FRAGMENTS.

The little girl Elmore Martin, who was feared had been abducted, was found last evening at the house of a school-ma'am, where she had been since Monday night, afraid to go home yesterday because of her truancy.

A soldier named E. J. Clowe broke open the door of Mrs. Kennedy, in the 14th Ward, last night, and struck her. She got a pistol and shot at him and the brave boy decamped. He was afterwards caught by the police.

This operation for the removal of an ovarian tumor from Mrs. Dr. Brede-meyer, was successfully performed by Dr. Benedict yesterday, assisted by Drs. Allen Fowler and W. R. Pike. Several other physicians were present, among them Dr. O. C. Ormsby, of Logan.

The Postmaster General has received a dispatch stating that from and after the 15th inst., the Central Pacific railway company will run a fast mail train from Ogden west, covering the distance between Ogden and San Francisco in thirty-nine hours. This will complete the fast mail service between New York and San Francisco, and save twenty-four hours between these points.

Leavitt's Last Night.—The last night of Leavitt's Combination of European Stars, will no doubt attract a large audience, if not larger, than any of those which have witnessed their wonderful performance. The secret of their success is that they are par excellence in whatever they attempt, and in every instance give all that they advertise. It is one of the best specialties shows that ever came to town, and those who have not yet seen it, should seize the final opportunity.

The Knights.—Another fair house greeted the second performance of "Otto," at the Opera House last evening, and thoroughly enjoyed the excellent performance. The piece was repeated to-day at a matinee. This evening the Knights make their last appearance, presenting a "Grand Solo," a play quite as brilliant in the East, in which Mr. and Mrs. Knight have excellent opportunities. They are first-class artists and their closing night should draw well.

Bicyclists.—Messrs. Wilmut and Scovell, the famous bicyclists, arrived at the Walker House this morning, to take part in Lord Belmont's Society night and matinee at the Pavilion. They are recently from Boston, but later from Denver, where they were engaged for one week but remained a month, exhibiting over 20,000 people. Professor Wilmut rides a single wheel, with no support of saddle or rear wheel. Their advertisement is in another column.

Taking the Paper.—Complaints come to us of persons who, in taking the News from the boxes of subscribers, are glad to hear that the paper is appreciated, but lest some reader, deprived of his evening pabulum, should protest with something more tangible than words to this method of acquiring information at such expense and without remuneration, we would kindly advise those who wish to read the News, to take it of the publishers at the price advertised, and not steal it from those who have delivered for their own private use.

Dialogues and Recitations.—The latest publication of the Juvenile Instructor office is a little book of 98 pages, containing Sunday-school dialogues and recitations designed for public and private entertainments. They are on a variety of subjects, religious, didactic, etc., and are prefaced by a series of valuable hints on elocution and costume. We believe this little book will be well received, as it is a step in the right direction towards meeting a want that has long existed. This volume, which is No. 1, will be followed ere long by others of its series.

The London Bank Trouble.—At the amount of nearly $25,000 have been issued against the London Bank of Utah, since the issuance of the Bowers writ. The later papers are at the instance of depositors, eighteen in number, who hardly relish the idea of their money being locked up in the litigation now pending in the Bowers case.

A number of depositors have consolidated their claims, and brought an attachment in the name of Jacob E. Bamberger, for $4,000. The Attorneys for the Bank, Baskin and Van Horne, have moved for a dissolution, a hearing upon which will take place before Judge Hunter on Friday at 10 a. m. There is some talk of Mr. Austin's giving a $50,000 bond, to release the Bowers attachment and pay off the depositors, but it is said that affairs look gloomy for the Bank.

PERSONAL.

Judge R. K. Williams is down from Ogden.

Hon. Hosea Stout was among our morning callers.

Elder George C. Parkinson left for the north this afternoon.

Elder W. W. Howe, of Logan, returned from a mission to the Southern States night before last. He is 27 years of age, and was called to Chattanooga, Tenn., to take charge of the mission office, where he spent a little over 13 months, and released. He is in the midst of his first year.

SUICIDE.

LEVI B. JONES FOUND DEAD NEAR KATVILLE.

The other evening the News announced the rumor of the finding of the dead body of a man, near Stewart and Fluey's store, Katville, and stated that it was supposed he had died from exposure, and had been dead for some time. A correspondent signing "Otto" writes from there on the 8th inst., giving the following account of the matter, which confirms the rumor heretofore made public:

It seems that on last Sunday evening James Cridde was out hunting his cows, in a hollow some distance above Mr. Wetzel's mill, when he came across the body of a man, lying in a bunch of oakbrush. It had evidently been lying there some three, or four months. When found the flesh was off the head and neck, and one hand was completely gone. The body was lying on its back, in such a position that the sun shone upon it most of the time. From the papers found upon the body it proved to be Levi B. Jones, commonly known as "Otto's" victim.

He evidently committed suicide by taking morphine or strychnine. It could not be definitely ascertained which, as there was a little bottle of each found on him or near where he lay. The coroner was summoned, a jury was empaneled and the verdict in accordance with the above facts. This is the same man the News referred to some time ago, as having attempted rape upon his own daughter. After the inquest was held, the body was turned over to the Sexton for interment.

DALLIN ON ART.

LAST NIGHT'S LECTURE IN THE TWELFTH WARD.

The announcement that Mr. C. E. Dallin, the sculptor, would lecture on art, in the Twelfth Ward Assembly Room last evening, drew out a goodly audience. The artists of the city were there in force, and it was evident they were much interested in the effort of the evening. The lecturer was introduced by Gershom Wells, President of the Mutual Improvement Association.

He dwelt principally on sculpture, but also treated of painting and architecture. After looking at the statue of art existed before the Christian era, and that modern art was more or less repetitive and analytical, ancient painting and sculpture being chiefly representative of form, while modern art was devoted more to features and details. He illustrated the point by showing a reduction of Praxiteles' Hermes, an ancient masterpiece, of which many copies had been made, the one presented being a specimen of his own workmanship.

He also exhibited by means of a stereoscope, a series of views of statues and architecture, projected upon a canvas occupying the proscenium. The lecture was over an hour in length and was delivered for the most part extemporaneously. The speaker began with notes, but finding that they hampered him, soon discarded them. Lack of time prevented his showing the art can, as yet in its infancy, but it was evident he could have gone on for hours had time permitted.

The lecture was somewhat abstruse and technical, and while of especial interest to artists, was something beyond the general appreciation. The introduction of anecdotes, a more copious interspersing of simple illustrations, together with items of personal experience, would have made it much more intelligible and popular. However, at another time all this can be taken up, and the lecture will be not only valuable, as it is now in a technical view, but popular as well, and hence more instructive generally. We would like to hear Mr. Dallin again at no distant day, with the results of these suggestions embodied in his already excellent lecture.

JOHN ROWBERRY.

A BRIEF SKETCH OF A USEFUL LIFE.

The last offices of respect to the late Patriarch John Rowberry, of Tooele, who died of heart-disease on Friday, the 4th inst., were held on Tuesday the 8th, at 2 p. m., in the meeting house at that place. Every seat was occupied, many relatives being present in the congregation. Among the speakers were Bishop T. Atkins, Jr., R. M. McKelvin, A. Parker, T. Atkins, Sr., D. W. Brown, Wm. J. McKelvin, and the Rev. Bishop Moses Martin, who all spoke of the worth, and faithfulness, and the good examples given them by the teachings and life of the deceased.

John Rowberry was born in England, August 14, 1827, and embraced the Gospel in Hampshire, his native place, at the time Apostle Wilford Woodruff, by revelation, was sent into that region. He was baptized by Brother Woodruff. He emigrated with the first of the Saints that came to Nauvoo from England, and was in the persecutions and sufferings of the Saints while being driven from that place. Previous to leaving he received his blessings and endowments in the Nauvoo Temple, which he had labored faithfully to build. He crossed the plains in 1849, in E. T. Benson's company, and in the fall of that year he was married and made his home, along with a few others, in what was then a sage-brush and willow fort, and was with the people as the first and only Bishop in Tooele county until it was organized in 1854.

He went on a mission to his native land in 1850, returning in 1857, and was ordained and set apart as the President of the High Priest's Quorum of this Stake, and shortly after was ordained a Patriarch. He represented Tooele county in the Legislative Assembly for several years, and was an active advocate for laws and principles that would benefit the people. All who knew him speak well of him as a fatherly and kind Bishop, always on hand to bless and aid the poor, and as the kind and affectionate father of a large family. His sickness was but brief, and he passed away without pain. His faith was steadfast in the truth and he died in full hope of a glorious resurrection. The remains were followed to the cemetery by 61 carriages.

SANPETE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE.

The eighth session of the Sanpete Educational Institute, at Ephraim, Saturday March 29th, was one of more than usual interest. Besides a large attendance of teachers, trustees, and members, President Canute Peterson, Counselor H. Beal and other leading citizens were present. At 10.30 a. m. meeting was called to order by President J. B. Malben, who also made a few opening remarks, replete with good instructions. Then followed class exercises in arithmetic conducted by J. E. Christianson; class in spelling by Peter Greaves Jr., and class in grammar by Miss Helen Armstrong, all conducted in an able and comprehensive manner. Recitation, "Shylock," by Geo. Scott, received general applause, and select readings by E. Day, and Prest. Malben were listened to with marked interest. The afternoon meeting had a lecture on history and its benefits, by Geo. Scott, well delivered, after which came a class in reading by S. E. Christianson, a class in geography by E. Day; lecture on penmanship by Peter Greaves Jr., and a class in reading by J. F. Albrecht, which were conducted in a creditable manner. The beautiful singing and instrumental music, rendered by Misses Morrison and Dehlin, of Mt. Pleasant, was much appreciated and added greatly to the enjoyment. Prest. Peterson said he was much pleased to see the interest manifested by the Institute in the cause of education. We should all strive to become educated, and then use our learning in righteousness. He gave much good and timely instruction. Bro. Kenner of Manti, made a short, spirited speech, and Prest. Malben made a few closing remarks of general instructions to the members of the Institute.

BRITANNIA STANDS UNRIVALLED.

Those troubled with rheumatism, who have tried other remedies and still are unrelieved, will certainly obtain relief within three days, and generally within six hours by taking Britannia. This great remedy was discovered by an eminent English physician of great experience, and who has never lost a patient to whom this medicine was administered. Britannia is not a lotion; no external application can permanently cure rheumatism, which is a disease of the blood. Britannia is prepared with the greatest skill, and a teaspoonful being taken in a wineglass of cold water immediately induces the perspiration, where it corrects the painful element, removes it immediately from the system, and gradually builds up the entire system. Persons who have used this valuable preparation in Utah, tell us that nothing ever helped them as Britannia has done. Many references in Salt Lake City and elsewhere can be given.

Wm. T. Ford, of Kansas City, writes: "The demand for 'Prickly Ash Bitters' in this city (as comes under my observation), has been simply enormous, and although averse to recommending proprietary medicines, I am thoroughly convinced of the special value of cases for which they are recommended they have no equal, and give eminent satisfaction to those who have used them."

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who Tack with his own Pet Scheme—Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are blind, city fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necktie under your chin, or a magnet out with an entire set of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden benches or in gutties of water. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly overrated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Sincerely on this foundation, stands BENSON'S CAPSINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capsine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

Look in the middle of the plaster for the word "CAPSINE." Price 25 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.
