say the government wished to create trouble and outrage in Ireland during he coming winter; that the proclamation will force the extremest measures of the league to the front, and that the government will shortly bitterly repent their action. All the important documents of the league have been removed from the neadquarters in Dublin.
The Pall Mall Gazette vigorously attacks the government party for adopting in the Commons last evening the Earl of Cadogau's amendment to the Irish land bill, relating to town parks. The Gazette urges the liberals to revolt in the Commous, to obstruct the passage of supply measures and thus force A DISSOLUTION. Concerning the proclamation of the league Wm. O'Brien said to-day:

No one here has any idea how the fire overtime in order to advance the work.

broke out. QUEENSTOWN, August 19.-Captain Land, commander of the City of Mon-treal, makes the FOLLOWING REPORT:

On the 10th inst. the wind was N. to N. W. About 9 o'clock on the evening of that day a fire was discovered in the after hatch among the cotton. The fire hose were at once connected and streams of water were poured down upon the flames. Aunihilators and fire grenades and fire extinguishers were freely used. The fire, however, over-came all efforts to suppress it and spread over the upper and lower decks. The ship was doomed from the begin-ning of the fire, and boats were ac-tively prepared with provisions. On the morning of the 11th inst. the flames barst through the afternatches. The boats were lowered. There was a high at the time and this caused MUCH DIFFICULTY.

The women and children were first put in the boats and the male passengers and crew afterward. Lack of time prevented the manning of the boats with their respective crews, the men-being compelled to continue until the last moment the work of keeping down the flames. All the boats left the ship safely, but by an unfortunate oversight twenty people were left aboard the burning vessel. Boat No. 3 returned and took off six of the number. Boat No. 5 with the fourth officer took off six more. A barque was then reported approaching, and when all the boats had put their people aboard her they returned and took off those remaining on the burning steamer. It was found that boat No. 8

WAS MISSING.

She was seen to put herself before the wind when she left the ship, using ber o.rs in support of the sails. She rau away from the vessel in direct disobcdlence to the captain's orders. Everybody spent the night about the German barque Trabant, Captain Sheef, from Charleston for Lonion, and all were then transferred to the York City which stayed by through the night and vainly searched for the missing. Captain Land says he is sanguine that the people in boat No. 8 are saved, as the ac-cident occurred in the track of steamers bound east and west. The passen-gers were cool and obedient during the crisis, and the crew were steady. The passengers and crew bore down on to her and found it was the Inman steamer City of Montreal with nothing but her funnels and her bowsprit standing. The fire was still burning below the foreast. The weather was very clear and fair with a smooth sea, but there were no signs of any of her boats in sight except one that was full of water and looked as though it had been used after being lowered. It was supposed the passengers and crew were taken up by some passing vessel.

The names of those in the missing boat are AS FOLLOWS: Passengers—Samuel Kauffman, Geo.

These were launched and stocked with provisions. The flames spread with flerceness and the efforts to quench them were soon found futile.
