When the Maroons and Lobsters lined up for their game at Ogden yesterday afternoon, they were even. When the game was over, Ogden was once more on top. It was a game of hit and run, principally hit, and the Lobsters carried off the honors by a score of 11 to 8. At the beginning of the sixth inning the Lobsters had a lead of 10 runs, but at that stage of the proceedings, Fettes' arm, which had been doing the twisting for Ogden, suddenly went to the ball, and the Maroons secured seven runs. Fettes was at once replaced by Fullmer and the run getting stopped. The local crowd managed to get to the second when Kimmer made the rounds, but that was all. "Father" Gimlin, chief Lobster of them all, was in the game yesterday, at the same old position, and got a round of applause on his appearance. He demonstrated that he has not forgotten how to hit a ball while working on the railroad. When he stepped to the bat he got another round of applause. The first ball he swung at was a fast one, and he came home on Wheeler's hit. The latter is an amateur, but he certainly understands baseball. Out of four times at bat he secured three singles and a two-sacker. Camp pitched for the locals and was topped up for 15 hits. The summary follows:

Summary—Two-base hits: Kennedy, Gimlin, Clark, Wesner, Fullmer; double: Hansen, Fullmer; home runs: a score of 11 to 8. By winning that game they crawled up even with Ogden but, as already noted, they fell again yesterday. At the beginning it looked like there was nothing to it but Ogden. In the last half of the fourth it was 6 to 0 in favor of Ogden, but just then the locals got a hitting streak and scored two runs. Three more came in the ninth. In that inning Hansen made one for Ogden. In the seventh the Maroons made another rally and the score was tied. The teams remained thus until the ninth when "Paw" Kimmer scored on Nash's wild throw, making the winning run. The summary follows:

HOT WEATHER FLOUR, A SURE SUCCESS IN HOT WEATHER BAKING WITH HUSLER'S High Potent Flour.

Plake, The Lobsters will have the same old crowd, or a part of it, that won two pennants for them, but it is believed that Salt Lake will be equally strong. It is said that Ogden has a good chance to get little Casey back and Manager Bluthford is making efforts in that direction.

HAD A GOOD TIME?

Two of the Party Hurt—Arrested for Fishing.

That fishing trip of Frank Moore and James Donaldson, the well known recrees, with their 500 outfit, was full of events that members of the party will not soon forget. As a result of the trip, Mr. Moore and his son Rex are now at a hospital at Soda Springs, recovering from injuries received when the exclusive outfit, Hansen to Margette, was struck by a car on the Port Neuf. The party expected to fish on Lost Creek, but the car struck out. Why enjoy and enjoy, they were in camp, Harry Reynolds swooped down on the party and informed them that they were arrested for fishing. He without first taking out a license, Donaldson accompanied the sheriff to the boat, where he stood trial for the crowd. With the assistance of several witnesses, and by swearing judiciously, he managed to prove that there was a "forced camp," that their outfit had broken camp, and that they were not fishing. The cases were promptly dismissed, but it cost Donaldson over half a hundred dollars.

IVER NOT COMING.

He Has Received an Offer to Remain in the East.

Word has been received here from Iver Hansen in Salt Lake, that he will not come to Salt Lake, at least not immediately. He says he has received an offer to ride to the White House and that he will not leave the inducement was so flattering he could not afford to pass them up. If Hansen, the venture down here as well as he expects, he will then come to Salt Lake and finish the season here.

MAJ. J. B. POND DEAD.

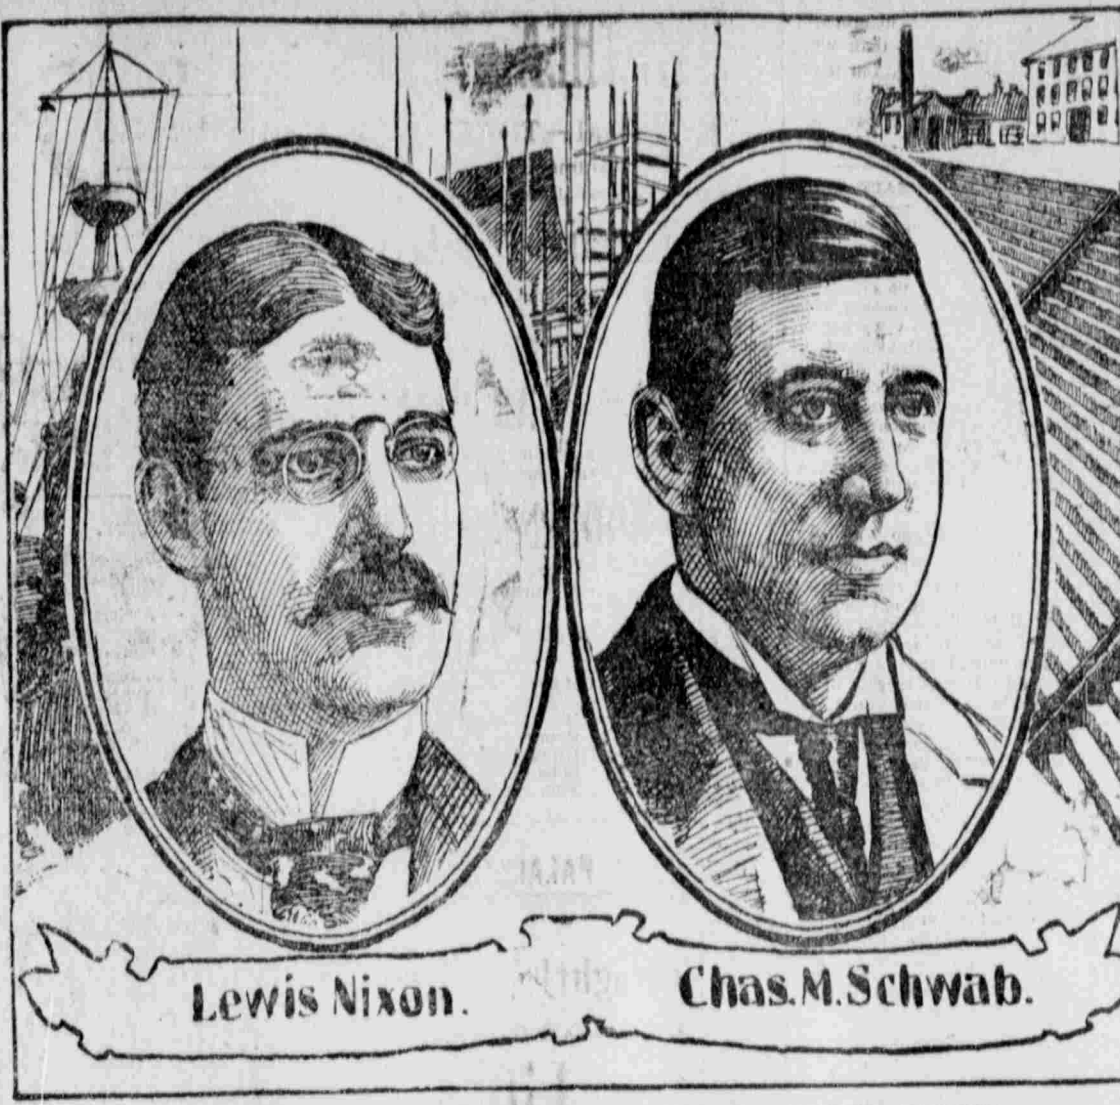

He Succumbed to an Amputation of The Leg.

New York, June 21.—Major James B. Pond, the well-known manager of lecturers and signers, died today at his home at Jersey City as the result of an operation on June 17, in which his right leg was amputated. Maj. MANCHURIAN SITUATION.

It Remains Practically As It Has Been for a Long Time.

Tokio, June 6, via Victoria, B. C., June 21.—The situation in Manchuria remains practically unchanged, only that the Chinese provinces have been evacuated by the Russian troops. Trade in Manchuria is reported to be at a standstill, owing to the unsettled state of affairs. It was expected that some developments would have supervened upon the arrival of M. Lessar, Russian minister at Peking on May 29, especially as M. Planchon, the Russian charge d'affaires, who was put in the two sets of demands on China, informed the Chinese government on that day that in view of M. Lessar's arrival an immediate answer to the demands was required.

TWO PROMINENT FIGURES IN THE SHIPBUILDING COMBINE MUDDLE.

Lewis Nixon, president, and Charles M. Schwab, promoter, of the United States Shipbuilding company, are the principal objects of attack by the bondholders who ask for a receiver in opposition to the suggested plan of reorganization. It is alleged that Mr. Schwab's Bethlehem steel works were turned over to the company at an abnormally inflated value, and it is also contended that Mr. Nixon's plant at Elizabethport, N. J., was appraised at ludicrously large figures. Mr. Schwab is president of the United States Steel company, and Mr. Nixon was the successor of Richard Croker as leader of Tammany Hall, New York, a position from which he retired when the duties of the presidency of the new shipbuilding combine demanded his entire attention. Both Mr. Nixon and Mr. Schwab are young men, the former being forty-two and the latter forty-one years of age.

Bishop, from the Marshall workhouse, but were driven off by the local police and guards who had anticipated the attacks. Members of the mobs fired their revolvers into the air, but no one was hurt. A MISSING MILKMAN.

He Leaves Notes of Affection and Other Notes Behind.

The disappearance of N. C. Horton, manager for the farm of the Elgin Dairy company, which occurred on Tuesday evening, is still worrying his friends, especially his female friends of whom there seemed to be quite a number. The man was to have been married on Wednesday night to a well known young lady of this city, and in spite of the evidence that Horton had deliberately left the city owing different sums of money, the young lady believes he will come back.

It is quite evident that the man had borrowed money from young women who admired him, and that he had quietly left the city to avoid paying his debts. This fact was brought out when a couple of notes addressed to him and left with the manager of the company were opened.

"Dear Nat," said one of the letters. "Please meet me tonight. You know that $15 I loaned you when we went to the fair on Wednesday night. I need it badly, but would not ask you if I didn't owe a debt which I must pay tomorrow. Please come, Stella."
