HAWKINS WAS DESPONDENT.

HAWKINS WAS DESPONDENT. Hawkins was 28 years of age, a native of Peoria, Ill. He came here about a year ago from Kansas City and then went to Montana. There he lived with a woman until about three months ago, when she committed suicide by taking poison. Her self-destruction had a bad effect upon Hawkins. He returned to Salt Lake and was constantly brooding over the death of the woman. A day or two ago, Hawkins remarked to some col-ored friends:

of friends: "I might just as well be dead as the way I am. Since that woman died, I have nothing to live for."

died, I have nothing to live for." According to those who were in-timately acquainted with Hawkins, he has done nothing since his return to Salt Lake. He frequented "Candy Bill's" place and other low dives on Commercial street, and hung about houses of ill fame. He was dis-agreeable toward the denizens of the street, and frequently engaged in al-tercations with them. A few weeks ago he, with four other colored men, was arrested on the charge of bai-tery upon a negro. He was convict-ed and fined $3 by Judge Whitaker. This evening, at O'Don-nell's, County Physician Calderwood will hold an autopsy. The bullet that ended the career of Hawkins struck him in the abdomen below the heart, and caused almost instant death. THIRD SHOOTING AFFRAY.

This mornings affair is the third shooting that has occured in Mc Kenzie's place. Several months ago a Jockey named Jerry Chorn shot a jockey named Jerry Chorn shot a colored man in the back and nearly killed him. Just a few weeks ago an-other "hop-head" colored man attempted to murder a man in the dive. Last Tuesday evening two colored men en gaged in a row over the ownership of a dime and one stabbed the other several times and then escaped. The stabbing occurred while the city coun-city was in session discussing the official request of Chief of Police Tom D. Plit to revoke the license issued to "Candy Bill." While the matter was being argued Chief Plit telephoned to the council that a cutting affray had just occurred in the notorious saloon. "I have tried to run the place decent ly," said McKenzie today, "Every time the boys get into a squabble I try to restore peace. RETURNS STILL FAR INCOMPLETE IN WASH.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 10 .- The returns from the primary election are yet very incomplete, at least 60 per cent of the total vote is unreported. The election of Wesley L, Jones as the Republican candidate for U.S. senator assured. Belated returns increase lead of Mr. Jones over Senator Levi assured Ankney.

The defeat of Senator Ankney is the result of a fight of several years' stand-ing which has been led by Former U. S. Senator John L. Wilson.

In the race for governor, the returns indicate that none of the Republican candidates has received the necessary 40 per cent of the party vote to se cure the nomination on first choice ballots, in which it will be necessary to count the second choice votes. There are indications that S. G. Cosgrove of Pomeroy will secure the Republican nomination on the first and second choice votes. In the race Henry Mc-Bride of Seattle is second, and Gov. Albert E. Mead, is third. Ankney has carried King county by a small plurality over Wesley L. Jones. In 101 city precincts in Seattle and 89 precincts in the county, Jones is be hind 199 votes. Spokane, Wash., Sept. 10 .- The Republican primaries through eastern Washington have developed a veritable landslide in the senatorial contest in favor of Congressman Wesley Jones. The present figures indicate that Congress man Jones will leave the Third legisla tive district with a plurality of 10,000 over Senator Ankeny.

BRYAN ADDRESSES MANY WORKING MEN

Mattoon, Ill., Sept. 10.-Refreshed by nine hours sleep William J. Bryan, Dem-cratic cannidate for president, awoko this morning to find his car on a side-track at this place. He was not expected to be here and his presence in the city was not generally known. The first stop today was at Olny, Ill., where he was scheduled for a speech. After Olny, Mr. Bryan proceeded to Poseyville. Ind. From the time he retired, a little be-fore 10 o'clock, until long after midnight, crowds along the line of travel made repeated demands for Mr. Bryan to ap-pear on the platform of his car and great was the disappointment when told the presidential candidate was asleep. Just before the train pulled out of Matoon a crowd of several hundred per-sons, many of them workingmen, sur-rounded the car. Mr. Bryan on the rear platform and spoke for several minutes, principally on monopolies and injunc-tions.

The statement that Mr. Lillenthal was returning from the Game-Nelson fight at the time the acci-dent occurred, is incorrect. He had been down the peninsula with a couple of friends and merely passed through Col-ma, where the prizelight was in progress. On the point of the number of of-fenses which the petition for re-hear-ing asserted was obscure in the opinion of the reviewing court the answer con-tends that the government's coursel has raised a cloud where there is none and that the ruling of the court clearly and that the ruling of the court. early and that the running of the court clearly shows that the number of offenses was regulated by the settlements and payments of which there are 36 and not by the carloads numbering 1,462 on which the fine was predicated.
