DESERET EVENING NEWS MONDAY DECEMBER 7 1908

The faults of our broners we are upon the sands; their virtues upon tab-lets of love and memory," was the sentiment that prevailed. Memorial services are held each year by Elks all over the country, and the first Sunday in December is the day set apart to pay tribute to those who have been called to the great beyond. This year Salt Lake Lodge No. 85 B. P. This year Salt Lake Lodge No. 85 B. P. O. E. mourned the loss of thirteen mem-bers, whose names are: D. H. Peery, Jr., C. S. Ford, H. W. Fletcher, Wm. M. Elllott, H. H. Harder, James Hogle, R. F. Moser, J. P. Mur-phy, J. T. Pitt, I. M. Barratt, L. P. Marix, F. A. Hoock, R. W. Rich-word.

SCENE A LODGE ROOM.

After the curtain was raised follow-ing the "March Celebre" by the or-chestra, the scene that met the gaze of those present was one not to be for-gotten. The stage had been trans-formed into a lodge room. In the center was the exalted ruler's station on a raised platform, and grouped about him were chairs for the other effects. The stars was decorated officers. The stage was decorated with plants and flowers, and the colors of the order, purple and white. From one side of the wall hung a magnificent head of an animal from which the order derives its name. An elk, "mild and gentle, yet strong and swift of limb, characteristics that mark the brotherhood in its work of lending

While the body of the house was in darkness, feeble lights shone from the exalted ruler's station and from the sec-retary's desk. tolling his upright character and worth as a cluzen and his abiding faith in the principles of the gospel. President Nephi L. Morris spoke last. He said that in the many years he had known the deceased his acquaintance had been one of both pleasure and pro-fit to the she had learned to es-

When Exalted Ruler A. J. Davis gave the ritualistic address and called upon Secretary A. W. Raybould to read the names of those who passed away dur-ing the year, there followed a most in-spiring scene. As the names were read one by one, the names sprang out in llhuminated letters on the back of empty chars, and as each name was rever-ently called out, James C. Leary delivered an aulogy and eloquent tribute to the departed, and as the words were spoken, the beautiful Pilgrim's chorus was rendered by the Orpheus club, which was concealed behind draperies, creating an effect rare and impressive Great Ruler of the universe, All-seeing and benign, Look down upon and bless our work, And be all glory Thine.

Any skin itching is a temper-tester. Oh, hear our prayers, for the honored

Vanilla, Lemon, Orange, etc., are made from the

we are giving a limited number of copies free if you have it fram-Midgley-Bodel Co., 33 E. Ist South,

Salt Lake Photo and Supply Co. Sodaks, Pinishing, framing 142 Main St

Mat. Thomas has removed his law offices to 316-317 Judge Building.

FORT DOUGLAS NOTES.

were in evidence in profusion, testify-ing to the regard and esteem in which the deceased was held by his friends. A large gathering of relatives and acquaintances was present to pay tribute to his memory. The opening musical selection was by the choir and soloist, "What Voice Salutes the Star-tled Ear!" Prayer was offered by Bish-op Edward F. Parry, Following a se-lection by the choir, Elders W. W. Willey, Henry W. Brown, Hyrum H. Evans and William Burton, all of whom had visited the home of the de-ceased in England in the capacity of missionarics, bore their testimony to the sterling worth of the departed. They told of his devotion to the Church and the sacrifice it brought to him in social prestige and position. He was the only one of his family to espouse the cause and the effect of this action on his part was the subject of extended ummert by the capacity of Start The tearing down of the oldtime barracks at Fort Douglas will for the time restrict accommodations at the Post so it is understood that the Third battalion of the Fifteenth infantry will be transferred during the construction period to Whipple barracks. One enlisted man will be detailed from each company to take a four months' course in the cooking and baking school at Fort Riley. A graduate cook receives three times the pay of a man in the ranks. Today is payday at the post, so guards will be stationed on some of the cars, and passes to town will be his part was the subject of extended remark by the speakers. Since identi-fying himself with the Church, his reduced. home has always been a welcome place for the elders. Elder Thomas F. How-Sergeant Brunter of I company has fallen heir to $40,000 and has bought ells, President Edward Ashton and Bishop Joseph R. Morgan, who have been intimately acquainted with the departed since his arrival in America 25 years ago, spoke of their pleasant acquaintance with him in that time, ex-tolling his unright character and worth his discharge to go and possess him-self of his fortune. Mat. Thomas has removed his law offices to 316-317 Judge Building. Two of Three Who Left Their Homes Are Coming Back to the City Tonight.

Dora Harper, aged 16 years, residing it Twelfth South and Main street; Temple Bryer, 15, 350 east Eighth South street, and Florence Stevenson, 14, Sixth South and Main streets, were missing on Saturday, and the police, sheriff's office and Juvenile court officers were notified and asked to try to locate the girls. A search was at once instituted as it was believed they had been enticed to Nevada by men. Last evening two of the girls were located and are now on their way home. The other, Dora Harper, is still missing but the search for her continues. The Stevenson girl and the Bryer girl were located yesterday at the home of a milkonan six miles west of Garfield a milkinan six miles west of Garfield in Tooele county. They are at a small place named Morris and this morning George C. Calvert, brother-in-law to the Bryer girl went there and will re-turn this evening with the girls. The girls left the city Saturday and took a train to Garfield. There they left the train but where they spent the night is not known. Yesterday morning they started away from Gar-field and meeting a milkman asked field and meeting a milkman asked him for a ride. The milkman took them to his home and kept them there. He learned they were runaways and lost no time in communicating with Salt Lake. A relative of one of the girls was notified and has started for the milkman's place to bring the girls

FEATURES OF ORDINANCE.

back.

The new ordinance respecting the width of tires to be permitted for certain weights in the city traffic, which goes into effect the first of the year, permits the increase of the weight of the wagon, in the loads now permitted. The following loads and tire widths, are the ones permitted under the new

Two inches for over 2,000 pounds and not exceeding 3,000 pounds. Two and one-half inches for over 3,000 pounds and not exceeding 4,000 pounds. Four inches for over 4,000 pounds and not ex-ceeding 6,000 pounds. Five inches for over 6,000 pounds and not exceeding 8,000 pounds. Six inches for over 8,000 pounds and not exceeding 12,000 pounds.

ordinances: Two inches for over 2,000 pounds and Eight inches for over 12,000 pounds and not exceeding 30,000 pounds. of City Engineer Louis C. Kelsey, for an increase in his salary, will come fore the council for discussion.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Mr. A. E. Stevens has severed his onnections with us, and no longer has anything to do with our typewriter lepartment or the Underwood agency. BREEDEN OFFICE SUPPLY CO.

MILK MEN TO BE THERE.

There are a number of interesting matters which may come before the city council at its meeting this evening, among which is the demand of milk dealers that a distinctive license be issued to wholesalers and retailers. which, for various reasons, as it stands, is said to be unfair. A number of other matters, already referred to committees, may be again brought forth, among which is the hearing of several matters pertaining to the numerous liquor cases, involving the violation of the Sunday closing ordinance. It is also possible that the application On Saturday afternoon Miss Minnie Galleger and George C. Buckle were married, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride, with Judge Armstrong officiating in the presence of the near family and friends, and a wedding supper being served later at the Judge Armstrong bridge being served about a dozen. The table was dec-orated in white roses and carnations and only members of the family were match.

PERSONAL.

SOCIAL AND

and only members of the family were present. Later Mr. and Mrs. Buckle left for a trip to Los Angeles expecting Mrs. George L. Savage is hostess this afternoon at a bridge tea given in honor of Mrs. A. H. Snow. She also entertains for her tomorrow. to return at the end of the month. The bride's wedding gown was of white crepe de chine, and her going away gown of red broadcloth, with hat to her home.

Bartch.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Zane leave shortly for their home in Chicago.

wedding supper followed, the table by Tonight Mrs. W. P. Kiser entertained at an Orpheum party in honor of her brother, Lyster Chambers, who ap-pears in a play there during this week.

Mrs. J. B. Risque is hostess this af-ternoon at a bridge tea.

Miss Sarah Terrill entertains the bridge tournament this afternoon at

Tomorrow Miss Julia Cullen will be guest of honor at a bridge party to be given by the Misses Olive and Rae ing prettily decorated and member the family present.

. . .

Another home wedding of Saturday was that of Miss Gertrude M. Harwood and F. J. Hermann the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. A. Simpkin, Miss Dot James acting as bridesmaid Mrs. Thomas Davis is here from New York visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. Harkness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Galigher leave next week for an eastern trip. and John Longnickel best man. A dead While bearing in our mind The memories graven on each heart, For "Auld Lang Syne."

IMMORTALITY.

Following the singing of the opening Following the singing of the opening ode and the ceremonial responses of the officers of the lodge, the vacant chairs were removed, showing a magnificent stage setting. The program was begun after the invocation by the lodge chap-lain, P. P. Christensen. The memorial address was delivered by Rev. Elmer I.Goshen, his topic being "Immortality." His address was eloquent and his ora-tory and the beautiful truths he un-folded held the audience as in a snell. folded held the beautiful fruins he un-folded held the audience as in a spell. He urged upon members of the order to live for those things taught by the principles of Elkdom, and made an ap-peul for kindness, forbearance, charity and love. He urged that all nations, creeds and denominations worship the God of Love, and declared that love and not hate will save the world. The world can never be lifted from sin and from sorrow except by love. "Go now and rule our lives by love and faith, practise and cherish those two things and your bark of life will rest on the soft bank of the world beyond and you will be met by the open arms of those that have preceded you."

The musical program was well ar-ranged and in keeping with the occa-sion. After the orchestra rendered the "Angelus," a quarter composed of M:s. A. S. Peters, Miss B. M. Johnson, M. I. Brimet and Dwald Science article J.Brines and Fred E.Smith, sang "King Love." Fred E. Smith rendered in ouching manner Gounod's "Naza-1" John P. Meakin gave "Thoma-Love." topsis" feelingly. The other numbers were: "These Are They," by Mrs. A. S. Peters; "Calvary," by M. J. Brines; volus solo, "Traumerel." condered by G. E. Skelton; quartet, "Savier, When Night Involves the Sky," with inter-spersions by the orchestra of "Adagio from Sonata Pathetique," and "The Ouningtmene". Omnipotence."

have been somewhat costive, but Doan's desirad. Doan's Regulets gave just the results estrad. They act mildly and regulats the boweis perfectly."-George B. Fause, 306 Walnut avenue, Altoona.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Leonard J. Boutwell, With Salt Lake Record, Uses Chloroform.

At Santa Barbara, Cal., on Saturday, Leonard J. Boutwell tried to kill himseluf by taking chloroform but his efforts were frustrated and he is still forts were frustrated and he is still alive. News of the attempt was con-veyed here by Associated Press dis-latches and was of interest to Salt Labers for the reason that the young man, who claimed to be a soir of for-mer Gov. Boutwell of Massachusetts, figured in criminal circles here a few months ago. ago

Upon his arrival in Salt Lake he took Upon his arrival in Salt Lake he took an expensive suit at the Knutsford hotel and lived like a lord. He had automobile rides and soon cut a wide swath in local society. But he began to run short of money and re-denished his purse by the simple ex-bedient of writing checks that were worthless. He passed two or three checks and was arrested at the Knuts-ford by Detectives Sheets and Janney His family was notified of the trouble and quickly sent money here to studighten out matters. In June he was released from jail itches. Doan's Ointment cures eczema-any skin itching. At all drug tolling his upright character and worth fit to himself. He had learned to es-teem him highly and in his death felt teem him highly and in his death felt a personal loss. The closing prayer was offered by President G. R. Emery. The body was laid to its final rest in the city ceme-tery, the dedicatory prayer being pro-nounced by Elder William S. Burton, During the service Mrs. Lizzie Thom-as Edward rendered in her pleasing style, "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth." Elder Thomas Ashworth sang "O My Father."

"O My Father."

WILLIAM SEARE.

LEYSON'S CHRISTMAS OPENING

Saturday was the Christmas opening of Leyson's jewelry store, and during the afternoon and evening all ladies visiting there were presented with a carnation. Besides this, an orchestra carnation. Besides this, an orchestra discoursed music throughout the eve-ning, and this served to keep the store crowded until the hour of closing. Within the store is a variety of gold, silver, copper, bronze, leather and por-celain articles which fairly bewilders one. Everything conceivable in these lines and in art close watchese die

one. Everything concervable in these lines and in cut glass, watches, dia-monds and the like are to be found. Nothing has been overlooked and the rare taste exhibited by the owners in their selection of their Christmas as-sortment is at once pleasing and be-tokens a thorough knowledge of what the neode want the people want.

NEW EPOCH FOR BLIND.

Reception Held Saturday at Kenyon Hotel.

What might be called a new epoch for the blind has been opened in Salt Lake. It began primarily in the or-Lake. It began primarily in the or-ganization of the Western Association for the Blind, and the auxiliary read-ing room of the public library. Through this last, effected by the efforts of Mrs. A. S. Rowan of Fort Douglas, a new and rapidly growing interest has been awakened for the blind in this city, and the reception given at the Kenyon hotel on Saturday afternoon was a and the released processing with a second start of the second start of the new spirit. It was a brilliant function, and fing through three hours, during which about 200 representative men and women gathered in the Kenyon parlors, and listened to a program made up of women gathered in the Kenyon parlors, and listened to a program made up of vocal and instrumental numbers, and recitations given by the blind, and the examination of various specimens of work done by them, and the impression made will be lasting. Among the guests were Governor and Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Gov.-elect and Mrs. William Spry, Prof. and Mrs. James E. Tal-mage, Mrs. Zina Y. Card, Mrs. G. P. Holman, Mrs. Mont W. Ferry, and many others. Mr. Albert M. Talmage of Provo demonstrated the American braille alphabet, the raised letters by which the blind are taught to read, and also exhibited an invention of his own also exhibited an invention of his own in the way of a checker board for the blind made with sucken squares and circles with the checkers to fit these hoies. A notable display of crochet and bead work was made by Miss Marta Hansen and their ware beider Marie Hansen, and there were besides these hand-made baskets and sewing, brain and body. "There's a Reason."

Which to Get Votes. Now Get Busy.

Only votes issued and voted from Dec. 6 to Dec. 19, will count on this second special prize

75-77 WEST SECOND SOUTH ST.,

Fotal standing of the winner and others leading in the race for the Lud-

Total Standing of the Winner and Others Leading in the Race for the Ludwig Piano.

2-HELEN LEHMANN
3-Y. M. C. A. 4-RIVERSIDE KINDERGARTEN
a all islield life and an antistration of the second secon	E 19 100 Troman
G-GEORGE A. SMITH 7-MRS. GEORGE W. WATTS, MURRAY
S-WILLIAM H. TODD, GRANGER	312,000 VOTES
This is only one of the prices. There are 509 more pri- away when the contest closes.

CARSTENSEN & ANSON CO.

PIANO Will Be On Exhibition In Our Window. Come And See It.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.