CHICAGO.—Fenian matters here show no new features. Large crowds have arrived at headquarters and there is great anxiety to get the news from the seat of war. About five hundred, altogether, have gone from this city and several companies from Peoria, Joliet and other interior cities passed through here to-day.

The Tribune has a special from Boston, which says that it received reliable information from Malone, last night, to the effect that the invasion from that point was a more complete and disgraceful failure than at St. Albans; the men are utterly demoralized and the movement, in spite of the protests of some of the officers is undeniably at an end; even the newspaper correspondents are returning.

The Times special says the British Minister in an interview to-day with the Secretary of State expressed his thanks for the prompt action of the Administration in issuing the proclamation against the Fenian invasion of Canada and also for resorting to such prompt civil and military measures to suppress it by the enforcement of the neutrality laws.

trenched position at Pigeon Hill, with forty men. Gleason endeavored to make a move here and threatens to blow up the docks of Mahony canal.

NEW YORK, 28.—The Tribune's Malone special gives the following account of the engagement at Trout river: Gen. Starr, at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, crossed the line at Trout river and advanced with his command numbering not more than 300, stragglers included, about five hundred yards, when he deployed right and left, his extreme right resting on Trout river. He had not occupied this position long when the British troops and Canadian militia emerged from the woods a little in front of the Fenian's line and the battle at once was commenced by the British, who opened with a sharp and steady fire on the Fenians. There was at the time a small rail fence in front of the latter, which was immediately converted into a sort of stockade. The Fenians had been told by Gen. Starr to keep up a steady fire; for ten minutes they obeyed orders and stopped the advance of the British. Before the expiration of ten minutes the Canadian troops, far outnumbering the Fenians, made a movement as if intended to flank and capture the invaders, when Starr formed his rear guard and a retreat was ordered. The British continued firing and pressing the Fenians, who managed to keep comparatively good order until they reached the U. S. line, when a parting volley was given by the British and the battle of Trout river was over.

An enthusiastic meeting was held at the Fenian headquarters last evening, which was addressed by Col. McClure, of Chicago. He gave an encouraging account of affairs at the west, and said that men were waiting at all points for means to come forward. The Fenians continue to deny the truth of the reported defeat and talk encouragingly. Parties who have returned from the front represent things going on favorably. Numbers of U. S. troops stationed here attend the Fenian meetings.

BOSTON.—The wife of Senator Wilson died to-day, at Natick, Norfolk.

ST. ALBANS.—Everything is quiet this morning. How the remaining Fenians are to be got off is a question which now troubles the citizens of the State. The Government refuses to take the matter out of the hands of the civil authorities, and they do not like to take the responsibility of paying for their transportation, while the railroad managers insist on being paid for returning them home. Thus the matter stands. General Meade is inclined to censure the people here more than they deserve. He says they have, to a great extent, sympathized with the Fenians. They knew they were making preparations to invade Canada by storing arms and ammunition on the border. This is true but the Government has been officially apprised of all this. Marshal Foster, long before the Fenians landed here, informed the Washington authorities of what might be expected. District Attorney Fife did the same, yet not one word was received in reply to their communications, and it was forty-eight hours after the Fenians had commenced landing at this point, notwithstanding that the Government was promptly posted concerning their move, before anything of an official nature was received from Washington. Generals Meade, McDowell, Ingalls and Van Vliet left on the noon train to-day for Malone, to take a look at the situation. General Meade was quite indisposed on his arrival, so much so that physicians were called in to prescribe for him. He is much better to-day. Gen. Spear is in town.

The council was composed of commissioned officers, but the leaders of the raid are now here. One hundred and thirty car loads of the Fenians' war material were saved. Captain Jas. Murphy, of N. Y., it is reported, was captured and shot at Pigeon Hill. The government has provided transportation for the men and they are hurrying homeward.

The Fenian leaders here are instructed to send no more men to the front, but to forward money for the support of the New Yorkers at Malone, who are nearly famished and dependent on the charity of the citizens. The latter will pay their fare back to Rome. Prominent officers of the brotherhood have agreed to discountenance any further hostile movement on this continent, and the men at Malone say they will never have any more to do with Fenianism. Much anxiety is felt at Montreal as to the disposition of the prisoners. The feeling is intense against them and extra precautions have to be taken to avoid lynch law. A party of drunken Canadians, on Friday, tore down the flag of the American Consul at St. Johns. The outrage is doubly regretted by the citizens.

O'Neil will probably be released on bail on Monday.

BUFFALO.—The wrestling match for the championship of America and $2,000 was won by Homer Sane.

He says the Fenians are behaving well, and only desire to get home. The Canadians are jubilant at the inglorious termination of the movement.

NEW YORK.—James Gibbons, Chairman of the Fenian brotherhood, has issued an address, stating that the Fenian invasion of Canada was undertaken without authority, and that the failure cannot be recognized as a defeat of the national organization.
