AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Received May 29, 1897

News of Boardwalks & Co Gentlemen.

The sample of tea, "The Pride of Japan," submitted to me for examination comes within the range of unadulterated tea, a conclusion partly drawn from the percentage of ash. It is free from gypsum, indigo, prussian blue, graphite, and foreign leaves substituted in adulterating tea.

Respectfully submitted,
J. T. Lincoln,
Chemist, City of Utah
At your Grocers.

How About that Suit!

Haven't you been promising yourself to soften this summer? Isn't it a necessity, the purchase of which you can't put off much longer? Why not buy it now and wear it during the

Jubilee

Where shall you get it? There are only two or three things to be considered: Is PRICE an object to you? Would you like a suit that has fit and style to recommend it? and that will look well like one made for you by a tailor? If so, there is a place where your wants will be met, and that place is here.

A few of these all-in suits for men, set at $5.00, plenty of room at $7.00. Very natty dress suits at $10.00 and fitter. The perfection of fine tailoring is reached, in the ones at $15.00, $18.00 and $20.00.

ONE PRICE.

J. J. Fitch, one of the most celebrated farmers in the western United States, was buried yesterday in Waukesha while working on a dredge. The farmer had started to run his dredge when he heard a noise, and when he stopped the dredge, he saw several rats attacking him. He says, if he had been a little more alert, he would have been able to save his life. The dredge was being used to clear a channel in the creek.
