An interesting and interested spectator of the last few days has been "Bill" Easterly, one of the men who Harry Orchard declares assisted him in some of his missleeds in Colorado. Easterly was a winness in the Haywood trial, and declared then that, "outside of two six-shooters, two Winchester rifles and a sawed-off shotgun," he kept ne dangerous weapons in his Crip-ple Creek cabin. SWEET'S LETTERS.

SWEET'S LETTERS. The greatest interest in Senator Bo-rah's case locally was aroused by the letters of William Sweet to his attor-news which have been read in evidence. They were original, amusing and en-tertaining to a high degree. The most striking sentence, and one that is being freely repeated, was in connec-tion with Sweet's complaint that his first attorney had turned all his money over to Gov. Steunenberg. "It is like pulling a cast through a stocking to get it back," he declared. Speaking of o of the alleged co-conspirators of the alleged co-conspirators of the alleged ec-conspirators of the alleged ecmership existed between Steunenberg and a capitalist named Willium Sweet to acquire, hold and generally deal in timbor lands.

It has been shown, according to the confessions of the "dummy" ca-tymen themselves, that John I. Wells and John Kinkaid furnished persons will money to prove up their timber claims. Next if has been shown that for. Steunenberg was introduced to one Albert E. Palmer, and that Pal-mer introduced the former chief ex-cutive of Idaho to James T. Barber and Summer G. Moon, of the present Harber Lumber company. One group of "dummy" entrymen testified that they deeded their property over to Palmer. The immediate purpose of the prosecution now is to show that taimer drew the money, some $80,000 in all, from Barber and Moon, and turned H over to Frank Steumenberg, agent, who in turn, gave it to Wells and Kinkaid. As far as this evidence has gone As far as this evidence has gone li has been admitted without any ob-jection on the part of, the defense on the promise of the prosecuting at-torneys eventually to connect Senator Borah's counsel have adopted the general policy of not cross-symmio-ing any of the witnesses who conflue their testimony to the alleged com-spiracy among Steunenbers, wells, Kinkaid and others.

Amean wind skin numeri if he couldn't fad anyhody else to." Ane ' r incident which has occa-sion a much talk was the testimony of r alleged 'dummy' entryman named Joplin. To the surprise of the gov-ernment's counsel Joplin swore on the stand that the money with which he proved his claim was his own and that he received none of it from any of the conspiratore. He admitted to the prose-cutors that he had told them a different story outside the courtroom, but ex-plained by saying: "They got me scared and I told them a lot of stuff that wasn't so." The attorneys for the defense were quick to ask Joplin what had been said to frighten him, but he declared he could not vemember. GRAND JURY INQUIRY.

New York, Sept. 22.-Cottagers in New Rochelle were startled today when Dr. Samuel Bolin, who recently pur-chased a home in Huguenot Park, was avrested on a charge of attempting burglary. The present charge grew out of an attempt at burglary at Levison's hard-ware store early last Thursday mom-ing. The sound of saving awakened persons in the neighborhood who sum-moned the police. They entered a half adjoining the user entrance and where stars led to tenements. Here they were confronted by a man who coolly in-quired:
