Russian Outrages.

NEW YORK, 4—The Turkish minister for foreign affairs has sent a circular to the Turkish representatives abroad, reciting the barbarous acts committed by the Russians, and says, that it is necessary that the civilized world should become acquainted with these horrors, to express its indignation, and to brand them. The inhabitants of Terris, near Tirnova, having, on the approach of the Russians, taken refuge in a mosque, were burned alive in the enclosure; the Russians having met 300 carts filled with fugitive families, destroyed them with cannon shots, then completing their work of extermination by massacring all the men and women they could find. In every suburb or village occupied by the Russian troops the dwellings of Mussulmens were given to the flames. The Bulgarians, excited by the example of the Russians, commit, against the peaceful and resigned Mussulman population, acts of barbarity and outrages still more atrocious and more horrible than those perpetrated by the invaders.

Kidnapping Children.

The Chief of Police, of Chicago, telegraphed to Superintendent Walling, this afternoon, that a woman had kidnapped three children there, and had fled to this city with the intention of taking them to Germany by to-day's steamer. The woman was arrested, and appeared to be a lady of refinement. She said she was taking the children to Germany to be educated there. The police justice remanded the parties to the custody of the police to await further particulars from Chicago.

Returning to their Posts.

OMAHA, 4.—Three companies of the 14th Infantry, one company of the 2nd Cavalry, and one company of the 5th Cavalry, left Omaha for their Posts in the west, to-day, from which they came about a week ago.

Arrest of Counterfeiters.

BOSTON, 4.—Charles Bailey and Charles R. Coss were arrested, to-day, for passing counterfeit coin. A large quantity of metal, dies, plates, casts, etc., were secured at their residence.

Fire and Loss of Life.

STRAWSPOINT, N. H., 4.—A fire here, to-day, burned two cottages and damaged others. Henry Groves, of Concord, assisting in removing the furniture, was overcome by the smoke and burned to death.

WESTERN.

The Hostile Indians—Chief Determined to Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, 4.—A press dispatch from Lewiston, August 1st, received yesterday, says, Indian Joe and his family, who have been with the people at Slate Creek all through the Indian troubles, and have proved true and faithful to the whites, returned from Kamiah where they had been sent to ascertain the movements of the hostiles. His squaw says, the Indians at Kamiah told her that they were going across the mountains by the Lolo trail with their stock and families, and when they got them in a secure place, they would return and fight the soldiers. She also states that before leaving Kamiah they went to the friendly Indian camp and drove off all the young squaws, beat them with clubs, and forced them along like so many cattle; also came back and robbed them of everything they could find, and all their horses of any value. She further stated that the hostiles are to be reinforced by other Indians from the other side of the mountains, when they return. Her statements are considered reliable by those who have known her.

This morning Lieut. Wilmot, with thirty men, started to go across Salmon River to ascertain if any hostiles remain there. It has been reported for several days that a few had been seen in that direction, and the object is to hunt them out and destroy all their supplies.

It is now believed by old acquaintances of Joseph that he will put away in safety his stores and extra horses, and return to Camas prairie, returning by Elk city or Piette's trails, which are much more easily travelled than the Lolo. This trip can, with forced marches, be made in about seven days. He has asserted his determination to burn the grain on Camas prairie, and then arrange his plans to go to Wallowa, and the opinion is that he will attempt it.

Mobilization.

ST. PETERSBURG, 4.—A Ukase has been issued ordering the immediate mobilization of the entire corps of the Imperial Guard, and several other divisions. The major portion of the Imperial Guard and some of the divisions are to join the army in Bulgaria, without delay, the remainder will go to reinforce the army of the Caucacus.

Another Ukase, signed by the Czar, at Biela, July 22, orders a levy of 188,600 of the Landwehr.

The Labor Question in the Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, 5.—A good portion of the President's message, upon the re-assembling of Congress, will be devoted to the consideration of the labor question. It is known that at the numerous cabinet meetings held within the past two weeks, this subject has, in several instances, been discussed to the exclusion of all other matters. Several members of the cabinet are known to favor the passage of a law providing for the organising of a commission which shall have due regard for the interest of all concerned, producers, merchants, railroad employes and capitalists, so that on any question a fair compromise may be effected. A member of the cabinet, in a recent conversation, spoke of this plan, and argued that Congress had the right to pass such a law under the clause of the Constitution authorizing that body to regulate commerce with foreign nations and among the several States and with the Indian tribes. Such commission might be vested with power to examine into the desirability of chartering new railroads, and might require certain conditions to be fulfilled so as to establish a reasonable certainty that the projected road would be remunerative, and that the company would have the means to pay for its construction, and thus avoid disastrous failures.

Russia in a Bad Fix.

CHICAGO, 5 —The Times London special says, it is asserted that Russia is trying to secure intervention by some third power, and that Austria, instigated by Germany, will lend her influence in aiding Russia to secure peace.

A Pera correspondent asserts that Suleiman Pasha is pushing the Russians and will annihilate them. It is thought that both the Turkish armies in the north are closing in on the Russian line with every prospect of success. Only intervention or a miraculous victory, will save the Russians from destruction. The German sentiment is growing hostile to England, and high authority at Berlin says, her policy as to the occupation of the Dardanelles will not be permitted.

Officially Denied.

NEW YORK, 5.—The Turkish minister has received a dispatch from Constantinople officially denying the report that the Russian wounded were killed on the battle field of Plevna:

Adjustment.

HARTFORD, CONN., 5.—The adjusters have completed the settlement of the losses of the St. John, N. B., fire. The total amount to be paid by insurance companies is $6,736,000, of this, English companies will pay $4,822,000; Canadian companies $1,469,000; American companies $445,000.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Eastern Campaign—The Fatal Ambush at Plevna—The Present Situation.

LONDTN, 5.—The first move of the Russians towards carrying out the plan of the campaign, heretofore foreshadowed as the one likely to be selected, has resulted in the disaster of Plevna. The purpose of the Russian Generals was obviously to wheel around their right and left wings to a line parallel with the Balkans, taking Tirnova as the Pivot, and thus force Osman Pasha and Mehemet Ali back across the mountains on their respective lines of retreat. This accomplished and Osman Pasha and Mehemet Ali prevented from effecting a junction with the forces under General Gourks, which were meanwhile to establish themselves south of the Balkans, the Russian campaign would have been beyond danger of failure or serious interruption. To promenade across the Danube and to cross over the Balkans, while the Turks remained idle in their camps and fortresses, was perhaps sufficient to justify the idea of the Russians that they had only to advance to ensure that the Turks would retreat. It was this feeling which led the Russians into the fatal ambush of Plevna. A fortnight ago an inferior force was sent to avenge that disaster on the victorious army in their fortified positions. The result is that all is chaos again, as far as our knowledge of the situation is concerned, and that the News dispatches from the front are full of panicky or exaggerated rumors, dictated by the hopes or fears of either side, but the salient fact is unquestioned that the Russians have been checked, and their campaign cannot make any progress until they have shaken off Mehemet Ali and Osman Pasha from their flanks, and meanwhile Gourkos task south of the Balkans is rendered more and more serious daily by the concentration and organization of Suleiman Pasha's forces.

The Roumanian Railway is monopolized by the dispatch of reinforcements from the camp of reserves at Kischeneff. It is alleged that Dobrudscha will be almost wholly evacuated, and Zimmerman's corps will return via Sistova to the central army. The Czar has decreed fresh levies at home, all of which means that a military promenade has been turned into an affair of life or death for the Russians, and that the Turks will be crushed if there is power in Russia to crush them.

The Turkish plan is believed for Osman Pasha to fight his way eastward; and Mehemet Ali to advance westward upon Tirnova, while Suleiman Pasha endeavors to force the Russian position at Kazanlik; but in doing this Osman Pasha must expose his left flank to the risk of being turned from the direction of Vihopolis, thus facilitating the Russian plan of pivoting on Tirnova, and forcing him to retire behind the Balkans.

Mehemet Ali would incur the same danger from the Russians between Rustchuk and Rasgrad, while Suleiman Pasha must attack the Russians in positions of their own choice. It is supposed the Turkish plan does not look very promising, unless the Russians aid it by mistakes like those at Plevna, but it may, with skillful handling, serve to keep the Russians in check until the campaigning season is over, which would be to the Turks the next thing to absolute victory. Both Russian and Turkey are submitting to a terrible strain on their resources to win the decided advantage in this campaign. Meantime it would seem from apparently well authenticated reports of murder and rapine by the Bashi Bazouks, Bulgarians, and Cossacks, that the war is fast assuming a character of savage cruelty which threatens to make it a war of extermination for all the inhabitants of the territory involved, whether Christain or Mahommedan.

In Asia, the intention of the Russians to advance from Ardahan, as reported last week, is confirmed by the news that their outposts have already pushed on as far as Pennek. Another division is marching to Ardanusch, which commands the road from Batoum to Otti. A third column of fresh forces is occupying the line of the Adjara River, south of Batoum. This points to an evident intention to advance possibly on Erzeroum or to carry out, with a sweeping flank and rear movement on Mukhtar Pasha's army before Kars, which will be covered by attacks in front, conducted by Melikoff's forces at Kurukdara, supported by Gen. Tergakasoff, who is believed to be somewhere on the River Arades, south of Kars. The latter plan is more probable than the advance on Erzeroum, if indeed the whole movement on Otti is not a feint to distract Mukhtar's attention from what is going on in front; but as a feint might be construed into a real attack, Mukhtar cannot afford to ignore it. He will, therefore, be forced to detach a considerable number of men from the main army to guard the base of the triangle formed by Ardahan, Kars and Otti, whilst the Russians are able to direct their operations from the Apex of Ardahan against any portion of the base, and assisted by General Tergukassoff, cut Mukhtar's communication with Erzeroum, and force him to fall back upon or into Kars.

Telegrams from Constantinople report that a portion of the Turkish Batoum army is embarking for Varna to reinforce Mehemet Ali, so that the Porte must feel sufficient confidence in the strength of Mukhtar Pasha's central column and positions to throw upon it the entire burden of resisting Melikoff's second invasion.

War Material.

A Woolwich dispatch says, an order was received at the royal arsenal on Saturday for 500 tons of shell to be sent to Malta by private ships. The whole will be embarked on Monday or Tuesday.

Suicided.

PLYMOUTH, 5.—Koler, the wife murderer, awaiting extradition to New Jersey, hanged himself today, in prison.

WALLACHIA.

The Turks Reinforced.

BUCHAREST, 5. — The Turkish division from Lovatz occupied Selvi, unopposed. The Turks at Plevna received a reinforcement of 4,000 Albanian cavalry. The Russian forces are between Selvi and Tirnova, holding strong defensive positions. Gen. Gourka is charged with the duty of protecting the southern outlets of the Balkan passes.

War Notes.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 5.—An imperial decree has been issued decreasing the salaries of all the government officials fifty per cent. until the end of the war.

The newspapers announce that the Russian man-of-war Constantine appeared on Friday night off Kilia, some two hours' sail from the Bosphorus, and departed again after firing fifteen shots.

Redif Pasha has been sent to Princess Island, in the Sea of Marmora.

The Porte has made public the following intelligence: The Russians have been completely defeated at Yeni Saghra, with considerable loss, including two guns and a large quantity of baggage and equipments. They fled in disorder to Kainbogahaza Pass, which is occupied by Suleiman Pasha, who pursued them thither.

Insurgents hold the road between Trebindje and Ragusa.
