CHURCH GETTING OUT OF DEBT

This, Notwithstanding Much Aid Has Been Given Those in Distress and la Parchasing Mission Houses.

That great oaks from little acorns grow never had a stronger exemplification than that presented at the Tabernacle today on the occasion of the opening of the great annual conference of the Church. The scene that unfolded itself to the gaze and admiration of the thousands in attendance was most impressive and in marvelous contrast to the picture that the memery of many painted of the historic beginning of the work of the Latterday Saints, in the wonderful Empire state of our country just three-quarters of a century ago.

It was a mighty sea of earnest and happy faces, full of confidence and encouragement that confronted President Joseph F. Smith when he called the congregation to order a little after 10 o'clock. In the gallery, too, there was a multitude of similar faces whose atention was directed to the stand. It was quite observable, and a matter of comment that the great preponderance of those present were men. From the moment that the grand old organ poured forth its first strains of melody under the manipulation of Prof. McClellan and the choir under the conductorship of Prof. Stephens, filling the building with the words and music of the praise poem, "Redeemer of Israel," the strictest attention was pald to every utterance that fell from the lips of the speakers.

President Joseph F. Smith delivered

bostow upon any forethought with reference to what I shall say to you this morning. I stand before you without preineditation or forethought as to what I shall say. I believe that i can say to you with all confidence that so far as my knowledge extents, the Latter-day Saints throughout this bestow upon any forethought with reference to what I shall say to you without premeditation or forethought as to what I shall say. I believe that I can say to you with all confidence that so far as my knowledge extents. the Latter-day Saints throughout this intermountain region and the adjoin-ing country, and so far as I know throughout the world are in excellent spiritual condition. I believe that the Latter-day Saints enjoy as much today of that thorough point of their religion as they ever have enjoyed. I believe the throughout the length and breath of the land as has ever existed in the Church. I think I can conficiently say that there are as few local difficulties and trobles among the people com-ing before the Church courts, before the Star? that has been published for so many years, and continue to be pub-ing before the Church courts, before the Star? that has been published for so many years, and continue to be pub-ing before the Church and the adjoin-the Bishops and before the High Cour-cit, as I have ever known before within the Stare and in is often the edge than among our brothers and isters, are brought before the tachers and peo-timy knowledge, wand according to my best understanding, there never was, since I can remember, any less of these intue misunderstandings and efforting the size of the cancers and peo-the size of the tachers and peo-the thread of samos for the purpose of samong our brothers and sisters, are brought before the tachers and peo-the size of the cancers and peo-the size of the same, that within my knowledge and according to my best understandings there never was, sime I can remember, any less of these that misunderstandings and effort the same are and new less of these that misunderstandings and effort the the and reachers and people com-the size of the charter day sints and or the same chard we have association and sable there is of our completed or same the truth will verify the same, that within my knowledge and PEOPLE ARE CONTENTED.

"I believe that there is a feeling of general contentment among the Latter-day Saints, and a feeling of satisfaction in their minds and in their hearts with reference to the divine mission of the Prophet Juscet Latter Prophet Joseph Smith and to the great divinity and atonement of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. In other words I believe that the Latter-day Saints today are as devoted and fer-vent and firm in their convictions of the truth and in their knowledge of the truth as they ever have been to the truth and in their knowledge of the truth, as they ever have been at any period of the Church's history from its beginning down to the present time. I believe that these statements can be seconded and vouched for by the pre-siding authorities of the Church throughout the length and breadth of the land. We have these brethren here before us,—presidents of stakes and their counselors, the Bishops and their counselors and the presidents of our various missions; and I am satisfied that they will, one and all, verify the statements that I have made with ref-erence to the present condition of the erence to the present condition of the

Not only is this so, but I believe that the time has never been when the financial, the temporal condition, of the Latter-day Saints was better and more encouraging than at the present time. I believe that our people are generally prosperous and I am satisfied that there is still greater prosperity in store for them through their con-tinued faithfulness before the threed faithfulness before the Lord I believe that the Lord will bless the earth for their sake, that He will temper the elements for their good, that He will prosper them in the labor of their hands and in the thoughts of their minds; that He will guide them by the power of His Spirit into all truth and into the possession of those temand into the possession of those terr the first address of the conference. He poral blessings that are so needed to because his mind is not capable of grasping more than that single one little thought. We have such individmake a people happy. contented and blessed in the land. With reference to this matter I desire to say that we have I believe a very correct criterion these individuals, one of these cranks, that we obtained or received not long ago solemn objections to the Church of Terms Chaint of the church of by which to judge the spiritual and temporal condition of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The records of the Church will show at the closing of the accounts for the past year that the tithing and the offerings of the Latter-day Saints have been a little above, actually a little above, what would be called the average. We have had one or two more prosperous years in the past, judging it by this criterion, the tithings of the people, but last year was equal and a little above the average, notwithstanding the fact that during the last few years our people in many parts of the country have been suffering from a protracted drouth, in which they have come short n their crops, in which they have suffered materially in their flocks and in their herds; and in many places the drouth has been so severe pinces the drouth has been so severe that the people have been under the necessity of hiring or borrowing means with which to secure for themselves grain for seed for this present year. I want to say to you, my brethren and sisters, and those who preside over the Church, that it is a matter of pride and of satisfaction to my much that and of satisfaction to my mind that the Church is in a condition to assist those that are in need of this kind of assistance, and we have done so. If anyone should feel disatisfied with the Trustee-in-Trust and his counselors and associates in the matter of extend-ing aid to the Latter-day Saints in such matter of extremity as this, they know where to enter to make their complaints, and I should be glad to meet them and consider the question. We wish it distinctly understood that while the Lord preserves us in the po-sitions to which we have been called, the positions which we did not seek, but which, by the providence of God, have been brought upon us, we will hold ourselves responsible before God and before His people to render material and financial aid to the people of God in every direction where we feel that it is necessary to do so. Our peo ple in the south have been unfortunate and the south have been unfortunate in that barren country, in having their dams washed away by floods. For a long series of years they have had drouth, the earth has become parched and dry, and when the late rains and floods came they washed away some of their dams suit the people send we

We have assisted our people in Australia and New Zealand in a similar way; and withal we have met more than one-half of the bonded in-debtedness of the Church and we are in a condition, when the time shall be ripe for it, provided the Saints con-tinue to meet their obligations in their tithes and offerings, to pay off the tithes and offerings, to pay off the remaining portion of the Church in-debtedness; when I trust by the blessings of the Almighty that the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints of Jesus Christ of Latter-day sinks will see a day in which it will be ab-solutely free from debt and under ob-ligation to no man; and it will not be long before this consummation is real-ized if we continue our work in the future as we have done it in the past. THE ONE IDEA HOBBYIST.

Now, my brethren and sisters, it is Now, my brethren and sisters, it is not my purpose to continue my re-marks very long. I desire cursorly to refer to these matters of which I have spoken, and it just occurs to my mind that in addition to the few things I have named—and I have not named them all—that it would be very pro-per for me to state that the Church with a very small assistance from the per for me to state that the Church with a very small assistance from the estate of Dr. William H. Chester A. Attorneys McGurrin and Gustin, who represented defendant, both made im-pressive pleas for beliency in behalf of Accorneys accourtin and oustin, who represented defendant, both made im-pressive pleas for leniency in behalf of the boy. They sold that this was his first transgression of the law and that fact and the fact of his youth should be taken into consideration in passing sen-tence. They thought that a light sen-tence would meet the approval of the general public and would tend to pun-ish and reform the boy so that when he was released he would not follow in the ish and reform the boy so that when he was released he would not follow in the path of ordine. Judge Armstrong, in passing sentence, said that he regret-ted very much that parents and rela-tives of the guilty party had to suffer for the crime, and that in gentencing the defendant he would like very much to consider that fact and also the youth of the defendant, but he felt that he must represent the people and enforce the later and thus protect the citizenze Cohen to this city. Reports That Germany Contemplates Calling an International Congress Excite French Indignation.

Paris, April 6 .- The meeting between King Edward and President Loubet today is arousing absorbing interest, owing to the tension over Morocco. The king will arrive at Calais at 1:45 p. m. The two rulers will converse for about two hours. Despite official reserve on the subject the public and press hall the meeting as having capital import. ance in connection with Germany's attitude towards Morocco and it is popularly interpreted as France's reply to Germany's action.

The Berlin reports that Germany contemplates cailing an international congress to consider the Morocco question excite surprise and considerable indignation in official quarters here. It is pointed out that the Madrid congress of 1880 fully defined international relations towards Morocco and therefore Germany's calling a new congress would, it is claimed, amount to further would, it is claimed, amount to further evidence of the unfriendliness of Ger-many's course. The authorities here take note of what they regard as an ap-parent effort on the part of Germany to secure the co-operation of the United States in the Morocco ques-tion, but they feel satisfied that the United States will hold aloof from ac-tive participation in the controversy. During the afternoon a brilliant cav-alry escort drew up at the Elysee palace to accompany President Loubet to the Northern railroad station, whence he will go to meet King Edward at Pierre-fitte station about seven miles outside

His remarks were not confined to any particular subject but cevered a wide variety of topics associated with the affairs of the Latterday Saints. He congratulated the peole on their honesty, faithfulness, inlastry and prosperity. There never was time, he said, when there were fewer inferences among the people than at the present, or a more general prosperi-ty experienced. The church, too, as an organization, was progressing in all ese regards. During the past year it d been able, he thanked God, to give assistance in cases of extreme distress to the Latter-day Saints in many places. They had been helped where ods had destroyed their homes and their crops. Headquarters and churches for foreign and home missions had been purchased at considerable expense. Animadverting to the criticisms of some persons he said that they should not be regarded too seriously. They were the boils, carbuncles and other ex-crescences of the body of the organiza-tion. In such instances there was but one thing to do--what the surgeon does when a patient when a patient is thus afflicted—cut them out and off. Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints putting in these means or tithing into a hospital. It was wicked and wrong hospital. It was wicked and wrong to build hospitals according to his ideas, Well, we will let such people go for what they are worth, and they are scarcely worth noticing, and I feel that I should not have noticed it at all; but we have such individuals among us more or less. We have a variety -a variety-every once in a while, of creatures rising up amongst us, who are filed with the spirit of evil and hatred towards the truth and the people of God. It is only natural that this should be so. UNHEALTHY ESCRESSENCES. It has occurred to me somewhat in als way: that the body of the Church this way: that the body of the Church is likened to the body of a man, and you know men do sometimes get their systems a little deranged— that is to say that sometimes they are flea-bitten. Fleas bite them and mosquitoes bite them and cause little swellings to raise on their faces and hands. Someraise on their faces and hands. Some-times they have bolls upon them, and carbuncles and other excressences, that only need the application of the lance to let out the humor from them or to excise them from the body or cut them off and let them go, so that the body may be cleansed from their pois-onous effects. It is so with the Church from time to time. There are these characters who become a law unto themselves and they follow the trend of their own sweet will until they get themselves into a condition mentally and spiritually so that they become a and spiritually so that they become a menace to the body ecclesiastic. In other words, they become like a boil or carbuncle on the body, and you have to call in the surgeon to apply the knife to cut them out, that the body may be cleansed from them, and this has been the case from the beginning.

ZION FIRMLY ESTABLISHED. From time to time these conditions rise and we have them to meet, and they will continue to arise from time to time in the future, and we shall have them to meet, but they will never amount to more than a primple or a little sore on the body outside, and no one need to be alarmed at all for the consequences. Zion is established in the midst of the earth to remain. It the midst of the earth to remain. It is God Almighty's work, which He Himself, by His own wisdom, and not by the wisdom of man, has restored to the earth in the latter days, and He has established it here upon principles of touth and righteousness and purity all as take to be been as to be pleased if to could know that every dollar of the tithing that I pay to the Church is only employed in some good work of this kind by which the people of God are strengthened in building up Zion, in of truth and righteousness and purity and of revelation from God, and that it can no more be thrown down or left to another people, so long as the majority of the people of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latanother people, so long as the majority of the people of the Church of Jesus Christ of Lat-ter-day Saints will abide in their covenants with the Lord and will keep

This people can never prosper and flourish unless they abide in God's truth. There is nothing, no individuality, no combined influence among men that can preval over the truth. The truth is mighty and it will prevail. It may be slow in the consummation of its purpose, in the accomplishment of the work that it has to do, but it 18 and will be sure, for the truth cannot fail and will not fail, for the Lord Almighty is behind it and does His work and He will see to it that it is accomplished.
