 interested in the cause of education,
 are invited to attend.

LOCAL NEWS.

Rather Late—"Sadie," a Brigham City correspondent, sends us a well written account of "New Year's at that place." E. R. S. Smith was the honored guest, and, upon which occasion a good time was enjoyed, but at this late date we fear our readers would consider it rather stale news, so, we refrain from publishing it.

A Fatal Accident.—The following dispatch was received yesterday by Apostle Heber J. Grant informing him of the sudden death of his half-brother:

"OAKLEY, Cassia Co., Idaho, January 13.

George S. Grant was accidentally shot and killed here to-day.

Brothers Heber J. Grant and John W. Taylor intended to leave this city to-day for the scene of the sad occurrence.

A New Year's Robbery.—A. W.
 Henderson arrived here this morning in company with Sheriff G. R. Belnap, of Weber County, and U. S. Marshal Vanderhook, of Ogden, who had in company, C. Miller, charged with burglary.
 Miller and a friend robbed Mr. Henderson's house in Ogden on New Year's night, taking an $80 gold watch and chain, a pistol, satchel, pair of boots, cigar holder and a suit of clothes.
 Miller put up the suit of clothes in a second-hand shop in Ogden. Ex-Sheriff Brown, who knows of the occurrence, arrested Miller, who was taken before Judge De. of Ogden. He waived an examination and was bound over the sum of $400 to await the action of the grand jury. He had been to this city since the night of the robbery, and had pawned the watch and pistol at Mrs. Mark's second-hand store.
 When they arrived this morning, Miller went into Mrs. Mark's store and paid the money for the watch and as she passed it over to him, Sheriff Bel-nap stepped in and claimed it, this was the arrangement which had been made between Miller and the sheriff.
 The pistol had been sold to somebody else.
 The other half of the watch had been found. Miller has been taken to the penitentiary.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY IN IDAHO.

TWO MEN KILL EACH OTHER IN A SINGULAR MANNER.

As a News reporter was going the rounds this morning, he met Sheriff Homer, of Oneida County, Idaho, who gave him the following account of a double tragedy:

P. P. Pleasants, an employee of H.
 O. Harkness, Esq., married a girl by the name of Rose Butterfield, of Oxford, Idaho, a short time ago, against the wishes of her father, who had a month ago Pleasants left the employ of Mr. H. O. Harkness and came to town.

Pleasants, who had been about two weeks ago he presented a forged check at the Oxford Co-op, to the amount of $325, which was cashed by Mr. Geo.
 C. Parkinson, superintendent of the store. Pleasants left town again and soon afterwards the forgery was discovered.

Mrs. Pleasants, (a daughter of Chas.
 Butterfield's) boarded a freight train at Swan Lake, Idaho, on Jan. 8th, got off the cars at Battle Creek and waited there until the arrival of the southbound passenger train, which she boarded and rode to Ogden.

The father of the girl who had been appointed special deputy sheriff by the federal government, the victim of the check, was on the passenger train incognito.

After arriving at Ogden, both took the C. P. passenger train and got off at Kelton, where the daughter expected to meet her husband, who, according to arrangement, had been waiting there for two or three days.

But she did not come, and she waited until the arrival of the train and returned to Kelton.

She learned that her husband had been waiting for her, and had gone, leaving her at Kelton.

West's Map of Utah.—We learn from Jos. A. West, to whom the last Utah Legislature awarded a grant for getting up a map of Utah, that his work in connection therewith will be completed next week. It will be a very complete affair, being compiled from the latest and most authentic surveys of Hayden, Wheeler and others. It will also show as far as possible the location of mining dis- tricts. A number of the leading cities of the Territory will also be portrayed in the margin, Salt Lake occupying the central position. The first edition will include three sizes, the largest of which will be one-third larger than any map of Utah heretofore published, but it is the intention of the author if he can get subscribers sufficient to pub- lish a still larger one which will in- clude three sizes, the largest of which will be one-third larger than any map of Utah heretofore published, but it is the intention of the author if he can get subscribers sufficient to pub- lish a still larger one which will in- clude three sizes, the largest of which will be one-third larger than any map of Utah heretofore published,
