LOCAL NEWS.

Cheap Sale.—In our advertising columns will be found, an announcement by Z. C. M. I., of a heavy reduction in the prices of winter goods. Wraps, knit goods, hosiery, underwear, blankets, woolen goods, and a great variety of new and fashionable fabrics are included in the sale.

Services at the Pen.—Religious services were held at the Penitentiary yesterday afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock. The ladies and gentlemen who did the singing were Mrs. Lou McEvan, Miss Nellie Hardy, Mrs. Edith Knowlton, George D. Payer and John Midgley. Elder Rodney C. Badger gave a very interesting discourse on the Life and Example of Jesus Christ.

An Expensive Drink.—On Saturday night John Edwards went into Fitzgerald's den under the Washoe corner, and imbibed too freely of intoxicants. He was arrested by the police, and was fined $5 this morning for drunkenness. When he came to reckon up his assets he found that of about $50 in cash which he had on entering the saloon, he had nothing left.

Halfway Accident.—As the Utah and Northern passenger train was nearing Ogden on Thursday evening last the engine and baggage and mail cars jumped the track owing to the breaking of a guard placed at the switch to prevent the rails from spreading. The engine went several rods after leaving the rails and retained its upright position, but the two cars mentioned were tipped over on their sides, and the latter slightly smashed. The remainder of the train, consisting of three cars full of passengers, came to a sudden halt, shaking up the passengers somewhat, but without injuring any of them seriously. The men who jumped from the engine and falling cars had narrow escapes.

Holidays in the 16th Ward.—Bishop F. Kessler and his Counselors ever having a desire to cheer and comfort those under their watchcare, suggested and had the following program carried out in that Ward during the holidays:

A party for the Sunday School children was given on Saturday afternoon, the 29th, conducted by Peter Gillespie, superintendent of the Sunday School, and Peter Reid and Alvin Vincent, his assistants. About 400 children were present, to whom candies were freely distributed. Good music was a pleasing feature; and a limited time was given to dancing. All passed off in good order.

The next was a grand feast of the good things of the earth (with which Utah at present abounds) for the benefit of the aged widows and indigent of the ward. It was prepared by the officers and members of the Relief Society and others, presided over by Sister Diana J. Reid and her counselors, who know how to make a table look inviting. Sister Priscilla Jennings carefully setting one entire table. This was given on Tuesday, the 29th, in the school rooms. The people were seated in regular order, all the widows—30 in number—at one table, the more aged occupying the head of the table. The older was 94 years. About 400 people of the bounteous repast, and a very large amount was left and distributed to the needy of the ward. At 4 o'clock the Bishop and his counselors made a few fitting remarks, reminding their hearers of the great blessings which the Lord has in store for his faithful children, and that although the wicked bear rule and are permitted to oppress the people of God and in every way seek to deprive them of their constitutional rights, and, if in their power, deprive them of even the right to think and believe, it was for the Saints to be true and faithful unto all that the Lord had revealed pertaining to the exaltation of His faithful children. It was predicted the time would end and was near at hand when the hand of the wicked would be removed from off the faithful Latter-day Saints, and God would judge them and they would be found waiting when weighed in the Lord's balances. It must needs be that offenses come, but who auto that man by whom the offense comes.

The choir sang at the opening and closing of the exercises, the grand band was in attendance and discoursed sweet and appropriate music, and the house was most beautifully decorated for the occasion.

In the evening a ward reunion was held, at which a number of the veterans of Nauvoo day were present, and enjoyed themselves in recounting old scenes as well as in the dance.

Bound Over.—George W. Johnson, who was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Thomas Fowler, on a charge of grand larceny, in having stolen David Henderson's horse from the back of Teasdale's store on Dec. 2nd, had a preliminary examination before Justice Pyper this morning. Mr. Henderson testified to the ownership of the horse, and identified the animal.

Mosiah Mercer also gave his evidence to the effect that on December 23d, he was in the employ of Mr. Larkins, at the mouth of East Canon, Tooele County. On that date Johnson stopped at Larkins' place, then went to Ophir City, and returned in the evening, having the horse with him. Johnson stated that he had just ridden in from Teasdale's, Nevada, was "strapped," and wished to sell the horse, saddle and bridle, which he did to Mr. Larkins, receiving therefor $20, and giving a bill of sale. Mercer afterward bought the animal for $24, and took it to American Fork, where he met Johnson, and in conversation asked the latter if he was not somewhat crooked about the transaction, as he had seen a newspaper account of the theft of a horse answering the same description. Johnson said it was all right, as he had a bill of sale for the animal.

O. W. Johnson, the prisoner, then related his story, claiming to have bought the horse, saddle and bridle from Pat Murphy, in Salt Lake City, on December 22, for $15. From here he went to Stockton, and sold the animal to Mr. Larkins. He also stated that at American Fork Mercer had accused him of having stolen the horse, and wanted him to take it back and refund the money; on his refusal to do this, Johnson says Mercer tried to shoot him, but was prevented by his brother-in-law. The prisoner claimed that a man named James Dillon, of Park City, stopping at the White House, was a witness to the bill of sale, which could not be found. At the White House, he was learned that Dillon had not been there at the time stated.

Johnson's bonds to await the action of the grand jury were placed at $1,000, but failing to furnish security, he was committed to jail. He evidently has not relished his week's confinement in the city prison, and asked to be turned over to the county jail as soon as possible. This was done to-day.

While Justice Pyper was announcing his decision, the prisoner interrupted him with a terrorizing assertion that if his case was sent up to the grand jury he would implicate forty or fifty others. The threat was unheeded, however, and it looks as though the "forty-or-fifty" would dwindle down to one—Johnson himself.

Obsequies.—The funeral service over the remains of Brother Francis Platt, whose death occurred some time since, but whose burial was deferred to await the return of his son from a mission to the Southern States, was held yesterday in the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Rooms. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity by the relatives and friends of the deceased, and the services, after the opening prayer and hymns had been offered, commenced by Bishop O. F. Whitney reading a biographical sketch of the deceased, written by Elder John Nicholson. Following that, speeches of an interesting and rather varied character, but all expressive of the esteem in which Brother Platt had been universally held, and the worthy character of his life, were made by Elders George Goddard, Wm. Taylor, John F. Russell, F. Little, Wm. B. Barlow, N. A. Emery, P. Armstrong and H. C. Park, Apostle H. J. Grant and Bishop O. F. Whitney and M. Atwood. The benediction was pronounced by Elder Robert Patrick, and the audience left without viewing the remains of their dead friend, it being deemed unwise to uncover the coffin.

The casket, the railing of the stand and the tables that stood in front of it were beautifully decorated with flowers.

Elder John Nicholson, who, at the special request of the bereaved family and by courtesy of Marshal Ireland, had been permitted to come in from the Penitentiary to attend the funeral, occupied a seat on the stand, and many of his acquaintances flocked around him at the close of the service for the privilege of shaking hands with and expressing sympathy for him in the imprisonment which he is enduring for conscience' sake. He looked quite ruddy and appeared to be in excellent health.

Court at Ogden.—In the First District Court, at Ogden, this morning, David M. Stuart, convicted of unlawful cohabitation, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the Utah Penitentiary, to pay a fine of $300 and costs of suit, and to stand committed until paid. In the case of C. W. Hemmaway, convicted on a charge of libel on the defendant promising to refrain from uttering or publishing anything libelous in the future, sentence was deferred until February.

In the case of Lorenzo Snow, charged with unlawfully cohabiting with his wife, defendant filed a motion to bar proceedings on the two indictments pending against him, on the ground he already been convicted on a similar charge.

Frank Whasler, convicted of grand larceny, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the Utah Penitentiary.

Jack Hayes, convicted of an attempt to commit rape, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment in the county jail.

James M. Brown, convicted of assault with a dangerous weapon, was fined $40.

Manti Mortuary.—Geo. Drahtewalle, sexton of Manti, Sanpete County, sends us the following account of the mortality in that city during the year just closed:

Premature birth, 3; lung fever, 1; old age, 2; heart disease, 2; summer complaint, 1; childhood, 2; black cancer, 1; dropsy, 1; water on the brain, 1; pneumonia, 1; typhoid fever, 1; influenza, 1; indigestion of the bowels, 1; accidentally killed, 1; not reported, 2. Total, 22.

Six of the number were children under one year of age, and a division of the sexes shows 14 females and 8 males.

The Home Dramatic.—The audience at the Theatre on Saturday evening, at the last presentation of "Don Quixote," was not so large as on the previous occasion. George's comedy was demonstrative. The place went off with that vim which is becoming characteristic of the Home Dramatic Club's performances, and makes them popular with theatre goers. The play given by them are rendered in such style as to make them very more deserving of patronage than many traveling shows that have exhibited here, and it would certainly be desirable for the Club to engage better for the amusement of the public.

Robert Cordie, who was arrested last week for fighting, left $10 for his appearance, but failing to come, the amount was forfeited.

CARD OF THANKS.

BURRICK, Tintic, Utah, Dec. 31st, 1885.

Editor Deeser's News:

Mrs. Hesselgrave, widow of the late Joseph Hesselgrave, requests me to write, asking that you be kind enough to present her sincere thanks to the good people of Tintic and Payson and vicinity for their many kindnesses to her in her late sudden and unfortunate bereavement.

Mr. H. was universally respected by all who knew him.

Very respectfully yours,
J. C. GAMMON,
Mining Engineer.

Diphtheria.—The quarantine physician reports to-day that there has been a reduction of five in the number of persons afflicted with diphtheria, since Saturday, four having recovered, leaving eighteen cases now known in the city. A rumor was current to-day that there were five cases in the family of A. W. Benson, in the Nineteenth Ward, but the report lacks confirmation.

A Lecherous Scoundrel.—Saturday's Ogden Herald contains the following account of an incident which illustrates the tendency of the "reformatory" influence that is now being brought to bear upon Utah:

One evening this week a certain individual who has been a resident of Ogden for some time past, in company with the wife of a year old daughter of one of our citizens, called at a private boarding house on Main Street, and applied for a night's lodging. The girl stayed on the street while her paramour entered the room and passed themselves off as man and wife. They spent the night in the room and the girl returned to her home the next morning, and it seems, confessed guilt and gave the name of her lecherous father. A day or two later the matter was put into the hands of the police; but the male rascal had left for parts unknown.

The father of the girl has not taken any steps, as yet, to apprehend the villain who robbed his daughter of her virtue. The scoundrel referred to has been occupied here as a tinner and has used the police register in such matters is not much less than criminal.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

Rev. Father Fitzgerald, of the Catholic Church, in Evanston, Wyoming, intends coming to Lake City shortly, to remain at the Sisters' Hospital for a few weeks, in the hope of improving his health.

On New Year's day four prisoners confined in the county jail at Butte, Montana, made a desperate attempt to escape. They seized the jailer, disarmed him, and endeavored to get possession of the keys. The jailer, however, held on to them, shouting for help, and though struck a very severe blow over the eye with a pickaxe, succeeded in retaining his keys until assistance arrived. The prisoners had seen through a one-inch iron bar with a case knife which had been used as a saw.

Mr. George Southam, who for many years has been a resident of Tintic County, Wyoming, met with a fatal accident near his residence on Bear River, last Christmas day, while engaged in business and visiting his family. His wife wished him to remain to eat dinner, but owing to having stock shut up at home, he needed feeding, he decided to return to the ranch, eight miles distant, feed the animals, and then return to his wife and children, after which he intended to attend the Christmas dinner at his home. The "Norman" meeting house and then go to the ranch next morning. As he left, he told his wife that if nothing happened, he would be back by 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The stated time came, and the family waited for an hour or more, then, coming to the conclusion that matters of importance had detained him, they gave up seeking him for the day. Evening came on and the family were busy engaged in preparing to attend the Christmas tree, when one of the daughters, a young woman, sang out to her mother that she heard her father drive up to the stable and shout "whee!" to his team. Singing was made ready, and as it was getting late, the family left for church, leaving the horse and carriage to take care of themselves. The next morning the family found the horse and carriage in the stable, and the father was nowhere to be seen. The search was made at the ranch and on the river bank, but no trace of him was found. It was at this juncture that a number of citizens proceeded to cut him out from a shallow rifle below, where it was known that the body could not pass, and after three days' hard work they found the corpse a few feet below the river. The remains were taken to Evanston, an inquest held and verdict returned in accordance with the facts. It was found upon examination that his neck was broken, but it is supposed that the frozen blood broke through the ice with such suddenness as to break his neck, after which force he fell from the river and was forced him under the ice. The funeral services over the remains of the deceased were held at the residence of his wife, where a large number of friends gathered. The deceased was a "Mormon," was held in the meeting house at Evanston on Wednesday evening last, and was sent to Randolph, Utah, for internment in the cemetery, where several of his children were buried. Brother Southam was fifty-six years of age, and leaves a wife and a large family of children, most of whom are bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.
