THE EVERLASTING HILLS.

Topics of Dr. Tolman's Lecture at the University Last Night.

Dr. Tolman delivered the last of this year's series of University lectures last evening. A large audience was present and greatly interested in doctor's lecture.

The Everlasting Hills was his theme. Especially at a time when the world is so much interested in the mountains, he gave a particularly clear and interesting lecture.

He spoke of the architecture of mountains, and noted various types of structures. His illustrations were collected from literature and who received his discharge from the volunteer service in the Civil War to recruit the members of this club and of the ever increasing army of the Pioneers.
