MAYOR'S VETO SUSTAINED

Franchise to Home Telephone Company Not Legally Passed by Council.

Trail of Knox—Deserted Husbands sue for Divorce—County Business—Wedding.

The city council met at the usual hour with President Driver in the chair. Acting Mayor J. O. Nye submitted a veto of the ordinance granting to the Utah Home Telephone Co. a franchise, giving as his reasons that the ordinance was illegally passed, it being passed in violation of the rules, without a roll call vote, which is contrary to the rules of the council, besides being unconstitutional, inasmuch as the franchise of the Home Telephone Co. grants more liberal privileges than are granted to the Bell Telephone company. The veto of the mayor was sustained.

The mayor pro-tem also submitted a recommendation to purchase a rock crusher, to be located near the foot of the mountain, in order to crush rock for the improvement of Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets between Washington and Adams. The recommendation was adopted, and the matter was referred to the street committee to investigate the price of a rock crusher and report to the council.

The law committee recommended an ordinance to the council, to the effect that all expenses connected with the office of the city clerk, the same to be paid by the city.

DISTRICT COURT.

The hearing in the case of the State of Utah against S. W. Knox, charged with attempted assault, was commenced yesterday before Judge Rolapp in the second district court. The entire morning and part of the afternoon was occupied in securing a jury to hear the trial.

The only witness examined yesterday for the prosecution was Miss Ethel Smith, the intended victim of Knox's alleged assault, and her testimony was the same as that given at the preliminary trial; the defendant testified to his room on the pretext of attending a card party, and he attempted to assault her, but she screamed and fled to her room.

When court resumed its session this morning Miss Smith was again called to the witness stand. She was put through a very rigid cross-examination by John H. Jones, counsel for the defense, during the ordeal she broke down several times and wept bitterly. In one of the spells she was so much overcome that the court took a recess for five minutes in order that the girl might be calmed by her friends. These paroxysms of grief were produced when she was explaining the conduct of Knox on the evening of Dec. 23, when the attempted assault is alleged to have been committed.

It was brought out on the cross-examination that a man named Clayton had called several times on Miss Smith, after the arrest of the defendant, and tried to persuade her to desist from prosecuting the case and let the matter drop. She also testified that she was not in the room with Knox to exceed five minutes.

Mrs. Joseph Piver, sister to Miss Smith, testified that her sister was at her home at 7 p. m. the evening of Dec. 23, in the company of Knox; she left Knox at the gate and returned into the house and was waited for her. The left together a short time after, and in about half an hour later the girl returned in a great state of excitement, and fell in a swoon at the door. After being carried into the house she soon revived and immediately related her experience with Knox to her sister and brother-in-law. Mrs. Piver also testified that when the girl left her home on the evening in question she had a white fascinator on her head, but returned bareheaded. The fascinator has not been seen since.

NOTHER MATRIMONIAL FAILURE.

A suit for divorce was filed in the district court this morning by Judge W. L. Maginnis, as counsel for Rosina L. Harrell, the plaintiff, against her husband, C. H. Harrell, for a divorce on the ground of failure to support. It is alleged in the complaint that the couple were married in Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 5, 1891; that for more than one year last plaintiff has resided in Weber county, and that during all of said time defendant has wilfully neglected to support plaintiff and an adopted child. Wherefore she prays that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between herself and said C. H. Harrell be dissolved, that her maiden name be restored to her; that she have the custody of the child, and such alimony and other relief as to the court may seem meet in the premises.

DESERET BY THEIR WIVES.

Suit for divorce has been filed in the second district court by H. W. Gibbs against Rose Gibbs, on the ground of desertion. The parties were married in Ogden Sept. 8, 1896, on Feb. 18, 1896, the defendant deserted plaintiff, refusing to live with him longer. They have no children.

C. L. Low has brought suit against Ellen E. Low to secure a dissolution of the bonds of matrimony existing between himself and defendant. The parties were married in Ogden City in 1891, and the complaint alleges that for more than one year past defendant deserted plaintiff and refuses to live with him; that there are living as issue of said marriage four children, all over 10 years of age.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., Feb. 17.—The suspension in regard to the appointment of a matron of the county infirmary is now over. At the meeting of the board of county commissioners yesterday, the resignation of Mrs. Anna E. Hunt, the present matron, to take effect March 1, was accepted. Commissioner Webb then moved that Mrs. Fannie E. Stewart be appointed to succeed Mrs. Hunt as matron. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Dixon and carried. # A DAILY NUISANCE.

A Simple Remedy Which Will Interest Catarrh Sufferers.

In its earlier stages catarrh is more of a nuisance than a menace to the general health, but sooner or later, the disease extends to the throat, bronchial tubes and even to the stomach and intestines.

Catarrh is essentially a disease of the mucous membrane, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge of mucous, stoppage of the nostrils, irritation in throat, causing coughing, sneezing, gagging and frequent clearings of the throat and head.

The usual treatment by local douches, snuffs, salves, etc., often gives temporary relief, but anything like a cure can only be obtained by a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood, and the disappearance of the inflammation from the mucous surfaces.

A new remedy which meets these requirements and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membranes only. They can hardly be called a secret patent medicine as they are composed of such valuable remedies as Blood Root, Hydrastis, Red gum and similar cleansing antiseptics, which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous surfaces the catarrhal poison.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges taken internally, allowing them to dissolve slowly in the mouth, in this way they reach the throat, fauces and the entire alimentary canal.

If desired, they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is more stoppage of the nose, a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use of these tablets will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resort to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bennett states "that the internal treatment for catarrh is rapidly taking the place of the old plan of douching and local application and further says that probably the best and certain cure for catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient remedies for catarrh are contained in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at fifty cents for full sized packages. Ask your druggist and if he is unable to get them, mail order will refer, as they are available, more efficient and convenient remedy on the market.

FARMINGTON.

Charles Steed Injured by Blowing Up of Acetylene Tank.

Special Correspondence.

Farmington, Davis Co., Feb. 16.—George Hess and Charles Steed were engaged in repairing the tank of the acetylene gas plant, used in lighting the Amusement hall here at Farmington, at about 6 p. m., when it exploded and Mr. Steed sustained very painful injuries to his eyes and face. It seems that the carbide, from which the gas is generated, shatters and forms a kind of muddy substance, when it is used. They had previously thrust a candle into the tank and as it did not cause any trouble concluded that it would be safe to clean this muddy substance out; so Mr. Hess held a lighted lamp at one end with which to wipe up the tank's interior, and Mr. Steed had just begun to work into the tank, when the explosion occurred and two or three handfuls of mud were about his eyes and face. It is thought that the eyes will be saved, but it is not yet known how it will terminate.

LOGAN.

Visit of Legislators.

Burial of Carl E. Johnson—Improved Railroad Service.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Feb. 15.—The past week in this city marked the occurrence of what has become a biennial event in local history, namely, the visit of the Utah legislators. It is an occasion when all prominent citizens "fall out" with their vehicles and convey the lawmakers from the depot to college and return. For the last six years the vehicles have been carriages, and the streets were usually covered with deep mud. This year the sleighing was good and the frosty knives in the air. The visitors expressed much interest in the city and valley, it being the first visit of many of them to Logan.

At the entertainment for the benefit of the Elks Lodge, given at the Second ward Friday evening the following was the program rendered: Instrumental selections by Misses Anna Meyer and Rebecca Smith, recitation by Mrs. George Smith.

Dr. W. B. Parkinson, Jr., of this city who is attending the Chicago Medical institute, will complete his course and receive his degree during the coming spring. The gentleman and his wife, the latter having formerly been Miss Eva Troon, an esteemed young lady of Chicago, will make their home in Logan.

Mr. Christian Raft, the well known undertaker of this city, has gone to Draper, to install an electric light in his place.

BURIAL OF CARL E. JOHNSON.

The remains of Carl E. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Johnson, of this city, arrived Saturday from Butte, where the deceased passed away Feb. 11, and the funeral was held in the city hall, at a meetinghouse at noon to-day. The deceased was a native of Logan aged 27 years. Mr. Johnson has another son, Harvey, lying very ill in this city with pneumonia.

President Carl M. Nelson of the Cache Valley Farmers' association, has called a meeting of that organization for next Friday at 1 p. m. in Logan to discuss the proposed legislation.

The new time schedule on the Oregon Short Line gives universal satisfaction. The long waits at Cache Junction have been relegated to the past, quick connection being made in all directions.

A prominent club woman, Mrs. Danforth, of St. Joseph, Mich., tells how she was cured of falling of the womb and its accompanying pains and misery by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Life looks dark indeed when a woman feels that her strength is fading away and she has no hopes of ever being restored. Such was my feeling a few months ago when I was advised that my poor health was caused by prolapsus or falling of the womb. The words sounded like a knell to me, I felt that my sun had set; but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to me as an elixir of life; it restored the lost forces and built me up until my good health returned to me. For four months I took the medicine daily and each dose added health and strength. I am so thankful for the help I obtained through its use."—Mrs. FLORENCE DANFORTH, 1007 Mills Ave., St. Joseph, Mich.

A medicine that has restored so many women to health and can produce proof of the fact must be regarded with respect. This is the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which cannot be equalled by any other medicine the world has ever produced. Here is another case:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For years I was troubled with falling of the womb, irregular and painful menstruation, leucorrhoea, bearing-down pains, backache, headache, dizzy and fainting spells, and stomach trouble.

"I doctored for about five years but did not seem to improve. I began the use of your medicine, and have taken seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, three of Blood Purifier, and also used the Sanatogen and Liver Pills, and am now enjoying good health, and have gained in flesh. I thank you very much for what you have done for me, and heartily recommend your medicine to all suffering women."—Miss EMMA SNYDER, 218 East Center St., Marion, Ohio.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence thus entrusted to her, and although she publishes thousands of testimonials from women who have been benefited by her advice and medicine, never in all her experience has she published such a letter without the full consent, and often by special request of the writer.
