ARMY COMMISSION REACHES CONT.

Commissioner South West War Road the Abandonment of the Road to the Muskogean River.

It was announced Monday night at Fort Worth, Texas, that the commissioner of the South West War Road, who had been in charge of the road since its opening, had been ordered to abandon the road to the Muskogean River, and to build a new road to the south of it.

The road was built by the United States Army, and was the only road between the North and South West.
