DISCOURSE.

PREST. JOHN TAYLOR,
Delivered at the General Conference, Tuesday afternoon, April 22, 1879, ONLY SECOND DAY.

I will state that I feel very much obliged to my brethren for the generous feeling manifested to me, with regard to the discourse delivered by Brother George Q. Cannon, and which was presented to me and others of the Twelve, that while I feel very much obliged to my brethren, and I feel that I would not wish to change my position, I feel that I have nothing to say about the outside show, the glitter and appearance of men; but I do care about the great eternal principles of the Kingdom of God, and the Kingdom of God upon the earth. And as has been stated, it was some time before I could make up my mind to accept a proposition of the kind, and I accept it now simply in the capacity of my servant for Christ, and for the benefit of the Kingdom of God, and that all things may be conducted in a proper manner.

LYON'S KATHAIRON.

Don't forget thirty-five years ago Prof. Lyon, of Vt., the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair. It is the best hair dressing ever used, and it is the only one that will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed. It actually performs these seeming miracles, for which the following is a fair specimen.

A FAIR SPECIMEN.

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.
