FRAGMENTS.

The police court is busy enough now-a-days.
 The streets are lined with delegates to the Territorial Convention.
 The southeast mountains have commenced putting on their winter garb.
 The Duff Opera Company makes its first appearance in "Iolanthe" this evening.
 In the police court yesterday afternoon, the cases of Ely and Avery and Thomas Wall were concluded. Wall was discharged, and Avery fined $99 and thirty days' imprisonment. The charge was resorting to a house of ill fame for purposes of lewdness.

LOCAL NEWS.

Manifestation of Respect.—On Saturday last a large number of the brethren and sisters of East Mill Creek met in the schoolhouse and passed a series of resolutions commending to Brother Amos H. Neff, who had been convicted of unlawful cohabitation with his wife. A feast, addresses, singing, recitations, etc., were features of the occasion. We have received a detailed account of the affair, but cannot give it space.

Accidentally Shot and Killed.—Yesterday a telegram was received by Mr. George Beck—brother of Mr. John Beck, from Lehi, stating that his son John, aged about 18 years, had, while hunting near the town mentioned, been accidentally shot and expired a few minutes after receiving the wound. The unfortunate lad was a bright little fellow, and will be remembered by visitors to Beck's lot in the branch of the boy who had charge of the bath house during the whole of last season.

The Assignment of Lieut. R. W. Young.—The assignment of Richard W. Young, a Second Lieutenant of Artillery in the regular army of the United States, and a son of the late Brigham Young, to duty at Fort Douglas, Salt Lake City, Utah, has filled the faint souls of the anti-Mormons with fright. They say this will encourage the Mormons to believe that the Government is on their side, and that they need fear the army no longer.

And all this because the war Department thinks that Lieutenant Young needs instruction in the branch of service to which he belongs and sends him to Fort Douglas to receive it. Why, at the War Department it is not known that Lieutenant Young is a Mormon. They only knew him as Second Lieutenant Young.

What a ridiculous crowd those anti-Mormons must be, to be sure. And what a funk they fall into because a son of Brigham Young is coming home as a second lieutenant. Bah! They reason like asses and their courage is that of sheep.—Washington (D. C.) Herald.

More Commissioners.—A press of matter has prevented the earlier appearance in these columns of the following list of commissions that have been issued by the Governor since the morning of the 6th inst.:

Joseph W. Stewart, Constable, Benham precinct, Utah county; John Powers, Constable, Chalkwater precinct, Wasatch county; Elias W. Williams, Justice of the Peace, Rich county; John H. McArthur, Justice of the Peace, Rich county; Millard county; Ezekiel Lee, superintendant of districts, Rich county; James McMahon, Constable, Fillmore precinct, Utah county; W. C. Hanks, Justice of the Peace, Charleston precinct, Wasatch county; L. K. Stewart, Justice of the Peace, Benham precinct, Utah county; Ernest Peterson, Constable, Bittern precinct, Cache county; John H. Hanks, Justice of the Peace, Clarkston precinct, Cache county; Martin L. Tanner, Justice of the Peace, Rich county; Salt Lake county; Thomas W. Lee, Notary Public, Tooele county; S. Y. Frasier, Justice of the Peace, Woodruff precinct, Rich county; Alma Findlay, Justice of the Peace, Lakemore precinct, Rich county; Samuel Weston, Constable, Lakemore precinct, Rich county; Joseph Neville, Constable, Woodrich precinct, Rich county; Oscar F. Lyon, Notary Public, Summit county; Benjamin W. Jennings, Notary Public, Salt Lake county.

Inquest.—Yesterday a coroner's inquest was held over the body of H. S. Dalton, of whose death we gave an account in our last issue. Six witnesses were examined before the jury, from whose testimony it appears that deceased with several other persons, including Parley Evans, were drunk, and got into a quarrel over a game of pool at Beck's Hot Springs. Dalton insulted Evans just as the former was getting into a buggy. A scuffle ensued in which Dalton was brought violently to the ground. He was taken to the Deseret Hospital where he died of concussion of the brain. His arm was also broken. Following is the verdict:

Territory of Utah,
 County of Salt Lake,
 Fifth Precinct.

An inquisition held at the City Hall, in the Fifth precinct of Salt Lake, on the 11th day of October, 1886, before George D. Fryer, Justice of the Peace for said precinct and Acting Coroner of said county, upon the body of H. S. Dalton, by the jurors whose names are hereunto subscribed:

PLATFORM.

The People's Party of Utah Territory, by its chosen representatives in the Territorial Convention, do hereby proclaim for the careful consideration of all just men the following:

DECLARATION OF FACTS AND PRINCIPLES:

First.—We believe that the protection of life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness, should be the object of free government; that the Constitution of the United States represents the highest form of political government yet devised, and that the same should be the greatest possible liberty consistent with safety is guaranteed to every citizen.

Second.—We believe that free government can only exist where the people govern and exercise the unalienable right to choose their own officers; and that the doctrine that citizens resident in the Territories have no political rights inherent in themselves is at variance with the spirit and genius of our great Constitution.

Third.—We believe that the rights of the citizen under the Constitution should be made in courts free from local or general prejudice, and that justice should be evenly administered to every person, regardless of the class to which he belongs.

Fourth.—We believe that the right of trial by a fair and impartial jury is one of the most sacred and inalienable rights of the citizen, and that the trial of any one by a jury who have strong prejudices against the accused is a violation of the rights of justice and is a dangerous precedent which we solemnly denounce.

Fifth.—We believe that the right of the citizen under the Constitution to manage church property is a violation of the spirit of the first article of the amendments to the Constitution, and is practically a union of church and state.

Sixth.—We believe that the rights of the church to dominate the state, or of the state to dominate the church, are both dangerous to the liberty of the citizen.

Seventh.—We believe that the rights of the citizen under the Constitution to manage church property is a violation of the spirit of the first article of the amendments to the Constitution, and is practically a union of church and state.

Eighth.—We approve the administration of the laws of the Territory, and we are permitted to exercise the rights of self-government. We assert that we have proven our ability to control the business of the state economically, progressively, and justly.

Ninth.—We believe that the rights of the citizen under the Constitution to manage church property is a violation of the spirit of the first article of the amendments to the Constitution, and is practically a union of church and state.

Tenth.—We believe that the rights of the citizen under the Constitution to manage church property is a violation of the spirit of the first article of the amendments to the Constitution, and is practically a union of church and state.

NO CASE.

J. C. WATSON AGAIN ARRESTED BUT HE IS DISCHARGED.

Shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the news flew around town that Brother J. C. Watson, who has served one term in the Penitentiary for living with his wife, had just been arrested again upon the old charge. The news was true; and at about the time the warrant was being served, officers were on their way to subpoena members of his family. Soon after his arrest the defendant was out on the street, in charge of deputy Hall, looking for bondsmen. These were found in the persons of Jesse W. Fox, Jr. and B. F. Cummings, Jr., who, on appearing before Commissioner McKay, were accepted. A bond in the sum of $1,500 was executed to secure the defendant's appearance for examination. But what seemed a little odd was that, as soon as the bond was signed, the defendant did not leave the Commissioner's office as the examining magistrate proceeded as soon as the witnesses, who were momentarily expected, should arrive.

After a wait of half an hour, the witnesses not appearing, 7 o'clock in the evening was fixed upon for the hearing. At that hour a further continuance was taken till 10 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Varian appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. Moyle for the defense.

Mr. Varian: I am the wife of the defendant; I have ten children; nine at home. I know Ellen Ellen Watson. She is reputed to be married to my husband. She has six children, the youngest about a year old. My husband keeps a number of teams and teamsters. Some of them come to stay at my house, and some at the other house. My husband has lived at the house where he now lives, and he was indicted before. He came directly from the penitentiary to my house where he now lives. I have never been in his house nor she in mine since defendant left prison, or since he was indicted before.

Mr. Moyle: Mrs. Ellen Watson called at my house in the capacity of a religious teacher. Mr. Watson was not there when she called. I do not know whether I am the defendant's wife or not. I thought I was before he went to the penitentiary. I have never been divorced from him; my youngest child is about 14 months old.
