The D. O. Calder Cabinet Organ. -This is the name given to an excellent instrument manufactured in the East special order of Mr. Calder, and for sale at his musical warerooms in this city. Experienced local professors and musicians speak in terms of high praise of the new organ. See their testimonials elsewhere. Mr. Calder warrants his organs for six years, and each instrument has upon it his name as a standing guarantee that it is, in every respect, all it is claimed to be. Remember this. While others are warranted by firms abroad, the Calder Organ is guaranteed by a home dealer well known to the people of the Terrstory.

Mrs. President Hayes:

Dear Lady-Will you please accept the accompanying gift (the silk raised and article manufactured in this city) with the sincere respect and admiration of your "Mormon" friends, who desire to hold a tender place in your remembrance. May your future life be as happy as the last four years have been brilliant. Sincerely yours,

Sister Eliza R. Snow presented Mrs. Hayes with a copy of her poems, vol. 2, also with the Primary Hymn Book, recently published.

The President's Visit. - Yesterday we gave a hastily prepared account of the visit of the Presidential party to Salt Lake but necessarily omitted details and elaborate descriptions of many things connected therewith. Among the many features worthy of more extended notice, was the banquet given at the Walker House, on Sunday afternoon, in honor of the distinguished guests. The tables were set in one of the hotel parlors, and loaded with an elaborate display and a sumptuous feast, one of the most magnificent ever presented in the Territory. President Hayes, his party and others, twenty-eight in all, sat at one table. The dinner was prepared nuder the direction of Maj. G. S. Erb, proprietor of the Walker, and was really superb. At Fort Douglas the visitors were also received in grand style. A salute of twenty adopted by the "Liberals" at their Emigrants.—By private telegram we learn that the company of Saints that left Liverpool on the steamship Nevada, on the 4th inst., numbers 336 souls. This is the fourth company of the season. The fifth and last, for this year, is expected to leave Liverpool on the 23rd of October. All who intend sending money to help their brethren and sisters to take passage at that time, should have the means at President Taylor's Office, not later than the 28th of the present month. In this connection we wish to remind all those owing the P. E. Fund Company to come forward and pay what they can on their indebtedness by that time, so that the amount may be used the present season, to help the worthy poor who are still under bondage in the old country.

Well, who don't know that? You would obliterate all correct ideas, abolish all righteous institutions, repeal all just laws and change the fair and honest methods now prevailing for ways that are dark and tricks that are "liberal"-if you could. But you wont. Not so long as right predominates over wrong in the hearts of the people of Utah. When they lose all respect for themselves and regard for their country's welfare, and are anxious for a reign of ruin and anarchy, instead of their present peace and prosperity, then, and not till then, will the "Liberal" | iel Davidson, and Andrew Burt, bering have a chance to put their precious programme of change and re-testimony they gave corroborated for to those using them. An inquest was held by Coroner ten. Taylor, at the City Hall, this morning at a quarter to 10 o'clock. The proceedings had been going on for about half an hour when Judge Mc-Bride stated that a rumor was current that Captain Smith was dead or dying, that if this was so the case might be shortened by holding but one examination, and to this end he suggested that the court adjourn Annual Meeting. - Yesterday, until 1 p.m., to allow time for the E. > From the evidence adduced this ing Davidson's daughter, and at the same time threatening his (Snedaker's) life if he did not leave the country. The young lady in question, it is said, flatly denied the facts alleged in the accusation. Mr.Snedaker informed the Chief of Police that his life had been threatened, and was advised to have Smith and Davidson bound over to keep the peace. He replied that Davidson had a number of boys, and it would be necessary to have them all bound over if such a thing were commenced. He told Captain Burt that he would not have his threateners bound over, but would go prepared for an assault, and requested the Captain to keep a lookout for them. The next day, it is said, Snedaker met Smith on the street, and on going up and extending his hand to him, Snedaker received a slap in the face. He turned away, and the two did not meet again until scribed, when Spedaker, without a
