

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

A pretty appointed luncheon was that given by the Misses Noble at the Commercial club on Thursday. The event was in honor of Mrs. Baldwin and Miss Glendinning and about 12 guests were present. The table was beautifully decorated in white and green, the centerpiece consisting of a great bowl of white carnations and plumosa, and garlands of the green made a border for the table. At either end were silver candelsticks with pale green shades, and the place cards were bunches of violets tied with green ribbon and bearing the name of each guest in gold letters. Besides the guests of honor were present Mrs. Robert Glendinning, Mrs. William O'Brien, Mrs. David S. Murray, Mrs. Louise Smedley Smith, Mrs. R. H. Channing, Mrs. Union Worthington, Mrs. Mabel Milner McClure, Mrs. Arthur H. S. Bird and the Misses Deely and Burke.

Dr. and Mrs. Clarence T. Brown were guests of honor at a delightful reception on Thursday night given at the Congregational church parlors, the affair being in charge of the Ladies' Aid society of the church. During the evening the rooms were thronged with the friends of the popular couple, all extending expressions of regret at their departure and wishes for their success and welfare in their future home. The event was a delightfully social one and much enjoyed by those present. A feature of the occasion was the presentation to Dr. Brown of a purse of $112 dollars from his former parishioners, a brief speech being made by C. E. Allen and the recipient responding in a few heartfelt words of thanks.

Mrs. Elmer Jones entertained at a pretty luncheon today in honor of Mrs. Plummer, president of the Reviewers' club. The tables were decorated with spring blossoms, each having its special flower—daffodils, violets, tulips and lilies of the valley. The place cards were tied with ribbons corresponding in color to the flowers on the table, the effect altogether being most effective. Toasts were made by Mrs. Plummer, Mrs. Wightman, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Richards, and the entire affair was delightful. About 18 guests were present.

The last assembly ball of the season took place on Thursday night at Christensen's and was voted by nearly all present as the most enjoyable of the season. The music was all that could be desired and a large number were present to enjoy the event.

MADRID TALKING OF ALFONSO'S PROJECTED MARRIAGE TO PRINCESS LOUISE FRANCOISE

An apparently well substantiated rumor is going the rounds of European court circles that Alfonso, the boy king of Spain, is shortly to take unto himself a bride. The lady who is to be honored with a share of the throne of Spain is said to be the Princess Louise Francoise, daughter of the Comtesse de Paris. Last September it was rumored that the Duke of Orleans had offered her hand to Alfonso and the court nobles were urging his majesty to accept the offer. The Spanish ministry, on the other hand, fearing complications with the French government were not in favor of his acceptance. The recurrence of the rumor at this time seems to indicate a removal of these objections.
