Beaten and Robbed-No Arrests. Special Correspondence. Lehi. Utah Co., Oct. 13.-Lehi has been having an epidemic of burglar scares the past week, and one et two robberles. Mon-day evening, while Mr. and Mrs. Sam-uel Peterson, were at the Republican rath-fication dance, in the city pavilion, they house was entered and $20 m money and some other things taken. The same evening, after the dance, while Mr. Parley Garfield, who is night-watchman at Wing's livery stable, was standing outside the stable, he was ap-proached by two men, one over six feet tail with a light moustache, and the other short and heavy with a dark moustache, who asked him to hitch up a buggy and horse for them. He said be could not let a rig go out at that time of night, where-upon they publed out six shooters and threatoned to kill him if the did not com-ply with their request. He told them they could kill him, but he would not give them a rig. They then hit him over the head whith a whip and took what change be had and they crossed the road to the S. P. L. & S. L. R. Co. depot and disappeared. Several other people report having scared men away who were prowing around their houses in the night time. Hon. Mosiah Evans was down from Garland Mouday brining with him his in-fant baby for burial here. Mrs. Evans being confined to her bed at Garland. Election Registrar in Grass Valley.

Kingston, Plute Co., Oct. 14.-Mr. Clifford C. King of this place, and Miss Annie Clark, formerly of Thurber, Wayne county, surprised their friends by getting married. They will reside at the home of the groom's father. On Monday, Cet. 10, the people here met at Elder King's home, with picnic and an enjoyable time was had. The occasion was a farewell social to Mr. and Mrs. King, who will spend the next two years in the St. George Temple, acompanied by their step-daughter. As this precinct is about 15 miles in length, the county commissioners plosion. It is reported that the con-cussion was felt in brick houses five blocks distant, fortunately however, no one was injured nor any other ma-terial damage was done, other than the breaking of windows.

INCREASED SCHOOL ATTEND-

Principal A. B. Anderson of the Beaver Branch of B. Y. U. reports an increased attendance over last year, with an unusual amount of interest in the school work. The mechanical department is proving a success. Quite a number of cases of typhoid fever are still in evidence, of a more or less serious character, but generally of a light form.
