THE WESTERN STATES CONGRESS.

Report on National Funds, Transportation, Commerce and other Subjects.

KANSAS CITY, April 16.—It was 10 o'clock before the Western States Congress assembled this morning. James Widener made a speech on the subject of the gold and silver coinage of the United States.

General Blair of Kansas read a paper on transportation, as affecting commerce and finance.

He said the government ought to carry on the country's business and then leave the question of finance alone.

He thought the government ought to keep its hands off commerce and transportation and let them be governed by natural laws.

A telegram from the president and executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York was read. It asked permission to call for the attention of the Congress to the action of the Chamber regarding improvement of the Mississippi River.

and particularly the grave importance of protecting the adjacent territory from the terrible ravages occasioned by the annual overflows of the river.

William E. Sewers, president of the Wholesale Grocers' Association of St. Louis, spoke.

ON TRANSPORTATION.

He thought the Federal government should control the traffic of the railroads, just as it now controls interstate traffic.

He wants a bill passed that will give the Federal government the power to enforce its decrees.

Senator Chapman of Missouri thought the situation of the Congress to the late action of the Chamber regarding improvement of the Mississippi River.
