Rabbi M. P. Jacobson, formerly of this city, and now a resident of Shreve-port, La., is thus referred to by a lead-ing local paper: "Rabbi M. P. Jacob-son, of the Hebrew Zion congregation, was re-elected for five years at a salary of $4,000 per annum, an increase of $400. Rabbi Jacobson has given unqualified satisfaction in the conduct of his ministry, and his zeal, ability, broad culture and liberality of thought have won him golden opinions from his flock and the community generally. It is gratifying to note that his services and merits have received such signal recognition.

Miss Beula Fair, a young lady residing in the northwestern part of the city, met with a bad accident last night while returning home from a friend's The mishap occurred about 8 o'clock, at the corner of Eighth West and North Temple streets and was caused by the young lady stepping on a cover over a sewage manhole, which turned over and precipitated her below, a distance of perhaps five or six feet. Fortunately, her descent was stopped by certain cross pieces and she was later assisted out by a small boy. The young lady was considerably shaken up, besides suffering internal injuries.

Come to the surface in the spring as in no other season. It's a pity they don't run themselves all off that way; but in spite of pimples and other eruptions, they mostly remain in the system. That's had. That's bad. Hood's Sarsaparilla removes them and cures all the painful and disfigur-ing troubles they cause. Nothing else cleanses the system and clears the com-riexion like Hood's.

The St. Patrick's day entertainment given in the Sait Lake theater by the St. Mary's Cathedral choir under the direction of Miss Gleason will be repeated on the evening of April 11 in aid of Mrs. Charles H. Smith, whose destitute condition has so aroused the public sympathy.

Land and Water Commissioner Ben D. Luce received telegraphic bouquets on his appointment from A. 1. Jacobs in New York, and W. J. Barnett at Los Angeles. Mr. Jacobs also stated that would leave today by steamer to visit with his family in Germany.

A local dairy firm is realizing that ome men cannot be trusted. The management entrusted one of its drivers with the work of presenting bills last summer and collecting the same. The man put a large share of the collec-tions in his pockets, and returned the accounts as uncollected. Presently he resigned and went elsewhere to try his "fine Italian hand." The accounts re-mained on the books until the first of the year, when the management concluded it would be just as well to collect on the same. So printed notices were mailed in all directions requesting "debtors" to please settle, as the bills were long over-due. Most of the recipi-SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS.

Amusements

Florence Roberts closed her success-ful engagement at the Grand last night, and delighted a very good sized audience by the display of unexpected comedy talents in the part of "The Country Girl." It is not long since we saw Kathryn Kidder in this part, but it must be said in all frankness that Miss Roberts gives far and away the better presentation. That she could do a role on the "kittenish" order like Peggy, and play it with so much archness and humor, was astonishing to those who thought her talents lay entirely along lugubrious lines. She had a handsome reception, as did most of the members of her company.

At the Theater tonight the always welcome Denman Thompson in his un-dying "Old Homestead," opens an engagement which will run for three erformances. Mr. Thompson arrived from the north this morning and spent most of the day in shaking hands with old time friends, His business manager is his son, and oung Mr. Thompson narrates many laughable incidents that occur all along the road, when they meet people who thought his father had long since joined the great majority. Mr. Thompson, Sr., however, is only 70 years of age and looks 10 years younger.

"Down by the Sea." is the rather pretty title of a rather pretty little play that has been seen in Salt Lake before, and which opened at the Grand last night for a half week's engage-ment. It fells of the love, the temptations, the misunderstandings and sorrows of some of its principals in an interesting manner, and to the gratifica tion of the audience brings matters out all right at the end, though there is much trouble for those concerned be-fore that happy consummation is reached. The scene of the play is laid on New England shores, and has to do with rival lovers, robbery, denials, insecretary, James N. Lambert, C. Lambert Paper Co., Salt Lake City, trigue and deception though not pic-tured in as lurid fashion as these terms would indicate. There are four acts and all are capably presented and when the final curtain drops the auditors say "that is the way we like to see things come out." There will be three more performances, tonight, Sat-urday matinge and Saturday night.
