller fighting craft furnishes an imposing spectacle. Few things could serve so forcibly impress upon the mind the magnitude and seriousness of the contest now going on for the control of the far east.

plain clothes men into the office, and in a few minutes they left the station on the run, refusing to answer any questions.

A little later Mr. Garvan appeared, and was approached by the reporters.
When asked if he was looking into the Slocum case he at once became disturbed and said:

"I cannot answer that question."

AMONG CLIFF DWEILERS.

Quaint Customs of Ancient Aboriginal Race at World's Fair.

St. Louis—Famous caves of the stone age, as they exist today in the canyons of Arizona, New Mexico, and Colorado, are reproduced for the habitation of real cliff dwellers on The Pike at the world's fair, and here the life of these ancient aborigines may be studied amid natural surroundings.

Added ethnological interest is found in a large pueblo of Zuni and Moki Indians who daily perform the historic snake dance and follow the strange customs common to their tribes. These Indians are the descendants of a once powerful race, the remnants of a once powerful race.
They have not before been seen at any exposition.

Huge cliffs form the front of the concession and above them can be seen a towering peak which can be reached by a tortuous trail overhanging rocky ledges, deep fissures and caverns. Burros convey the visitors to the top of the crags.

where the caves and their relics may be seen, and where a fine view is obtained of the busy scenes on The Pike below.

Entrance to the City of Cliff Dwellers is through a tunnel which pierces the cliffs. The reverse side of the walls presents more caves and other mountain trails. A large structure of quaint architecture occupies the center of the village, and in this the Indians perform the dance of Kachina, the poetic flute dance and the dramatic snake dance.

The Kachina is distinguished by the use of the heads of buffalo and bear, which are worn by the warriors over their heads to conceal the features. The Snake Kiva, a cavern reached by a ladder, the famous Dance Rock of Wopli, the antelope and other interesting sights rise from cañon and sage growing in the rocks and sand.

Long ladders reach to the roofs of the cliff dwellers and potters, weavers, silversmiths, basketmakers and other Indian workers give the final touch to the attraction.

FAKE DOCTOR ARRESTED.

Man Who Affects Manner and Appearance of Savior, in the Toils.

Dr. Hahn Brooks, the fakir who dresses after the manner of the Christ and makes a living through preaching, selling pamphlets and assuming the ability to heal, was arrested last night while delivering his usual talk on the corner of Second South and East Temple streets. The charge against him is selling goods without a license. Officers Johnstone and Siegfus made the arrest, which caused considerable commotion in the crowd listening to the fakir, and 150 or 200 people followed to the police station to see what the "Doctor" would say. One of the crowd, George Gritfiths, was arrested for interfering with an officer, after he had been warned to stay outside police headquarters.

Brooks was released on a $50 bond furnished by Edwin Singleton, a stone mason employed at the Federal building. Brooks says his specialty is to heal leathome diseases. What he says and the way he says it is very obnoxious to decent people. The man will have a hearing in the police court this afternoon.
