THE scarcity of Diamonds, Gold and Silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value.

Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Ang's Kidney and German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom or put out a prairie fire with a tear.

For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections, it is unequalled. Its cure is truly magical. Ask your Druggist for it. The genuine bears the signature of Dr. Ang, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents.

Power of Speaking Restored.
NEWARK, Ontario, D. C., March 30, 1879.
Jonat. Petheringill writes: Some two months ago my son lost his voice. None of the physicians could do him any good. Two hours after taking the second dose of Elixir of Hypophosphites, his power of speaking was perfectly restored, and he died well.

MANY a dollar formerly spent on expensive sulphur baths is now saved by substituting therefor Glenn's Sulphur Soap, which is just as beneficial, and infinitely cheaper. Local diseases of the skin, rheumatism and gout are all relieved by this standard remedy. Complexional blemishes are eradicated by it, and it imparts to the cuticle a pearly whiteness and velvety softness which greatly enhances the effect of female charms. Its soothing, antipruritic action constitutes it a prime remedy for sores, ulcers, cuts, sprains, scalds, bruises, and in fact every abnormal condition of the skin attended by inflammation, swelling or itching. Ladies moving in our best society speak of its beautifying properties in enthusiastic terms, and give it a decided preference to cosmetics which merely conceal but do not, like Glenn's Sulphur Soap, eradicate defects of the complexion. The use of cosmetics for eruptive complaints is to be deprecated because of their having a tendency to clog the pores and in some cases to aggravate rather than remedy the disease. They are, besides, seldom thorough enough in their effects to prevent the recurrence of eruptions of an inveterate type, and have the disadvantage of soiling the linen of persons who use them. GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, on the contrary, radically cures the disease to which it is adapted, and still further recommends itself on account of its cleanliness. It is besides, an admirable disinfectant of clothing which has been worn by persons afflicted with diseases of a contagious nature. As a specific, preventive and promoter of the general health it presents advantages of the most unequivocal description.

JOHN D. T. MCALLISTER.

Returned.—Judge Pyper vacated last evening from a week's vacation in Sanpete Valley. He enjoyed his brief journey and looks much better for the "out."

Cover Them Up.—There are a number of uncovered apertures on the west sidewalk of Main Street, which need some attention. Though partially covered by projecting windows the holes are in a dangerous condition.

Home Again.—Messrs. Needham, Rolison and Cowan, of Teasdel's mercantile house, have just returned from an expedition to the head of Provo River. Of course they report that they made things lively for the fish.

Not Forgotten.—The three imprisoned ex-convicts, Elders Cannon Young and Carrington, each received yesterday by express a mammoth fresh trout, packed in ice, sent from Provo, with the compliments and best wishes of P. Maden & Sons.

The brethren also received on Saturday a magnificent floral wreath, made and presented by a lady of this city.

Accidents.—A young man named Joe. Dickman, a resident of the 19th Ward, was severely injured today at Snell's Quarry, near the Warm Springs. He had drilled a hole, had put in the blast and was tamping in the dirt, when he discovered that the fuse had come out. He then commenced digging out the wadding with a spoon, to put the fuse back in, when the charge, which was of giant powder, exploded, burning him in a terrible manner. His hand was badly shattered and his face was so mutilated that it was thought his eyesight was destroyed. Dr. Ballou, who is attending the patient, does not think the matter so serious, however, and has hopes of the speedy recovery of his injured charge.

A man named Murphy, who was injured by an explosion in Idaho, about the 5th inst., came down on the U. C. train, Saturday morning, and was conveyed to the hospital for treatment. The upper part of his body is badly burned, but at last accounts he was progressing favorably.

An eight year old son of Brother Isaac Brockbank, received injuries this morning which were for a time considered dangerous. He attempted to jump down some steps leading into the cellar, when he fell face foremost down the ladder, and was picked up insensible. He is all right now.

Calder's Farm.—On Saturday the employees of Z. C. M. I. boot department and tannery had an excursion to Calder's Farm. The occasion, we are informed by "a visitor," was a decided success, every one participating being sociable and happy. At about 11 o'clock a concert took place, with Professor Beasley as leader. A splendid string band with organ accompaniment was present, and discoursed sweet music. After dinner, which commenced immediately, and was kept up in fine style. Later in the day, Hon. Wm. Jennings paid a visit to the gardens and made a very appropriate speech upon capital and labor. His remarks were much appreciated, and at their termination three cheers were given for the speaker. All went home happy, without an accident having occurred to impair the pleasure of the day.

Fire.—About two o'clock this afternoon, the stables of G. G. Bywater and W. D. Williams, 17th Ward, were discovered to be in flames. Dense volumes of smoke arose and a large crowd soon assembled at the scene of the conflagration. The buildings were of frame, and filled with hay, so the progress of the devouring element was rapid. A bucket brigade was early at work and did good service in preventing the spread of the flames, and on the arrival of the fire brigade, the smoldering embers were deluged in water.

The fire was started by a little four year old boy, who was playing with matches. A pig was in one of the stables, but was dragged out unharmed. The total loss will probably aggregate about $500.

A Lively Animal.—As the horse carts were going to the fire this afternoon, Mr. Sam. Groesbeck rode along on horseback and took hold of a rope to assist in dragging the apparatus to its destination. He had only got well started, however, when his horse commenced jumping and kicking in an alarming manner. The rider clung on manfully for about two and a half seconds, when he was thrown high into the air, but alighting in a spot where the dust was particularly plentiful, escaped with no injury. The animal ran a few times around the street and sidewalk among the crowd, to the no slight consternation of the latter, and finally struck a bee-line for its stable.

Notice to Teamsters.—The practice of unhitching and feeding valmala along the sides of the principal streets, is becoming a source of complaint to business men and residents in the neighborhood where the nuisance is committed. There are specified places where teams can be fed without annoying anybody, and to such localities teams must hereafter be driven. The police themselves have said it, and its greatly to their credit.

"Dispatch" Notes.—On Friday a tramp boarded a C. P. train near Kelton, and on being ordered off the car, snatched a pistol at the brakeman. He was permitted to ride on the next train, however, and on reaching Ogden was arrested, examined before a commissioner and bound over.

Mrs. L. R. Freeman, late of Ogden, met with a severe, though not fatal, accident while en route for Butte City, Montana, a few days ago. She was riding in a wagon between the Terminus and her destination, when a shotgun lying in the vehicle was in some manner discharged, the contents entering one of Mrs. Freeman's limbs, near the knee and coming out at the hip. A portion of the wadding is yet in the wound, but it is not considered dangerous.

Information Wanted.—John Wheaton, of Herriman, Salt Lake County, would like to hear something concerning John William Breadwiner, Dorsetshire, England, on the 15th of June, 1878, crossing the Atlantic in the S. S. Wyoming. When last heard from he was in Kanosh, Millard County, Utah.

The Reason Why.—On account of disappointment in the arrival of paper for publishing, the Woman's Exponent of August 18th will not be issued until Wednesday, the 20th inst. We trust our subscribers will excuse this unavoidable delay.

E. B. WELLS.
Office Woman's Exponent.

Malad.—"R. G. E." writes particulars of the recent fire in Malad, which, however, is already appeared in our columns. Brother Daniel Daniels, former bishop of the settlement, is quite sick, a severe cold having settled on his lungs.

Mysterious Death.—Yesterday morning, about 6 o'clock, Coroner Taylor was waited upon by an officer, who informed him that a dead man had just been found on the sidewalk near the Congregational Church, Third South Street. An inquest was soon after held upon the body of the deceased, when the following particulars and verdict were made known.

The deceased was a German butcher, about 36 or 37 years old, named Valentine Faubel. He has relatives in San Francisco and has been in Salt Lake seven or eight years. When he left his shop, near the Idaho store, on Saturday evening, he is supposed to have had $30 or $40 on his person.

Geo. Hawkes testified that he had seen Faubel at 9 o'clock on Saturday night, and that he had several times heard him complain of a severe trouble with his head.

Geo. Rents saw deceased a little before 11 o'clock on Saturday evening and he seemed all right then. Witness thought he had about $80 with him. Deceased wanted to see witness early next morning.

Following the introduction of the foregoing testimony a post mortem examination was made by Dr. Thompson and Anderson and the inquest was adjourned till 1 p. m.

There was found upon the person of the deceased a nickel-plated five-shooter pistol, two dollars in silver, a knife, seven keys, a silver watch and chain and a gold ring.

At 1 p. m. Dr. Thompson testified that he and Dr. Anderson had opened the body and found no sufficient cause for death, though they thought he died from apoplexy. No bloodvessels were ruptured, but little tubercles were found over the brain. Think apoplexy caused the death of the man, because of the amount of blood in the skull, though a blow with a sandbag could have produced a similar effect. All the bruises and marks found upon the body might have been caused by the fall upon the gravel. If he had been struck with a sandbag greater marks would have been left.

Dr. Anderson stated that apoplexy is the hemorrhage of a vessel in the brain which bursts. Deceased had a diseased condition of the brain, having endured severe pains in his head, which incapacitated him from work at times. There is not sufficient evidence to show that he received a blow from a club or bludgeon, and if struck at all, it must have been with some yielding weapon like a sandbag. He had fallen with pain once before.

Sarah Hague went out at 5 a. m., Sunday morning and saw the body, which was found opposite her bedroom, Mr. Burt and an old gentleman were standing near. Dreamed that she heard some one cry "help."

Peter A. Burt, night watchman, testified as follows: At ten minutes to five I saw old man Brown near the Cliff House, and, passing along, saw this body lying on the ground. Thought the man was drunk, and called to Brown. Then discovered the body was cold. The head was lying west with the right arm crooked. I saw no marks of feet.

A. S. Chapman heard two blows about 11:30 p. m. on Saturday evening. They were in rapid succession, were accompanied by an angry exclamation of three or four words, and succeeded by a scuffling noise. Saw a large, round shouldered man, with a drunken look, to his walk, pass, going west. The man was traveling faster than a usual gait, and appeared under the influence of liquor.

Mrs. M. A. Chapman also heard two blows and some angry remarks. This was between 11 and 12 o'clock. The testimony in the case being closed, the jurors returned the following VERDICT:

Territory of Utah,
County of Salt Lake.

An inquisition, holden at the residence of Mr. Faubel, in the Second Precinct of Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah, on the 17th day of August, A. D. 1879, before George J. Taylor, Coroner of said county, upon the body of Valentine Faubel, there lying dead, by the jurors whose names are hereunto subscribed.

The said jurors upon their oaths do say, from the evidence before them, that he died from the effects of a diseased brain; that his death occurred on the south side of Third South Street, between East and West Temple streets, between the hours of 11 p. m. last night and 5 o'clock this morning.

In testimony whereof, the said jurors have hereunto set their hands, the day and year first above written.

CHARLES POPPER, Juror.
JOSEPH W. JOHNSON, Juror.
DAVID JAMES, Juror.
GEORGE J. TAYLOR, Coroner.

The deceased man has a wife who is visiting in some of the northern settlements. She has been telegraphed for, and the body will be preserved until her return.
