SEMI-ANNUAL CONFERENCE

ELDERS AND SAINTS.

The Semi-Annual Conference of of October, 1883, in the Large Tab ernacle in Salt Lake City.

JOHN TAYLOR, GEORGE Q. CANNON, JOSEPH F. SMITH, First Presidency of the Church

"FOR MY NAME'S SAKE."

UNDER the above heading the New York World, of Sept. 15th, published the following special dispatch:

"Brookville, Ind., Sept. 24.—For several weeks past a pair of Mor-mon elders have been preaching in this county whenever they could sehouse. They spent much time in the vicinity of the town of Laurel and were given accommodations by Mr. D. W. Adams. They left there for other fields, and on Morday last and acted as tools for the devil. Last night the elders were found at the house of Mr. Ellison, in the Hills, a few miles from Laurel. There, about midnight, they received calls from about 150 able-bodied brutes, who escorted them to the woods and made them strip and submit to a coating of tar and feathers county speedily.

"Able-bodied brutes," is an appropriate term to be used in refernoe to the mobbers who are said to have maltreated two missionaries, for no other offence than preaching the gospel and administering the ordinance of Christian baptism to a young lady of age to act on her own judgment and responsibility.

They are as much or more to blame for them thae the rabble that have perpetrated those outrages. Quite recently a paper published in Georgla, the State in which Elder Joseph Standing was foully murdered and Elder John Alexander was brutally assaulted and shot at, had the following paragraph:

"There are two men calling them-selves Elders in the Mormon Church stopping in the western The testimony of "converta" from Utah, and their presence here bades no good. They are made to suffer for Christ's sake, and are persecuted because of the truthwhich they bear. The World's heading to the dispatch which we have copied is pertinent and significant. Our Elders labor in the spirit of that expression. Those who receive their testimony and by obedience obtain the assurance of divine acceptance and approbation, endure contumely in the mony, and it is only recently that ing upon the Savior's saying:

"Blessed are ye when men shall revile you and peraccute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake: Rejoice and bejexceeding glad, for great is your reward in heaven; for so persecuted they the prophets which were be-fore you." And it is for this reason that the ussessinations in Georgia, the tarring and feathering in Indiana, and the cowardly violence of mobocrats in other places entirely fail of their object. The places in which they occur form the most fruitful fielde for missionary work when the pubmind has had time to reflect.
